

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: We are on a different amendment.

SENATOR LYNCH: You are on a different amendment. Well, does your language provide that the commission shall take into consideration?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: No.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: No.

SENATOR LYNCH: I just...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: I'm sorry I wasn't clearer.

SENATOR LYNCH: I think I agree with you.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: No, and, and...

SENATOR LYNCH: But until I see the pipes all screwed together I don't know if I can believe it or not yet.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: This is one of those deals where I took the pipes apart, Senator Lynch, and I...

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ..put some pipe joint on it so they don't leak and we are putting it back together.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay. Will this, then let me just...we'll do this together. Then this does not, I'm not sure what it does, or even if we even need it then, if we need this amendment, if we already have the amendment that we talked about before and you talked about with Mr. Janssen, but...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: And the reason that I did that, Senator Lynch, was that I'm afraid somebody may litigate that to find out what our legislative intent was and I wanted to make sure the statute was clear and hopefully I could avoid some litigation (inaudible).
