

they're seeing that they have been used and their labor has been exploited just like the labor of people who have to work in the cities and who have nothing but their labor to sell. Those are a few general comments. I got my light on again 'cause I want to ask some questions about the amendment and 292 as such. But if I don't get a chance to speak again, Senator Schrock, I am going to vote for your amendment. And, Jones, Jones, Jones,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Jones.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...hey, Jones, I hope you're listening. (Laughter.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I call the question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Question's been called. Do I see five hands? I see five hands. The question before you is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Debate ceases. The Chair recognizes Senator Schrock to close on his amendment.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Madam President and members of the Legislature, I appreciate all the comments that have been said about this amendment on the floor of the Legislature. Always a little skeptical when Senator Chambers speaks in favor of something I'm in favor of, but I do appreciate that support. Senator Crosby, I thought you made some good points and asked some good questions, but I think if this is going to be the session of property tax relief, and I'm skeptical and I think our farmers are skeptical, I think our property owners of the state are skeptical, and I think we need some guarantees that agricultural land will not be taxed at greater than 80 percent of market value. I think we need some guarantees that our residential and commercial property will not be taxed at greater than 100 percent of market value and this is the amendment to this constitutional amendment that we need to guarantee that. If you're going to provide property tax relief for these individuals you can't have residential homes being taxed at 100
