

it all becomes...it all of a sudden becomes so harmful and people are saying we are not going to vote for the package because all of a sudden this is placed in the constitution. I just think that those are...if anything was scare tactics, those were. And I guess maybe I don't understand the whole proposition, but one thing I do understand, and I will reiterate, one thing I do understand is taxes are too high in the ag sector of this state, and it's driving the young, energetic farmers out of this state to go where they can make a decent living, and that is a fact. Thank you.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I have to say something in case I didn't before. What the urban senators just did to you all is not illegitimate. They are supposed to do that. They are supposed to push you down as much as you can and that is how they represent their constituents. So they have done their job well. They have done what they were sent here to do. It is just that you haven't done your job. Senator Vrtiska was searching for a word to say how he felt after what has happened. Senator Vrtiska, what you feel is used. And you all are going to be used again this afternoon when the UP bill comes up. When the Union Pacific bill comes up, they are going to make all these alluring statements, and the rural senators, whose attention span is less than a few hours, will forget what they did to you. You'll forget it and you'll be jumping on the bandwagon to support that Union Pacific bill. That's what you are going to do because I know you, and you are going to make up the votes to give them 30 votes on 292CA. They know you and I know you, but they won't put the right descriptive term to you, and that term is "suckers". When the rural senators show themselves to be suckers, why should they not be treated that way? The urban senators are trying to teach you all something about politics, but you won't let your hard heads be penetrated. You are just hardheaded. You are just dumb, and they are trying to make you understand they don't know how to chew it any finer. But here is what they are going to do this afternoon, they are going to put two lessons side by side and show that you still don't get it. They are going to kick you in the teeth as they did on the reconsideration motion. Then they are going to turn around and make you vote for the Union Pacific bill, and it will show that you are, in fact, dumb. They just won't tell you that, but they
