

(inaudible).

SENATOR HILLMAN: Elected officials have opposed this, Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, so...

SENATOR HILLMAN: Governing boards have not necessarily, but elected officials, and that's through NACO and their organization, Nebraska Association of County Officials and their legislative committee was the...

SENATOR LYNCH: So they got...no, I got the answer to the question.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Okay.

SENATOR LYNCH: My next question is, do you have a list of the governing boards, the governing boards, by that I guess the county boards that have supported this by resolution, this possibility?

SENATOR HILLMAN: I...

SENATOR LYNCH: You can answer those yes or no, either you got a list or you don't.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Yes.

SENATOR LYNCH: Oh, you have a list. Could you provide...could you tell us, besides Scotts Bluff County, what other counties have requested this 43 or (inaudible)?

SENATOR HILLMAN: Kimball County, is it Dakota County, I believe, in Senator.... I don't have a written list, I mean these are just those that have contacted me, Senator Lynch. And...

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay. So there are some counties out there (inaudible).

SENATOR HILLMAN: Yes.

SENATOR LYNCH: Would you say, there's 93 counties, there's more
