

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then there wouldn't be any question.

SENATOR BROMM: That's fine.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is somebody else going to talk while we get together and do that? Or should I talk and let Senator Bromm do it in conjunction with our illustrious chairperson?

SENATOR BROMM: Let's see, are we on your time or...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We're on Senator Janssen's time but he's generous with everything except his Fritos.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Chambers, just for the record, we're on your time still on the opening on the amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, very good. The reason I had done that because I had spoken three times on the original so now I do have some time so I will speak while Senator Bromm and Senator Maurstad...I would like to give Senator Maurstad my time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Mr. President, I assume this will not take two brilliant minds like Senator Bromm and Senator Chambers more than probably three or four hours to work this out and so we probably need to have a few other people punch their lights on. I was so concerned about this because, you know, it's getting late in the session and the E & R Chairman has been working pretty darn hard, you know, in this short session and I just thought that if we could get this, you know, issue worked out before we had to massage it in the Enrollment and Review that it would just save everybody a lot of time and be able to report this back out to the floor a lot quicker. They still haven't addressed one of my main concerns and I doubt that they will, but I'll go ahead and visit on it a little bit if you could remind me as to what page this amendment is on.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator, you're talking about the amendment, the amendment at this point?
