county cemeteries, could they all vote together to cause this to occur, or would they be different types?

SENATOR BEUTLER: They would not be different types.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: One of them could participate...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...in such an activity.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: And that's helpful.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: So...but you could get, like the cemetery together with the county museum and the ag society, and have the meeting?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Theoretically, yes.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay. And that's the reason I guess I want to flush out what the types are. Your intent is that everybody that has some property tax dependence could have the opportunity to call this council together? Now whether they showed up or not is another issue.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. Senator Warner. Seeing no further lights, Senator Beutler, to close on your amendment.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator (sic) Robak, members of the Legislature, again all this does with respect to the discussion group...really that's what it is, the advisory group that's being created which we call a council...under the amendment as drafted, only the county could call that council into existence. If you adopt my amendment, you will allow those different political subdivisions that are now controlled by the county to
