

think what is being done is a mistake. Senator Lindsay, you have won. Legislators, you have won a Pyrrhic victory. That's right, Senator Lindsay, a Pyrrhic victory. And that has two R's in it. I enjoy this. Senator Lindsay, I feel superior. But what I'm giving you all is the opportunity to mock me if this goes before the Supreme Court and they rule your way, that they were wrong and you all were right. But heaven help you, because I won't, if I'm right and you're wrong. And I think you're wrong, not only from the standpoint of being erroneous in how you're looking at the law and what the court will do, but in...

PRFIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...terms of legitimate responsible legislating. Personally, I think you all are going to get some good editorials out of this, I really do. And they're going to say, by God, the Legislature told the court what it thinks even if the court disregards them as it did on second degree murder definitions. But you showed the court. Sometimes the most important thing is not to show the court. Senator Lindsay, I wasn't going to take my last time but I'm going to need part of it so I'm going to stop now and then try to finish.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Chambers, I have that you've spoken three times already on this, on...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: On the motion to advance?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: On the motion to advance, yes, Senator. The question before the...Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: To close, Madam President. I just...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Lindsay to close.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I just advise Senator Chambers, rather than going through the process of having an amendment filed or anything like that to have the time to close, I would give him a portion of it. Before he does I would simply, simply...oh, wait a second, this...I don't get to close, it's Senator Beutler's close. (Laughter) Never mind.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Beutler, would you like to close, even though Senator Lindsay and Senator Chambers would like your
