

April 1, 1996

LB 1189

with his because he has trouble with advanced technology, and he's expressed that to me a number of times. But, you know, I guess it would probably be worth the verbal abuse that I'm going to get from the people that I want to put lids on kids and all that other stuff. But I don't know, I don't know how I'm going to vote. Thank you.

SENATOR WESELY PRESIDING

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Senator Robinson. Next speaker, Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Whoever, Mr. Chairman, members, whoever can answer this question, fine. Who is the...what is it, the technology committee of some kind? Senator Maurstad said he was on it. Who is on it and how did they get there? Can you tell us?

SENATOR WESELY: Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: A question of me?

SENATOR LYNCH: Yeah, I don't care.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Oh, I'm going to have to have some help from some of the other members.

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, just how many people are on it?

SENATOR COORDSEN: There were...

SENATOR LYNCH: Is Senator Kristensen on it?

SENATOR COORDSEN: I believe Senator Kristensen, Senator Elmer, Senator Maurstad, myself, Senator McKenzie. Perhaps she can help me.

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, the question I had was...

SENATOR COORDSEN: But I don't have a list of the number of people.

SENATOR LYNCH: ...with all this technology, what I hate...what I can see almost happening now is in the words of Spiro Agnew