contracts is that you shall provide a written report on them. It doesn't say anything about your ability to enter into it or anything else about it, as far as I can read. If that's correct, then I don't see how there is any limitation upon new contractual situations in those instances where no fee is set by statute. Do you follow what I'm saying or...

SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR BROMM: I am having a little difficulty I guess. Maybe...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, maybe we should start with Section 4, don't you read that as a reporting only section?

SENATOR BROMM: That's...that's...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Shall provide a written report.

SENATOR BROMM: Yeah, that's all that we could require under the AG Opinion is a report about...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so it doesn't prohibit anything.

SENATOR BROMM: It doesn't prohibit anything, no, it does not.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, if that's the case then...

SENATOR BROMM: But I think it's implied when you read lines 19 and 20, if they desire to enter into a contract, that to sell public records, where there is no fee specified, they provide a written report, and when you read that in conjunction with Section 3...

SENATOR BEUTLER: But I don't...how can you read it in conjunction with Section 3 when it is just a reporting requirement and there is no reference back to Section 3?

SENATOR BROMM: Well, maybe that's...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time. The Chair would like to announce Senator Schimek has a guest under the north balcony, Tracey Hart from
