LB 108
LR 292

CLERK: Just one, Mr. President. Senator McKenzie, amendment to (LB) 108 to be printed. That's all that I have. (See page 1771 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: With that, Senator Schrock, you have the next amendment up. You can either open on your amendment, or if you would care to do something really crazy, like move to recess 12 minutes early, you could do that, too.

SENATOR SCHROCK: How about if I do.... Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I move that we recess until one-thirty.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay, before we do that I'd like to recognize Senator Lindsay does have some guests in the balcony. From St. Cecilia's Elementary School in Omaha, there are 35 fourth graders. (Introduced teachers as well.) With that, we can...let's recognize our guests. All those in favor of recessing signify by saying aye. Opposed. We are recessed.
