Considering "every person" in the context of LB 100, it appears to us that persons of common intelligence would not have to guess at its meaning or differ as to its application. It is true that the phrase "every person" could include not only the newspaper carrier, but also the carrier's husband, children, siblings or others. However, under the language of LB 100, in order to be subject to the workers' compensation laws, "every person" must be delivering newspapers "for the owner or operators of a newspaper business or the owner or owners of a business hired to deliver or distribute newspapers." (Emphasis added.) Thus, only the carrier would be the person who is responsible for delivering the newspapers for the owner. A spouse, child or sibling of the carrier would be delivering the newspapers for the carrier, not for the owner. Accordingly, persons of common intelligence would not have to guess at the meaning of the phrase "every person," read in context with the whole of LB 100, since most people would assume that its scope covers only those hired by the business to deliver its newspapers.¹

¹ Larson v. Hometown Communications, Inc. 248 Neb. 942, 540 N.W.2d 339 (1995) supports this conclusion. The issue in that case was whether a young girl who carried newspapers for the Fremont Tribune as a substitute for another girl was an independent contractor or an employee of the paper for purposes of the Workers' Compensation statutes. The Court specifically considered whether the substitute had any contractual or employment relation with the paper, and indicated that a person working as a substitute for another may be an employee under the Workers' Compensation law when the employer knows of, and acquiesces in, the substitution. This

In addition, according to the clear language of LB 100, if a carrier delivers more than one newspaper, the carrier would be deemed an employee of every business in which he has a contract of employment to deliver its papers. For example, if the carrier delivers newspapers for the Omaha World-Herald and the Wall Street Journal, then the carrier would be an employee of both papers. Indeed, the clear and unambiguous language of LB 100 dictates that both the Omaha World-Herald and the Wall Street Journal would be deemed employers of the carrier and both would be subject to the workers' compensation laws. Similarly, the phrase "every person" could include people who are in the delivery business who are hired to distribute newspapers to various drop points, but who typically haul other products such as auto parts and beauty supplies. Once again, the language of LB 100 would make these people employees of the newspaper business. Thus, we believe that the phrase "every person" in LB 100 is not unconstitutionally vague. When the phrase is read in conjunction with the whole of the bill, persons of ordinary intelligence would not have to guess at its meaning.

In applying the due process test to the other language of LB 100 which causes you concern, we must determine whether the phrases "such business," "operator of a newspaper business," and "owners of a business hired to deliver or distribute newspapers" are phrases of ordinary understanding such that persons of common intelligence would not have to guess at their meaning in terms of complying with the prohibitions in the bill. LB 100 states that any operator of a newspaper business or an owner of a business who hires an individual to deliver newspapers should be deemed an employer of that individual and subject to the workers' compensation laws. We believe that persons of ordinary intelligence would assume that LB 100 applies to either a specific operator of a newspaper business who hires individuals to deliver newspapers or to an owner of a non-newspaper business that hires individuals to deliver newspapers. In other words, either the carrier will be delivering newspapers for the newspaper business itself or the carrier will be delivering newspapers for a non-newspaper business that hires individuals to deliver newspapers. Again, we do not believe that this language is unconstitutionally vague.

As a result, it appears to us that LB 100 generally uses ordinary terms which find adequate interpretation in common usage and understanding. On that basis, we do not believe that LB 100 is sufficiently vague so as to violate due process. Nevertheless, if you continue to believe that LB 100 is confusing and unclear, you may wish to introduce further amendatory language to deal with the interpretation problems which you perceive.

necessarily implies that persons subject to the Workers' Compensation Act must be hired by the employer.

Your second question involves art. III, § 18 of the Nebraska Constitution. You state that the Nebraska Workers Compensation Act currently applies to every employer in the state of Nebraska except for certain enumerated nonhazardous occupations, and that LB 100 seems premised on an assumption that all newspaper carriers and distributors are currently being treated as independent contractors who require special legislation separate and apart from all other independent contractors. You then note two potential problems with the bill from that prospective. First, some newspapers apparently already hire their carriers as employees, and LB 100 would be duplicative of those efforts. Second, "bestowing special protection to a limited group of people who are otherwise part of a larger group of independent contractors appears to be a creation of an unreasonable class and unconstitutional. LB 100 seems to be trying to differentiate between independent contractors with no rational basis for the distinction." Based upon these concerns, you ask ". . . whether LB100 constitutes 'class legislation' that is in contravention of Article III, Section 18 of the Nebraska Constitution?"

Art. III, § 18 of the Nebraska Constitution provides, as is pertinent:

The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following cases, that is to say:

* * * *

Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privileges, immunity, or franchise whatever In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted.

A legislative bill can violate art. III, § 18 by (1) creating a totally arbitrary and unreasonable method of classification, or (2) by creating a permanently closed class. MAPCO v. State Board of Equalization, 238 Neb. 565, 471 N.W.2d 734 (1991); Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699, 467 N.W.2d 836 (1991). As a result, LB 100 must be measured under those criteria.

At the outset, we are not entirely sure that the language at issue from LB 100 even creates a classification. You state that the bill attempts to treat one group of independent contractors (newspaper carriers) differently than all other independent contractors, and therefore, separately classifies them. However, it is not completely clear that most newspaper carriers are independent contractors under the current statutes. In Larson v. Hometown Communications, Inc., 248 Neb. 942, 540 N.W.2d 339 (1995), the Nebraska Supreme Court determined that a young girl who was injured while delivering newspapers was an employee of the paper involved under the facts of that case and the current Workers' Compensation statutes. Obviously, the decision in Larson that the carrier was an employee rather than an independent contractor was based upon the factual situation in that specific case. However, we suspect that the circumstances surrounding the employment of the plaintiff in the Larson case are not very different from the employment situation with respect to many other newspaper carriers across the state. Therefore, it could be argued that the bill does not treat one group of independent contractors differently from all others.

Assuming, however, that a classification is involved in LB 100, under the initial test described above, that classification cannot be totally arbitrary and unreasonable. In that regard, the Nebraska Supreme Court has indicated that legislative "[c]lassifications must be based on some substantial difference of situation or circumstances that would naturally suggest the justice or expediency of diverse legislation with respect to the objects to be classified." Haman v. Marsh supra at 713, 467 N.W.2d at 847 (emphasis in original). "The test for statutes challenged under the special-laws prohibitions . . . is that they must bear 'a reasonable and substantial relation to the objects sought to be accomplished by the legislation.' " Id.

We cannot say, as a matter of law, that there is no substantial difference of situation or circumstances that would naturally suggest the justice or expediency of diverse legislation with respect to newspaper carriers versus other independent contractors, or that any such classification does not bear a reasonable and substantial relation to the objects sought to be accomplished. For one thing, it is apparent that many newspaper carriers are minors. Therefore, it could be argued that children carrying newspapers should, as a matter of justice or expediency, be treated differently from other independent contractors who are operating businesses as adults, and that such separate treatment bears a substantial relation to the object of protecting those minors. As the trial judge stated in the Larson case, "[i]t is beyond sophistry and closer to outright dishonesty to characterize a 10-year[-]old party to a contract as a 'little merchant' and thus an independent contractor." Larson at 959, 540 N.W.2d at 351. As a result, since there may well be differences of circumstances which suggest the necessity for different treatment of newspaper carriers under statute, we do not believe that any classifications inherent in LB 100 are clearly arbitrary or unreasonable.

Art. III, § 18 is also violated by legislation which creates a permanently closed class. With regard to a closed class in this context, "a classification which limits the application of the law to a present condition, and leaves no room for opportunity for an increase in the numbers of the class by future growth or development, is special." Haman v. Marsh, supra at 716, 467 N.W.2d at 848. In the present instance, the provisions at issue in LB 100 would apply to existing newspaper carriers and also to those individuals who become newspaper carriers in the future. Consequently, LB 100 does not involve a closed class, since it allows for an increase in the numbers of the class. It, therefore, does not violate art. III, § 18 on that basis. See also Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92129 (December 30, 1992) (statutory classification which allowed additional members in the future was not a closed class under art. III, § 18).

4 The Property Tax Administrator shall calculate the amount due each 5 political subdivision under this section. Distributions shall be 6 made quarterly and warrants issued within thirty days of the end of 7 each quarter.

9 to a failure of the incorporated municipality to make required
10 filings promptly or completely. The incorporated municipality 11 shall be liable for the amount not received and interest. Neither 12 the Tax Commissioner nor the State Treasurer shall be liable to any 13 political subdivision for any such failure by the incorporated

20 (2) Each business within the redevelopment project shall 21 notify all persons from whom the business makes purchases that the

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 97017

DATE: March 7, 1997

SUBJECT: LB 447; Whether the Term "Corporation" as Used in the Bill Includes Nonprofit Corporations

REQUESTED BY: Senator Jon Bruning
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

LB 447 would change the Nebraska statutes dealing with the provision of ambulance service by local governmental entities in several respects. In your opinion request regarding that bill, you note that the term "corporation" is used throughout the legislation, and you request a "clarification" of the meaning of that language. Specifically, you state that:

[t]he Papillion Fire Department is a nonprofit corporation and there is concern that the term "corporation" [in LB 447] refers to it. This is not the intention of LB 447.

We, therefore, assume that you wish our opinion as to whether the term "corporation," as it is used in LB 447, includes nonprofit corporations as well as for-profit entities.

The term "corporation" is not defined in LB 447; nor is it defined in the statute which contains general definitions for use with the Nebraska statutes. See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 49-801 (1993). In Nebraska, in the absence of anything indicating the contrary, statutory language is to be given its plain and ordinary meaning. Application of City of Grand Island 247 Neb. 446, 527 N.W.2d 864 (1995). Consequently, we believe that the term "corporation" in LB 447 must be interpreted in its plain and ordinary sense.

Generally, a "corporation" is defined as "[a]n artificial person or legal entity created by or under the authority of the laws of a state or nation . . . which is regarded in law as having an existence distinct from its several members." BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY 307 (5th ed. 1979). Consistent with this definition, the Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that, "[a] corporation may be said to be an artificial person created by or under legislative enactment." Nebraska Wheat Growers Association v. Smith, 115 Neb. 177, 190, 212 N.W. 39, 44 (1927). In Nebraska, there are generally two types of corporations which may be created by private individuals, including for-profit corporations created under the Nebraska Business Corporation Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 21-2001 through 21-20,193 (Cum. Supp. 1996), and nonprofit corporations created under the Nebraska Nonprofit Corporation Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 21-1901 through 21-19,177 (Cum. Supp. 1996).

LB 447 does not specify whether "corporation," as used in that bill, refers to for-profit or nonprofit entities. However, we believe that the term "corporation," as it is generally defined, includes both types of corporations, since both are artificial legal entities created under authority of state statute. As a result, it appears to us that the term "corporation" in LB 447 does include both for-profit and nonprofit corporations.

We would also note that the term "corporation" is used several times in LB 447 with the term "private," as in the bill's proposed addition to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 13-303 (Cum. Supp. 1996):

(3) The county board or municipal governing body shall not contract with a private person, firm or corporation to provide fire service or ambulance service . . . unless the authority to so contract is approved by a majority of the registered voters of the county, city or village voting on the question at a general or special election.

(emphasis added). However, we believe that such references to "private" corporations simply distinguish between corporations which are established under statute by private individuals, and "public corporations" which are corporations established by government for the administration of governmental functions. See BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY 307 (5th ed. 1979). Therefore, under the ordinary meaning of those terms, for-profit and nonprofit corporations are both "private corporations."

You state that it is "not the intention of LB 447" to include nonprofit corporations such as the Papillion Fire Department within its definition of "corporation." If that is the case, we suggest that you consider amending the bill to make it clear, in some way, that references to "corporation" are intended to apply only to for-profit corporations.

Sincerely yours,
DON STENBERG

Opinion No. 97018

DATE: March 10, 1997

SUBJECT: Legislative Authority to Restrict Certain Business Locations

REQUESTED BY: Senator Eric J. Will

Lynn A. Melson, Assistant Attorney General

You have asked whether legislation that would limit the number of used car lots within a city or county "would impinge upon the zoning rights of cities and counties, and would therefore be unconstitutional." We note that you have not presented any specific legislation to us with your request for our review and analysis. You have simply asked our general opinion whether this type of legislation could be constitutionally suspect. Consequently, our response to your request must necessarily also be general in nature.

The Legislature has plenary legislative authority, which is limited only by the Nebraska and U.S. Constitutions. The state constitution is not a grant of power like the federal constitution, but is instead a limitation of power. State ex rel. Creighton Univ. v. Smith, 217 Neb. 682, 353 N.W.2d 267 (1984); Lenstrom v. Thone, 209 Neb. 783, 311 N.W.2d 884 (1981). As a general principle, the Legislature may legislate on any subject not inhibited by the state or federal constitutions and restrictions on this legislative power will not be inferred unless the restriction is clearly implied. Creighton, 217 Neb. at 688, 353 N.W.2d at 271; Lenstrom, 209 Neb. at 789-90, 311 N.W.2d at 888.

As a general proposition, the State, acting through the Legislature, has the ultimate authority in determining the manner and method of exercising the power to zone. Municipal corporations (cities) are creatures of the Legislature and as such are subject to the plenary power of the Legislature, subject only to restrictions contained in the constitution. "A city is a political subdivision of the state, created as a convenient agency for the exercise of such governmental powers of the state as may be entrusted to it by constitutional provision or legislative act. (citations omitted) A municipality has no inherent power to enact a zoning ordinance. The power to do so results from statutory or constitutional authorization. The governmental authority known as the police power is inherently an attribute of state sovereignty and belongs to subordinate governmental divisions when and as conferred by the state either through its Constitution or by valid legislation. (citations omitted)" Peterson v. Vasak, 162 Neb. 498, 501-502, 76 N.W.2d 420, 423 (1956).

It follows that the Legislature is authorized to revoke municipal powers as well as grant them. Therefore, while the Legislature has granted certain zoning powers to municipalities through a multitude of statutes relating to the size of such municipality, the Legislature may, as a general rule, modify or revoke such powers previously granted.

We must point out, however, that with regard to municipalities which operate under home rule charters, the answer to your question may depend upon whether the zoning legislation which you contemplate is found to be a matter of local or statewide concern. Article XI, Section 2 of the Constitution provides that a "city having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the constitution and laws of this state. . . ." Article XI, Section 5 is a similar provision concerning the charter of any city having a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants. "This has been construed to mean that a provision of a home rule charter takes precedence over a conflicting state statute in instances of local municipal concern, but when the Legislature enacts a law affecting municipal affairs which is of state-wide concern, the state law takes precedence over any municipal action taken under the home rule charter." Omaha Parking Authority v. City of Omaha, 163 Neb. 97, 104, 77 N.W.2d 862, 868 (1956).

In any given situation, one would first need to determine whether there existed a conflict between the provision of a home rule charter and a state statute. One would then need to determine the "concern" of the legislative act and whether the matter in conflict is one of local or statewide concern. The Nebraska Supreme Court has noted that there is "no sure test which will enable us to distinguish between matters of strictly municipal concern and those of state concern. The court must consider each case as it arises and draw the line of demarcation." Carlberg v. Metcalfe, 120 Neb. 481, 487, 234 N.W. 87, 90 (1930).

By way of example, the Nebraska Supreme Court has determined that a statute providing for firemen's pensions was a matter of statewide concern applicable to all cities within a designated class, whether they be home rule cities or not. Axberg v. City of Lincoln, 141 Neb. 55, 2 N.W.2d 613 (1942). In Van Patten v. City of Omaha, 167 Neb. 741, 94 N.W.2d 664 (1959), it was held that the procedure in condemnation was a matter of statewide concern. "Uniformity of this procedure, since it may affect every person in the matter of the ownership of his property and the compensation he is to receive, is a matter of state-wide concern and not of strictly municipal or local concern." Van Patten, 167 Neb. at 748 (quoting Nagle v. City of Grand Island, 144 Neb. 67, 69, 12 N.W.2d 540, 541 (1943)). The court has also considered a city ordinance which authorized the City of Lincoln to vacate any street within the limits of the city while retaining title thereto and found that such an ordinance did not supersede relevant state statutes which related to the transfer or protection of real property rights and which were of statewide concern. Dell v. City of Lincoln, 170 Neb. 176, 102 N.W.2d 62 (1960).

On the other hand, the Nebraska Supreme Court has determined that an Omaha city ordinance regulating dog kennels was valid and constitutional, based in part upon the court's finding that there was no problem involving a conflict between a state statute and a city ordinance as the zoning there involved was a matter of local concern rather than statewide concern. Wolf v. City of Omaha, 177 Neb. 545, 129 N.W.2d 501 (1964). In a different context, and not with regard to a conflict between a home rule charter and a state statute, the court has referred to zoning as a local concern. Giger v. City of Omaha, 232 Neb. 676, 442 N.W.2d 182 (1989). It appears to us that the court would examine each potential conflict on a case-by-case basis,

In summary, it is our opinion that the Legislature, as a general rule, has the ultimate authority with regard to zoning. However, if a conflict arises between a state statute and the provisions of a home rule charter, the answer to your question may well depend on whether the particular zoning legislation which you contemplate is found to be a matter of local or statewide concern. We further note that we have limited our response to the question you have raised regarding a potential conflict between state and city zoning laws and have not explored any other constitutional questions with regard to zoning in general.

Sincerely,
 DON STENBERG
 Attorney General

Opinion No. 97020

SUBJECT: LB 755; Constitutionality of Proposed Appropriation of Funds for the Women In Military Service For America Memorial

REQUESTED BY: Senator Chris Peterson

 Lauren L. Hill, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested an opinion from this office regarding the constitutionality of LB 755. Following the adoption of AM0533, the legislation, in pertinent part, would appropriate "$30,000 from the General Fund for FY1997-98 to the [Nebraska] Department of Veterans' Affairs, for the Nebraska state donation for the Women In Military Service For America Memorial."

Pursuant to the enactment of Pub. L. No. 99-610, 100 Stat. 3477, (November 6, 1986), the U.S. Congress authorized the Women in Military Service For America Memorial Foundation, Inc. to establish a memorial on federal land in the District of Columbia to honor women who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States. The federal law requires that the private foundation establish the memorial with non-federal funds. Id. Although it is unclear to us from the current language of LB 755, it appears that the legislation would authorize a $30,000 grant to the private foundation, which grant is to be paid by the Nebraska Department of Veterans' Affairs upon appropriation of funds to that agency from the Legislature.

You have posed three specific questions for our review.

1. Is LB 755 in violation of the Nebraska Constitution, Article III, §18; Article XIII, §3; or Article XV, §18?

In reviewing each of these three provisions, we note that, because the Nebraska Constitution "is not a grant but, rather, a restriction on legislative power, . . . the Legislature is free to act on any subject not inhibited by the Constitution." State ex rel. Stenberg v. Douglas Racing Corp., 246 Neb. 901, 905, 524 N.W.2d 61, 64 (1994); State ex rel. Creighton Univ. v. Smith, 217 Neb. 682, 353 N.W.2d 267 (1984). In so acting, however, the court has established that "[t]he people of the state, by adopting a Constitution, have put it beyond the power of the [L]egislature to pass laws in violation thereof." State ex rel. Randall v. Hall, 125 Neb. 236, 243, 249 N.W. 756, 759 (1933); see also State ex rel. Stenberg v. Murphy, 247 Neb. 358, 527 N.W.2d 185 (1995) ("constitutional language controls legislative language, not the other way around."); State ex rel. Caldwell v. Peterson, 153 Neb. 402, 45 N.W.2d 122 (1950) (the Legislature cannot lawfully act beyond limitations of Constitution).

Prohibition Against Local or Special Legislation.

Article III, Section 18 of the Nebraska Constitution provides that "[t]he Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following cases, that is to say: ... Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privileges, immunity, or franchise whatever. ... In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted."

In construing Article III, § 18, the Nebraska Supreme Court has determined that "[b]y definition, a legislative act is general, and not special, if it operates alike on all persons of a class or on persons who are brought within the relations and circumstances provided for...." Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699, 709, 467 N.W.2d 836, 844-45 (1991) (citations omitted); State ex rel. Rogers v. Swanson, 192 Neb. 125, 219 N.W. 2d 726 (1974). Thus, a legislative act can violate Article III, § 18 as special legislation in one of two ways: (1) by creating a totally arbitrary and unreasonable method of classification, or (2) by creating a permanently closed class. Swanson v. State, 249 Neb. 466, 544 N.W.2d 333 (1996); City of Scottsbluff v. Tiemann, 185 Neb. 256, 175 N.W.2d 74 (1970); Haman v. Marsh.

The Article III, §18 limitation is applicable to legislative appropriation bills as well as to substantive legislative enactments. See Henry v. Rockey, 246 Neb. 398, 518 N.W.2d 658 (1994). In fact, the court has expressly determined that although the Legislature is specifically empowered to make appropriations for the expenses of the government, it "is not vested with unlimited power to make appropriations. The purpose ... of an appropriation bill is to make provision for lawfully taking money out of the state treasury...." Id. at 405, 518 N.W.2d at 663 (quoting Rein v. Johnson, 149 Neb. 67, 78, 30 N.W.2d 548, 556 (1947), cert. denied 335 U.S. 814, 69 S.Ct. 31, 93 L.Ed. 369 (1948)). Therefore, the court has concluded: "[t]he Legislature is not empowered to make appropriations for purely charitable purposes. ... The purse strings of this state are not open for the purpose of simply giving money away." Id. (citing Haman v. Marsh; Weaver v. Koehn, 120 Neb. 114, 231 N.W. 703 (1930)).

Based upon these principles, the court has found that "[t]he test for statutes challenged under the special-laws prohibitions is that they must bear a reasonable and substantial relation to the object sought to be accomplished by the legislation." Henry, 246 Neb. at 404, 518 N.W.2d at 662.

If LB 755 had proposed to appropriate funds directly to individual Nebraska women veterans, then the Article III, § 18 prohibition would likely preclude such an appropriation. The distinction, however, is that the proposed appropriation of taxpayer funds will be used for construction of a national memorial to past and future women veterans. The purpose stated within LB 755 for expenditure of the funds is to memorialize and honor, "while providing visibility and an educational experience about an important segment of the nation's history, women's roles in national defense." LB 755, as amended by AMO533, §1. Additionally, the proposed expenditure would "be a tribute to Nebraska's [women veterans]." Id.

We find that, because the proposal incorporated within LB 755 is similar to other enactments of the Legislature which set aside tributary memorials to reflect other individuals and aspects of Nebraska history, it is not violative of Article III, § 18. See, e.g., Neb. Rev. Stat. §72-724 - §72-729.01 (1996)(authorizing creation of the Nebraska Hall of Fame Commission to "bring public attention and to recognize officially those people who... have achieved prominence and who were outstanding Nebraskans."); Neb. Rev. Stat. §82-120 - §82-123 (1994)(authorizing the Nebraska State Historical Society to expend public funds for the purchase of highway historical markers which recognize historical events, personalities, and traditions); Neb. Rev. Stat. §80-201 - §80-205 (1994)(authorizing political subdivisions to erect statues, monuments, or other memorials commemorating the services of veterans who served in specified conflicts and wars).

Prohibition Against Lending Credit of the State.

You have also asked that we address whether LB 755 violates the provision of the state Constitution which mandates that "[t]he credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation...." Neb. Const. art. XIII, §3. In its Haman decision, the Nebraska Supreme Court interpreted this provision. At issue in Haman was legislation which appropriated state tax money to compensate depositors who had suffered losses due to the failure of industrial loan and investment companies in Nebraska.

The court set out a three-prong test and found that, in order to establish a law as invalid under Article XIII, § 3, each of the following elements must exist: (1) The credit of the state (2) is given or loaned; (3) in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. 237 Neb. at 719, 467 N.W.2d at 850; Callan v. Balka, 248 Neb. 469, 536 N.W.2d 47 (1995). In addition, the court expressly held that "[t]he prohibition against the pledge of the state's credit does not hinge on whether the legislation achieves a 'public purpose,' when the pledge benefits a private individual, association, or corporation." Id. at 722, 467 N.W.2d at 852. Rather, the key focus of Article XIII, §3 is whether the state stands as a creditor through the expenditure of its funds or as a debtor by the extension of credit. Id.

Under the legislation it reviewed, the Haman court found that "the state would be forever liable for the losses of industrial company depositors. . . ." Id. at 720, 467 N.W.2d at 850. Moreover, the "stated purpose of the act [was] redemption of the guarantees of a private corporation to depositors by obligating present and future taxes from the state's general fund." Id. Thus, the court found that the state's credit was "given or loaned." Since state funds would be provided to private depositors, the court found the third-prong of the Article XIII, §3 to be implicated, as well, by the legislation.

To determine whether the expenditure of state funds proposed by LB 755 would violate Article XIII, Sec. 3, we return to the three-prong test set forth in Haman v. Marsh. The threshold question which must be analyzed is whether the appropriation proposed in LB 755 involves the "credit of the state." In Haman, the court stated that "[t]here is a distinction between the loaning of state funds and the loaning of the state's credit. When a state loans funds, it is in the position of creditor, whereas the state is in the position of debtor upon a loan of credit." Id. at 719-720, 467 N.W.2d at 850.

The $30,000 grant proposed by LB 755 is a one-time expenditure of state funds. Clearly, the appropriation authorized by LB 755 does not place the State of Nebraska in the position of a debtor or surety of another's debt. Therefore, we conclude that the legislative proposal does not violate Article XIII, Section 3 of the state Constitution. Our conclusion is that the use of state funds as a donation to a private foundation for the purpose of constructing a memorial to women veterans would not violate the constitutional prohibition against lending the credit of the state; however, the LB 755 proposal might be challenged as an expenditure of state funds for private purposes. (See our discussion, below, in response to your second question).

Limitation on Governmental Powers.

The additional provision of the Constitution which you have asked us to assess provides:

The state or any local government may exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions, including financing the same, jointly or in cooperation with any other governmental entity or entities, either within or without the state, except as the Legislature shall provide otherwise by law.

Neb. Const. art. XV, §18. This provision has no application to LB 755. Under the current version of that bill, a state agency, at the direction of the Legislature, would be making a $30,000 grant to a private memorial foundation as a contribution to the construction of the Women In Military Service For America Memorial. Although construction of the memorial is expressly authorized by federal law, a private, incorporated foundation -- and not the federal government -- would be the recipient of the grant funds. Therefore, Section XV, §18 is not implicated by the proposal set forth in LB 755.

2. Would these moneys [which, for purposes of analysis, we assume to be the proposed $30,000 appropriation] be considered public moneys being used to encourage private enterprise?

Article XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution is the provision which is intended to prevent the State from extending its credit to private enterprises. United Community Services v. The Omaha National Bank, 162 Neb. 786, 77 N.W.2d 576 (1956). "Closely related to the prohibition against the giving or lending of the state's credit . . . is the principle of law that public funds cannot be expended for private purposes." Haman, 237 Neb. at 721-722, 467 N.W.2d at 851.

This longstanding constitutional principle involves the expenditure of state funds in contrast to the extension of credit. While the Constitution contains no express provision against expending funds for essentially private purposes, the Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that this principle "is grounded on the 'fundamental concepts of our constitutional system.' " State ex rel. Douglas v. Thone, 204 Neb. 836, 842, 286 N.W.2d 249 (1979) (quoting State ex rel. Beck v. City of York, 164 Neb. 223, 82 N.W.2d 269 (1957)); Oxnard Beet Sugar Co. v. State, 73 Neb. 57, r'hrq denied, 73 Neb. 66 (1905).

There is no hard and fast rule for determining whether a proposed expenditure of public funds is for a public purpose. In Platte Valley Public Power & Irrigation District v. County of Lincoln, 144 Neb. 584, 14 N.W.2d 202 (1944), the Nebraska Supreme Court discussed the parameters of a "public purpose." Generally, the court noted that a "public purpose" is one which has for its objective the promotion of the public health, safety, morals, security, prosperity, contentment, and the general welfare of citizens. Later, in United Community Services v. The Omaha National Bank, 162 Neb. 786, 800, 77 N.W.2d 576 (1956), the court explained that [i]t is the province of the [L]egislature to determine matters of policy. In appropriating the public funds, if there is reason for doubt or argument as to whether the purpose for which the appropriation is made is a public or private purpose, and reasonable men might differ in regard to it, it is generally held that the matter is for the [L]egislature [to determine].... [T]he vital point in all such appropriations is whether the purpose is public; and that, if it is, it does not matter whether the agency through which it is dispensed is public or not; that the appropriation is not made for the agency, but for the object which it serves; the test is in the end, not in the means [utilized to achieve the Unicameral's purpose].

In State ex rel. Douglas v. Thone, 204 Neb. 836, 286 N.W.2d 249 (1979), the court also held that there is no requirement that a legislative act calling for the expenditure of public funds need contain an express declaration of public purpose. Thus, our court has evidenced a willingness to engage in a somewhat flexible interpretation of the public purpose doctrine in relation to the expenditure of state monies. For example, with regard to housing, the court has found constitutional the act creating the Housing Authority of the City of Omaha (Lennox v. Housing Authority of City of Omaha, 137 Neb. 582, 290 N.W. 451 (1940)), and has found as constitutional the act creating the Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund (State ex rel. Douglas v. Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, 204 Neb. 445, 283 N.W.2d 12 (1979)).

The court, however, has also held that laws which authorize the expenditure of state funds to encourage private enterprises do not serve a public interest. A statute offering compensation or a bounty to private companies to encourage the manufacture of sugar and chicory was found unconstitutional in Oxnard Beet Sugar Co. v. State, 73 Neb. 57 (1905). Further, in Chase v. County of Douglas, 195 Neb. 838, 241 N.W.2d 334 (1976), the court found that the provisions of the statute authorizing expenditures for the purpose of acquiring real estate or options on real estate for industrial development were in derogation of Article XIII, § 3.

Clearly, the expenditure of funds authorized in LB 755 would be made to a private foundation. It is asserted, however, that the purpose of the expenditure would be to specially recognize the State of Nebraska's financial contribution to the memorial honoring the Nation's women veterans. Such an expenditure is similar to legislation enacted in 1933 which authorized the collection of voluntary donations and subscriptions and the levy of state taxes for the purpose of placing, on behalf of the State of Nebraska, memorial statues of William Jennings Bryan and J. Sterling Morton in Statuary Hall in the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. See 1933 Neb. Laws, c.97, §1, §3, p. 405-406. We cannot clearly conclude that such expenditures have no valid "public purpose." Thus, if the Legislature determines, as a matter of policy, that such an expenditure is appropriate, and demonstrates the basis for its decision during debate on the measure, then it would likely survive scrutiny by the Nebraska Supreme Court under Article XIII, § 3.

3. If LB 755 is in violation of the Nebraska Constitution, is there any means in which the Nebraska Legislature could appropriate funding to ensure that Nebraska women veterans would receive the recognition that they deserve?

Due to our responses to the preceding questions, it is unnecessary to address this question.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG

24 which the election is held. If all liabilities of a candidate and 1 committee are paid before the closing date and additional 2 contributions are not expected, the campaign statement may be filed 3 at any time after the election, but not later than the dates 4 provided under this subdivision.

5 (2) Any committee may file a statement in writing with 6 the commission indicating that the committee does not expect to 7 receive contributions or make expenditures of more than one 8 thousand dollars in the calendar year of an election. Such written 9 statement shall be signed by the committee treasurer or the 10 assistant treasurer, and in the case of a candidate committee, it 11 shall also be signed by the candidate. Such written statement 12 shall be filed on or before the thirtieth day before the election.
13 A committee which files a written statement pursuant to this 14 subsection is not required to file campaign statements according to 15 the schedule prescribed in subsection (1) of this section but shall 16 file a sworn statement of exemption not later than the fortieth day 17 following the primary election and the sixtieth day following the 18 general election stating only that the committee did not, in fact, 19 receive or expend an amount in excess of one thousand dollars. If 20 the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures of more 21 than one thousand dollars during the election year, the committee 22 is then subject to all campaign filing requirements under 23 subsection (1) of this section.

24 Sec. 2. Section 49-1463, Reissue Revised Statutes of 25 Nebraska, is amended to read:

26 49-1463. Any person who fails to file a campaign
27 statement with the commission under sections 49-1459 to 49-1463 1 shall pay to the commission a late filing fee of ten dollars for 2 each day the campaign statement remains not filed in violation of 3 this section, not to exceed three hundred dollars. Any committee 4 which fails to file a statement of exemption with the commission 5 under subsection (2) of section 49-1459 shall pay to the commission 6 a late filing fee of ten dollars for each day the statement of 7 exemption remains not filed in violation of this section, not to 8 exceed one hundred dollars.

9 Sec. 3. Section 49-1463.01, Revised Statutes Supplement,
10 1996, is amended to read:

11 49-1463.01. A person required to pay a late filing fee 12 imposed under section 49-1449, 49-1458, 49-1463, 49-1467, 49-1469, 13 or 49-1479.01 may apply to the commission for relief. The 14 commission by order may reduce the amount of a late filing fee 15 imposed upon a showing by such person that (1) the circumstances 16 indicate no intent to file late, (2) the person has not been 17 required to pay late filing fees for two years prior to the time 18 the filing was due, (3) the late filing shows that less than five 19 thousand dollars was raised, received, or expended during the 20 reporting period, and (4) a reduction of the late fees would not 21 frustrate the purposes of the Nebraska Political Accountability and 22 Disclosure Act. A person required to pay a late filing fee imposed 23 for failure to file a statement of exemption under subsection (2) 24 of section 49-1459 may apply to the commission for relief. The 25 commission by order may reduce or waive the late filing fee and the 26 person shall not be required to make a showing as provided by this 27 section.

1 Sec. 4. Section 49-1488.01, Revised Statutes Supplement,
2 1996, is amended to read:

3 49-1488.01. (1) Every lobbyist who fails to file a 4 quarterly statement or a statement of activity with the Clerk of 5 the Legislature, pursuant to sections 49-1483 and 49-1488, shall 6 pay to the commission a late filing fee of ten dollars for each day 7 any of such statements are not filed in violation of such sections 8 but not to exceed three hundred dollars per statement.

9 (2) A lobbyist required to pay a late filing fee pursuant 10 to subsection (1) of this section may apply to the commission for 11 relief. The commission by order may reduce the amount of the late 12 filing fee imposed upon such lobbyist if he or she shows the 13 commission that (a) the circumstances indicate no intent to file 14 late, (b) the lobbyist has not been required to pay a late filing 15 fee for two years prior to the time the filing of the statement was 16 due, (c) the late filing of the statement shows that less than five 17 thousand dollars was raised, received, or expended during the 18 reporting period, and (d) a reduction of the late fee would not 19 frustrate the purposes of the Nebraska Political Accountability and 20 Disclosure Act.

21 (3) A lobbyist required to pay a late filing fee pursuant 22 to subsection (1) of this section who qualifies for an exemption to 23 the filing of quarterly statements pursuant to subsection (3) of 24 section 49-1483 may apply to the commission for relief. The 25 commission by order may reduce or waive the late filing fee and the 26 person shall not be required to make a showing as provided by LEGISLATIVE BILL 395. Placed on General File as amended.

Standing Committee amendment to LB 395:

AM1138

1 1. Strike the original sections and insert the following
2 new sections:
3 "Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares that 4 protection of the environment is enhanced by the public's voluntary 5 compliance with environmental requirements and the local 6 counterpart or extension of such requirements and that the public 7 will benefit from incentives to identify and remedy environmental 8 compliance issues. The Legislature further declares that it is in 9 the public interest to encourage such activities by assuring 10 limited confidentiality protection of environmental audit findings 11 and of providing fair treatment of those who report environmental 12 audit findings to regulatory authorities.

13 Sec. 2. (1) For the purposes of sections 1 to 15 of this 14 act:

15 (a) Environmental audit means any document dated and 16 labeled as a confidential environmental audit and prepared pursuant 17 to a specific written directive to review compliance with an 18 environmental requirement or requirements, including any report, 19 finding, communication, or opinion or any draft of a report, 20 finding, communication, or opinion, related to and prepared as a 21 result of a voluntary self-evaluation that is done in good faith;

22 (b) Environmental requirement means an environmental 23 protection requirement contained in (i) the Environmental 24 Protection Act, the Integrated Solid Waste Management Act, the 1 Nebraska Chemigation Act, the Pesticide Act, the Petroleum Products
2 and Hazardous Substances Storage and Handling Act, sections 81-1575 3 to 81-1577, or federal law, a rule or regulation adopted and 4 promulgated pursuant to such acts, sections, or laws, a permit or 5 order issued pursuant to such acts, sections, or laws, or an 6 agreement entered into or court order issued pursuant to any of the 7 foregoing or (ii) an ordinance or other legally binding requirement 8 of a local governmental unit under authority granted by state or 9 federal law relating to environmental protection;

10 (c) In camera review means a hearing or review in a 11 courtroom, hearing room, or judge's chambers (i) to which the 12 general public is not admitted, (ii) after which the evidence and 13 the statements of the judge, hearing officer, and counsel are held 14 in confidence by those participating in or present at the hearing 15 or review, and (iii) any transcript of which is sealed and not 16 considered a public record until and unless its contents are 17 disclosed by a court having jurisdiction over the subject matter of 18 the hearing;

19 (d) Person means any individual, partnership, limited 20 liability company, association, public or private corporation, 21 trustee, receiver, assignee, agent, municipality, other 22 governmental subdivision, public agency, other legal entity, or any 23 officer or governing or managing body of any public or private 24 corporation, municipality, governmental subdivision, public agency, 25 or other legal entity; and

26 (e) Voluntary self-evaluation means a self-initiated 27 assessment, audit, or review, not otherwise expressly required by 1 environmental requirement, that is performed by any person for 2 himself, herself, or itself, either by an employee of such person 3 assigned the responsibility of performing such assessment, audit, 4 or review or by a consultant engaged by such person specifically 5 for the purpose of performing such assessment, audit, or review to 6 determine whether such person is in compliance with environmental 7 requirements.

8 Sec. 3. (1) An environmental audit prepared under 9 sections 1 to 15 of this act is confidential, is not subject to 10 discovery, and is not admissible as evidence in any civil or 11 administrative proceeding or enforcement proceedings under local 12 ordinances, except (a) as provided in sections 4 to 6 and 9 of this 13 act, (b) an agency having regulatory authority may obtain and 14 review such audit for the limited purposes of determining if the 15 audit exists and if any exceptions to the confidentiality or 16 liability provisions of sections 1 to 15 of this act exist with 17 respect to the audit, and (c) no confidentiality protections are 18 given under this section with respect to actions involving actual 19 significant adverse impact on the public health or the environment.

20 (2) If an environmental audit or any part thereof is 21 confidential as provided in subsection (1) of this section, neither 22 any person who conducted the audit nor any person to whom the audit 23 results are disclosed, unless such disclosure constituted a waiver 24 of the confidentiality protection under section 4 of this act, can 25 be compelled to testify regarding any matter which was the subject 26 of the audit and which is addressed in a confidential part of the 27 environmental audit.

1 Sec. 4. Except as provided in sections 5 and 6 of this 2 act, the person for whom the environmental audit was prepared, 3 whether the audit was prepared by the person or employee of the 4 person or by a consultant hired by the person, may waive the 5 confidentiality protection only by an express waiver.

6 Sec. 5. (1) An environmental audit may be disclosed, may 7 be subject to discovery, and may be admissible as evidence in any 8 civil or administrative proceeding or enforcement proceedings under 9 local ordinances if a court of record, after an in camera review, 10 determines that:

11 (a)(i) The environmental audit shows evidence that the 12 person for which the environmental audit was prepared is not or was 13 not in compliance with an environmental requirement; and 14 (ii) The person did not initiate, after the audit, 15 appropriate efforts to achieve compliance with the environmental 16 requirement or complete in good faith any necessary permit 17 application promptly after the noncompliance with the environmental 18 requirement was discovered and, as a result, the person did not or 19 will not achieve compliance with the environmental requirement or 20 complete the necessary permit application within a reasonable 21 amount of time; or

22 (b) The confidentiality protection is being asserted for 23 a fraudulent purpose or the environmental audit was prepared in 24 order to avoid disclosure of information in an investigative, 25 administrative, or judicial proceeding that was underway, that was 26 imminent, or for which the person had been provided written 27 notification that an investigation into a specific violation had 1 been initiated; or

2 (c) The information contained in the environmental audit 3 shows (i) violations which would likely result in a significant 4 adverse impact on the public health or the environment in areas 5 outside of the facility property or (ii) water contamination.

6 (2) For the purposes of subdivision (1)(a) of this 7 section, if the evidence shows noncompliance with more than one 8 environmental requirement by a person, the person may demonstrate 9 to the court that appropriate efforts to achieve compliance were or 10 are being taken by instituting a comprehensive program that 11 establishes a phased schedule of actions to be taken to bring the 12 person into compliance with all of such environmental requirements.

13 Sec. 6. Upon a showing by any party, based upon 14 information independent from the environmental audit but which may 15 include the disclosure filed pursuant to section 10 of this act, 16 that probable cause exists to believe that an exception under 17 section 4 or 5 of this act to the confidentiality protection under 18 section 3 of this act is applicable to an environmental audit or 19 that the confidentiality protection does not apply to the 20 environmental audit pursuant to section 9 of this act, a court of 21 record may allow such party limited or unlimited access to the 22 environmental audit for the purposes of an in camera review only.
23 The court of record may grant such access to all or part of the 24 environmental audit upon such conditions as may be necessary to 25 protect the confidentiality of the environmental audit. A moving 26 party who obtains access to an environmental audit pursuant to this 27 section shall not divulge any information from the audit except as 1 specifically allowed by any court.

2 Sec. 7. If any public employee or official knowingly 3 divulges or disseminates all or any part of the information 4 contained in an environmental audit in violation of section 6 of 5 this act or knowingly divulges or disseminates all or any part of 6 such information contained in an environmental audit that was 7 provided to such public employee or official in violation of such 8 section, such public employee or official shall be guilty of a

9 Class III misdemeanor.

10 Sec. 8. A person asserting confidentiality protection 11 under section 3 of this act has the burden of proving a prima facie 12 case as to the confidentiality protection. A party seeking 13 disclosure of an environmental audit has the burden of proving that 14 such confidentiality protection does not exist under such section.

15 Sec. 9. The confidentiality protection created by 16 section 3 of this act does not apply to:

17 (1) Documents or information required to be developed, 18 maintained, or reported pursuant to any environmental requirements;

19 (2) Documents or other information required to be 20 available or furnished to a regulatory agency pursuant to any 21 environmental requirement or any other law;

22 (3) Documents or information maintained or developed 23 relating to grants or other financial assistance sponsored by the 24 state or federal government;

25 (4) Information obtained by a regulatory agency through 26 observation, inspection, sampling, or monitoring pursuant to an 27 environmental requirement; or

1 (5) Information obtained through any source independent 2 of the environmental audit.

3 Sec. 10. A person performing a voluntary self-evaluation 4 may disclose in writing a possible violation of an environmental 5 requirement to an agency having regulatory authority showing:

6 (1) A description of the possible violation;

7 (2) The date of discovery of the possible violation and,
8 if known, the date the possible violation occurred; and 9 (3) Actions taken to correct the possible violation and, 10 if applicable, a schedule to achieve compliance.

11 Sec. 11. If disclosure is made pursuant to section 10 of 12 this act and the agency having regulatory authority has approved 13 the action taken or the schedule to achieve compliance, as 14 appropriate, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, the 15 person is not liable for civil penalties unless (1) the disclosure 16 was not made within sixty days after knowledge of the information 17 disclosed was obtained by the person and was not disclosed to the 18 agency having regulatory authority prior to the agency having 19 knowledge of the violation contained in the disclosure, (2) the 20 disclosure did not arise out of a voluntary self-evaluation, (3) 21 the person making the disclosure did not initiate the appropriate 22 efforts to achieve compliance, did not pursue compliance with due 23 diligence, and did not correct the noncompliance as soon as 24 reasonably practicable after discovery of the violation during the 25 course of the environmental audit, (4) the person making the 26 disclosure did not cooperate with the agency having regulatory 27 authority with regard to the violation disclosed regarding 1 investigation of the issues identified in the disclosure, (5) the 2 violation was due to a lack of good faith efforts to understand or 3 comply with environmental requirements, (6) the violation was

4 knowing and willful, or (7) the violation would likely result or 5 has resulted in significant adverse impact on the public health or 6 the environment. If the noncompliance under subdivision (3) of 7 this section is the failure to obtain a permit, appropriate efforts 8 to correct the noncompliance may be demonstrated by the submission 9 of a complete permit application within a reasonable time and a 10 permit for such activities is subsequently issued by the agency.

11 This section does not apply to violations of the terms of 12 any agreement entered into or court order or administrative order 13 issued pursuant to an environmental requirement, including, but not 14 limited to, consent decrees or plea agreements.

15 This section does not preclude the agency having 16 regulatory authority from seeking the recovery of any economic 17 benefit resulting from noncompliance with an environmental 18 requirement.

19 For purposes of this section, (a) if a person is 20 required, under an environmental requirement, under a specific 21 permit condition, or under an order issued by the agency, to make a 22 disclosure to an agency having regulatory authority with regard to 23 the violation disclosed, the disclosure is not voluntary with 24 respect to that agency; and (b) repeat violations or closely 25 related additional violations within five years after a previous 26 violation shall be prima facie evidence of a lack of good faith 27 efforts to comply with environmental requirements.

1 For purposes of this section, violation means any 2 violation of an environmental requirement identified in a judicial 3 or administrative order, consent agreement, conviction, or plea 4 agreement.

5 Sec. 12. Except as specifically provided in sections 1 6 to 11 of this act, such sections do not affect the regulatory 7 authority that any department or agency has to require any action 8 associated with the information disclosed.

9 Sec. 13. Sections 1 to 12 of this act do not limit, 10 waive, or abrogate the scope or nature of any statutory or common 11 law privilege, including the work-product doctrine and the 12 attorney-client privilege.

13 Sec. 14. The district court of the county in which the 14 facility is located or, if all parties agree, the district court of 15 Lancaster County shall have jurisdiction of actions brought under 16 section 5, 6, or 8 of this act.

17 Sec. 15. This act terminates on July 1, 2002."

DATE: March 25, 1997

SUBJECT: LB 146; Legal effect in cases involving discipline of health care professionals

REQUESTED BY: Senator Don Wesely, Chairperson
Health and Human Services Committee

James D. Smith, Assistant Attorney General

OPINION REQUEST:

LB 146 would change the Nebraska statutes stating the grounds for disciplining licenses of health care professionals. LB 146 would amend the disciplinary statutes by adding the following language:

This section shall not be construed to affect or prevent a licensee's use of whatever medical care, conventional or nonconventional, which effectively treats human disease, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition which is within the scope of practice of the licensee.

In your opinion request, you express the concern that the bill will weaken the ability of examining boards and our office to regulate unproven therapies. Your opinion request specifically seeks our opinion "concerning the legal effect of adding this new language in cases involving discipline of health care professionals".

CONCLUSIONS:

1. As drafted, LB 146 would inject legal ambiguity into the statutory grounds for disciplining professional health care licenses.
2. As drafted, LB 146's legal ambiguity can allow licensed health care professionals to promote and use unproven therapies with less risk of disciplinary consequences.

Legislative history:

Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 71-147 and 71-148 state the many grounds for disciplining the licenses of health care professionals. LB 146 proposes to amend both Sections 71-147 and 71-148 by adding the language stated above.

The disciplinary grounds provided by Sections 71-147 and 71-148 apply to multiple licensed health professions and occupations, not simply those professionals having a license to practice medicine and surgery. These disciplinary statutes are also applicable to licensed professionals such as advanced registered nurse practitioners, nurses, certified nurse practitioner-anesthetists, certified nurse midwives, athletic trainers, chiropractors, dentists, dental hygienists, massage therapists, medical nutrition therapists, mental health practitioners, nursing home administrators, optometrists, osteopathic physicians, pharmacists, physical therapists, podiatrists, psychologists, and respiratory therapists.

As recognized by the Nebraska Supreme Court, the purpose for licensing and disciplining health care professionals is for the protection of the public. Using the Supreme Court's terminology from last century, "The purpose . . . was to protect the sick and afflicted against the knavery of quacks" Maxwell v. Swigart, 48 Neb. 789, 791, 67 N.W. 789, 790 (1896). Using the Supreme Court's more recent terminology, "The disciplinary proceedings of physicians . . . serve the same purpose: protection of the public interest." Davis v. Wright, 243 Neb. 931, 939, 503 N.W.2d 814, 819 (1993).

In reviewing the history of Section 71-147 and 71-148, it is noted that significant amendments were made to these statutes in 1993 by the Legislature in response to the Nebraska Supreme Court's decision in Curry v. State ex rel. Stenberg, 242 Neb. 695, 496 N.W.2d 512 (1993). The Curry case involved a physician who had been disciplined for "unprofessional conduct" for prescribing controlled substances contrary to practice standards of the medical profession. The Nebraska Supreme Court reversed the discipline on the basis that Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 71-147 and 71-148 did not define "unprofessional conduct" to include a professional's violation of the practice standards of his own profession.

Two months after the Curry decision, the Legislature adopted Amendment 2051 to Laws 1993, LB 536, which was ultimately passed by the Legislature by a vote of 44 to 1 with the emergency clause and approved by the Governor on June 10, 1993. Amendment 2051 amended Section 71-148's definition of "unprofessional conduct" and added the following language:

unprofessional conduct shall mean any departure from or failure to conform to the standards of acceptable and prevailing practice of a profession or occupation or the ethics of the profession or occupation, regardless of whether a person, patient, or entity is injured, or conduct that is likely to deceive or defraud the public or is detrimental to the public interest, including, but not limited to:

[Subsections 1 through 16, stating various disciplinary violations, remained unchanged. Subsections 17-21 were added to create new violations relating to sexual misconduct, failure to maintain treatment records, and drug prescribing violations.]

There are several key terms of LB 146 which are not defined by the bill. They are the terms "effectively treats", "conventional or nonconventional", and "medical care".

The terms "conventional or unconventional", in the context of the bill's remaining language, indicate that the ultimate question to be considered in disciplining licensed health care professionals for providing medical care is the effectiveness of "whatever medical care". One can obviously note that the proof of anything is in the pudding. However, trying to prove at a disciplinary hearing what was in the pudding, after the fact, may be extremely difficult.

The bill is unclear who will have the burden of proving effectiveness or how such matters are to be proven. In Davis v. Wright, 243 Neb. 931, 503

N.W.2d 814 (1993), the Nebraska Supreme Court ruled that the State has the burden of proving disciplinary violations by clear and convincing evidence, which is a heavier burden of proof than is imposed on a civil litigant in malpractice litigation. Thus, the question of who would have the burden of proving "effectiveness", or lack of the same, in a disciplinary proceeding is a significant question, especially if the burden of proof in this regard is to be on the State.

The question of how to prove "effectiveness" is troublesome when legal concepts of admissible evidence are contrasted with the bill's use of the adjective "unconventional" in reference to "medical care". Neb. Rev. Stat. § 84-914(1) provides that any party to an administrative hearing may require an administrative agency to be bound by the rules of evidence. Since professional disciplinary proceedings are administrative hearings, either the State or the licensed professional may invoke the rules of evidence for a contested disciplinary hearing. If proof of effectiveness of medical care is to be by expert testimony, the Nebraska Supreme Court applies the standard for the admissibility of scientific evidence first enunciated in Frye v. United States, 293 F. 1013 (D.C. Cir. 1923)". See, State v. Reynolds, 235 Neb. 662, 457 N.W.2d 405 (1990); State v. Carter, 246 Neb. 953, 524 N.W.2d 763 (1994). The Nebraska Supreme Court has explained the "Frye" test as follows:

Under the test or standard enunciated in Frye, reliability for admissibility of an expert's testimony, including an opinion, which is based on a scientific principle or is based on a technique or process which utilizes or applies a scientific principle, depends on general acceptance of the principle, technique, or process in the relevant scientific community. State v. Reynolds, 235 Neb. at 681, 457 N.W.2d at 418. Emphasis added.

In accordance with the Nebraska Supreme Court's decision in Reynolds, the rules of evidence appear to forbid the introduction of expert testimony that something which is "nonconventional" was "effective". This is because the expert's testimony would be unreliable if the scientific principles upon which the care was based are not generally accepted in the relevant scientific community. LB 146 is unclear whether it would have the effect of permitting "unreliable experts", i.e. those defined by evidence rules as experts whose techniques are not generally accepted, to testify as to the effectiveness of nonconventional medical care.

Whether anecdotal testimonials of effectiveness, as opposed to expert testimony, will suffice to establish effectiveness is an open question. Obviously, a patient can testify to the treatment provided and the effects noticed by the patient. If such evidence will be sufficient to insulate a professional from discipline, one can envision claims that a certain flu remedy was effective because, after administration of it, the patient's symptoms generally disappeared after 5 to 7 days.

The ambiguity of the term "effectively treats", as it refers to the bill's language on "human disease, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition", raises legal questions beyond that of the burden of proof and who has the burden. Also unclear is what happens if the "medical care" in a particular fact situation is "effective" to treat a patient's particular complaint, such as pain, but creates other complications or conditions. For example, one could prescribe pain medication or a variety of treatments which may be "effective" to relieve pain or a particular patient complaint, but which can also cause other complications or fail to address other underlying problems.

The term "medical care" would not necessarily be restricted to care provided by those licensed in the profession of medicine and surgery. As previously noted, there are numerous other professions which are subject to the disciplinary provisions of Sections 71-147 and 71-148, many of which also are responsible for providing what could be construed as "medical care" for humans. See also, Champion Intern. v. Nicholes, 773 P.2d 376 (Okla. App. 1989 - psychologist's services constitute "medical care"); Zeh v. National Hospital Ass'n, 377 P.2d 852 (Ore. 1963 - chiropractor's services constitute "medical care").

The bill as a whole is drafted so that the words "this section shall not be construed to affect or prevent" raises questions as to the effect of the remaining disciplinary grounds of Sections 71-147 and 71-148 in the event they conflict with a professional's use of "whatever medical care, conventional or nonconventional, which effectively treats". It is unclear whether such a conflict means the disciplinary statutes should be "construed" so as to prohibit discipline for what otherwise would have been a violation of other disciplinary provisions. Section 71-148 would still retain statutory language defining "unprofessional conduct" to include the "failure to conform to the standards of acceptable and prevailing practice of a profession". If LB 146 intends to "construe" the latter language out of Section 71-148, then it is unclear if other disciplinary grounds and provisions of Sections 71-147 and 71-148 are also to be construed as non-applicable in situations when "whatever medical care" was "effective".

In general, ambiguity promotes the likelihood of contested cases, more court appeals, and the risk of decisions that denote why law is not an exact science. See, State v. Carter, 246 Neb. 953, 976, 524 N.W.2d 763 (1994), quoting from State v. Bible, 175 Ariz. at 578, 858 P.2d at 1181, "[B]ecause neither judge nor jury may be able to separate 'junk science' from good science, Frye helps guarantee 'that reliability will be assessed by those in the best position to do so: members of the relevant scientific field who can dispassionately study and test the new theory' ". The ambiguities of LB 146, as drafted, could allow members of licensed health care professions to dispassionately study and test new theories on the public, with safe havens from discipline being provided to those professionals who make claims of effectiveness which could not be disproved, by clear and convincing evidence, by the State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

March 27, 1997

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

I am returning LB 103 to you without my signature and with my objections. Similar legislation was presented to me in 1995 and vetoed at that time.

In 1996, our current presidential electoral process, which recognizes the diversity of each of Nebraska's congressional districts, successfully performed as intended. It is difficult to understand the desire to change a system that is operating successfully.

One of the arguments for LB 103 is that our current selection process should be changed to make Nebraska conform with forty-eight other states. The argument is that Nebraska should not be different from other states...an amazing statement considering that "one size fits all" government does not work. No doubt, a similar argument was used by those attempting to dissuade Nebraskans from adopting George Norris' proposal for a one-house unicameral Legislature some sixty years ago.

Senator Norris stated on numerous occasions that he thought the Electoral College system should be repealed. If I could, I would repeal the Electoral College. My position is not based and should not be cast as partisan. I firmly believe the electoral system is out-dated.

Nebraska's current system brings the selection of our nation's President and Vice-President one step closer to the people than the process in all other states except Maine. I have supported the change in the past and will continue to do so. To further remove that selection from the people is a step in the wrong direction.

I urge members of the Legislature to sustain my veto.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

4 Nebraska, is amended to read:

5 25-2301. For purposes of sections 25-2301 to 25-2310 and 6 sections 2 and 3 of this act:

7 (1) Case includes any suit, action, or proceeding; and

8 (2) In forma pauperis means the permission given by the 9 court for a party to proceed without prepayment of fees and costs 10 or security. Any court of the State of Nebraska, except the 11 Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court, or of any county shall 12 authorize the commencement, prosecution, or defense of any suit, 13 action, or proceeding, civil or criminal, or appeal therein, 14 without prepayment of fees and costs or security, by a person who 15 makes an affidavit that he or she is unable to pay such costs or 16 give security. Such affidavit shall state the nature of the 17 action, defense, or appeal and affiant's belief that he or she is 18 entitled to redress. An appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis 19 if the trial court certifies in writing that it is not taken in 20 good faith.

21 Sec. 2. Any county or state court, except the Nebraska
22 Workers' Compensation Court, may authorize the commencement, 23 prosecution, or defense, or appeal therein, of a civil or criminal

11 ten days after the filing of the application. Such objection may 12 be made by the court on its own motion or on the motion of any 13 interested person. The motion objecting to the application shall 14 specifically set forth the grounds of the objection. An 15 evidentiary hearing shall be conducted on the objection. If an 16 objection is sustained, the party filing the application shall have 17 ten days after the ruling to proceed with an action or appeal upon 18 payment of fees, costs, or security notwithstanding the subsequent 19 expiration of any statute of limitations or deadline for appeal.

 20 In any event, the court shall not deny an application if to do so 21 would deny a defendant his or her constitutional right to appeal in 22 a felony case.

23 (2) In the event that an application to proceed in forma 24 pauperis is denied, the aggrieved party may make application for a 25 transcript of the hearing on in forma pauperis eligibility. Upon

SUBJECT: LB 799; Constitutionality of Appropriation to the Nebraska Arts Council to Fund the Public Portion of the Proposed Cultural Trust

REQUESTED BY: Senator LaVon Crosby

Lynn A. Melson, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested our opinion regarding the constitutionality of LB 799. This proposed legislation, including AMO653, would create "a body politic and corporate, not a state agency, but an independent instrumentality exercising essential public functions" to be known as the Cultural Trust. A Cultural Trust Fund would also be created which would be administered by five trustees selected and approved by the Nebraska Arts Council and the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The trust fund would consist of revenue from public and private sources with only the earnings used for the operations of the Nebraska Arts Council and the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities and their constituent organizations. LB 799 also states the intent to appropriate $12,500,000 in each of the next two fiscal years to the Nebraska Arts Council to fund the public portion of the Cultural Trust. That appropriation is to be returned to the general fund by the Cultural Trust in fiscal year 2023-24.

Your specific concerns are with Article XIII, section 3 of the Nebraska Constitution which prohibits lending the credit of the State and Article III, section 18 of the Nebraska Constitution which prohibits special legislation or the granting of special privileges and immunities. We will also discuss Article XII, section 1 which prohibits the creation of a single corporation by special law.

I. Article XIII, Section 3

We will first address whether LB 799 violates the provision of the state constitution which mandates that "[t]he credit of the State shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. . . ." Neb. Const. Art. XIII, section 3.

The case of Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699, 467 N.W.2d 836 (1991), is a recent Nebraska Supreme Court decision which interprets Article XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution. At issue in Haman was legislation which appropriated state tax money to compensate depositors who had suffered losses due to the failure of industrial loan and investment companies in Nebraska. The Nebraska Supreme Court set out a three-prong test, and stated that to establish a law was unconstitutional under Article XIII, § 3, a plaintiff had to prove each of the following elements: (1) The credit of the state (2) was given or loaned; (3) in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. Haman, 237 Neb. at 719.

The threshold question which must be analyzed is whether the proposed amendments to LB 609 involve the "credit of the state." In Haman, the court stated as follows: "There is a distinction between the loaning of state funds and the loaning of the state's credit. When a state loans funds it is in the position of creditor, whereas the state is in the position of debtor upon a loan of credit." Id. at 719-720. In Haman, the court found that under the legislation in question, "the state would be forever liable for the losses of industrial company depositors. . . ." Id. at 720.

To the extent that LB 799 provides for a grant or loan of state funds to be repaid in fiscal year 2023-24, it does not appear to us that such provisions result in the state being either a surety or guarantor of another's debts. Rather, the State would be in the position of creditor. Therefore, we conclude that LB 799 does not violate Article XIII, § 3.

Although the "credit of the state" is not being given or loaned under the provisions of LB 799, the constitutional analysis does not end there. "Closely related to the prohibition against the giving or lending of the state's credit . . . is the principle of law that public funds cannot be expended for private purposes." Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699 at 721-722. This constitutional principle involves the expenditure of state funds in contrast to the extension of credit. While the state constitution contains no express provision against expending funds for essentially private purposes, the Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that this principle "is grounded on the 'fundamental concepts of our constitutional system.'" State ex rel. Douglas v. Thone, 204 Neb. 836, 842, 286 N.W.2d 249 (1979) (quoting Beck v. City of York, 164 Neb. 223).

There is no hard and fast rule for determining whether a proposed expenditure of public funds is for a public purpose. In Platte Valley Public Power & Irrigation District v. County of Lincoln, 144 Neb. 584, 14 N.W.2d 202 (1944), the Nebraska Supreme Court discussed the parameters of a "public purpose." "A public purpose has for its objective the promotion of the public health, safety, morals, security, prosperity, contentment, and the general welfare of all the inhabitants." Id. at 589.

The Nebraska Supreme Court has held that it is for the Legislature to determine in the first instance what is and what is not a public purpose. State ex rel. Douglas v. Thone, 204 Neb. 836, 286 N.W.2d 249 (1979). The Court also held therein that there is no requirement that a legislative act calling for the expenditure of public funds need contain an express declaration of public purpose. Id. at 844-845. A number of cases from our Supreme Court have evidenced a somewhat flexible interpretation of the public purpose doctrine in relation to the expenditure of state monies. For example, with regard to housing, the Court found constitutional the act creating the Housing Authority of the City of Omaha in Lennox v. Housing Authority of City of Omaha, 137 Neb. 582, 290 N.W. 451 (1940), and found constitutional the act creating the Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund in State ex rel. Douglas v. Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, 204 Neb. 445, 283 N.W.2d 12 (1979). The Court considered legislative findings such as the need for safe and sanitary housing and the need for adequate housing which could be financed by low income people in determining the existence of a public purpose.

However, the Nebraska Supreme Court has also held that laws which authorize the expenditure of state funds to encourage private enterprises do not serve a public interest. A statute offering compensation or a bounty to private companies to encourage the manufacture of sugar and chicory was found unconstitutional in Oxnard Beet Sugar Co. v. State, 73 Neb. 57 (1905). The Court based its decision on the lack of a public purpose and did not undertake a "lending the credit of the state" analysis.

In Chase v. County of Douglas, 195 Neb. 838, 241 N.W.2d 334 (1976), the Court found that the provisions of the statute authorizing expenditures for the purpose of acquiring real estate or options on real estate for industrial development were unconstitutional and in violation of Article XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution. Their holding was in part dependent upon another constitutional provision at Article XIII, § 2.

Given the purpose of the proposed legislation to support the arts and humanities in Nebraska and the Nebraska Arts Council, we cannot clearly conclude that this expenditure has no public purpose.

II. Article III, Section 18

Your other question concerns Article III, Section 18 of the Nebraska Constitution which provides that:

[t]he Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following cases, that is to say: . . . Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privileges, immunity, or franchise whatever. . . . In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted.

A legislative act can violate the special laws provision by (1) creating a totally arbitrary and unreasonable method of classification, or (2) by creating a permanently closed class. Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699, 467 N.W.2d 836 (1991); Mapco v. State Bd. of Equalization, 238 Neb. 565, 471 N.W.2d 734 (1991). With regard to the first test, the Nebraska Supreme Court has held that statutory classifications must be based on "some substantial difference of situation or circumstances that would naturally suggest the justice or expediency of diverse legislation with respect to the objects to be classified." Haman at 713, 467 N.W.2d at 847 (emphasis in original). The court in Haman also determined that "[B]y definition, a legislative act is general, and not special, if it operates alike on all persons of a class or on persons who are brought within the relations and circumstances provided for" Id at 709, 467 N.W.2d at 844-45).

While LB 799 creates only one entity, the Cultural Trust, which would invest, administer and distribute the funds, the analysis used by the Nebraska Supreme Court seems to focus upon those persons who come within a statute's operation and how equally the act operates on those affected by the statute. With regard to LB 799, the analysis would presumably focus upon the nonprofit arts organizations listed in section 2 of the bill which would ultimately receive the funds and the public which would be served by such organizations. LB 799 appears to apply equally to all persons within that class and, thus, would be permissible provided the classification rests upon a reasonable basis. The bill arguably classifies as being entitled to receive funds those arts organizations which best fit the public purposes described in section 2 and which contribute to the public programs and projects listed therein.

In its analysis of a constitutional challenge to the Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, the Nebraska Supreme Court focused on the public purpose for which those funds were intended. "Statutes which are reasonably designed to protect the health, morals and general welfare do not violate the Constitution where they operate uniformly on all within a class which is reasonable. This is so even if a statute grants special or exclusive privileges where the primary purpose of the grant is not the private benefit of the grantees but the promotion of the public interest." State ex rel. Douglas v. Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, 204 Neb. 445, 466, 283 N.W.2d 12, 25 (1979). As we discussed in answer to your question regarding Article XIII, section 3, there is no hard and fast rule for determining whether a public purpose exists in a particular situation. Assuming for purposes of this opinion that a court would find that LB 799 accomplishes a public purpose, the legislation would probably be held not to violate the special laws prohibition as creating a totally arbitrary classification.

LB 799 clearly allows an increase in the number of class members who may be entitled to receive funds because it applies to all arts organizations which contribute to the public programs and projects described, including future arts organizations. Therefore, the legislation also does not appear to violate the closed class prohibition of Article III, section 18.

III. Article XII, Section 1

Although you have not specifically inquired about Article XII, section 1 of the Nebraska Constitution, we will briefly discuss this provision in relation to LB 799. Article XII, section 1 provides in relevant part:

The Legislature shall provide by general law for the organization, regulation, supervision and general control of all corporations. . . . No corporations shall be created by special law . . . except those corporations organized for charitable, educational, penal or reformatory purposes, which are to be and remain under the patronage and control of the state.

Our office has previously discussed this provision in relation to proposed legislation implementing the One-Call Notification Center. Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92129. That bill created a single non-profit corporation to operate the notification center. We noted that, while the provision may at first seem to prohibit creation of a specific corporation to perform the function described in the legislation, the analysis used by the Nebraska Supreme Court again seems to focus on who comes within the act's operation and how equally the act operates on those affected by the act. This is illustrated by the Douglas case discussed above in which the court held that the Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund was created by a general law which was not in violation of Article XII, section 1. "The Legislature may very well determine that a legitimate public purpose can be accomplished by creating a single entity to handle the matter." Douglas at 455, 283 N.W.2d at 20. "The fact that certain of the funds once obtained through bonds may go to private lending institutions who in turn will make the funds available for low and moderate income citizens does not change the public purpose for which the funds are intended." Id. at 460, 283 N.W.2d at 22.

We point out that, of course, a court may view support for the arts differently than it viewed the shortage of adequate low cost housing and may view the disbursement of funds to local arts organizations differently than the disbursement of public funds to low and moderate income citizens. However, in our opinion LB 799 does not present a clear violation of Article XII, section 1.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG

 AM1258

(Amendments to E & R amendments, AM7098)

- 1 1. Insert the following new sections:
 2 "Sec. 3. The purpose of sections 3 to 7 of this act is 3 to provide for legal recognition of intimate, committed 4 relationships between two persons of the same sex.
 5 Sec. 4. For purposes of sections 3 to 7 of this act:
 6 (1) Declaration of domestic partnership means a signed 7 statement given under oath in which two people declare that they 8 meet and agree to the requirements of the definition of domestic 9 partners when they sign the statement;
 10 (2) Domestic partners means two adults of the same sex 11 who have chosen to share their lives in an intimate, committed 12 relationship of mutual caring. To be domestic partners two people 13 must:
 14 (a) Live together;
 15 (b) Agree to be jointly responsible for each other's 16 basic living expenses during the domestic partnership; 17 (c) Not be married or a member of another domestic 18 partnership;
 19 (d) Be over eighteen years of age and not be related in a 20 way which would prevent them from being legally married to each 21 other; and 22 (e) Sign and file with the Secretary of State a 23 declaration of domestic partnership;
 1 (3) Jointly responsible for each other's basic living 2 expenses means joint responsibility for basic food and shelter and 3 also includes any other costs, for example medical care costs, for 4 which a partner is receiving some reimbursement or benefit, for 5 example health care benefits, because he or she is a member of a

6 domestic partnership. Joint responsibility means that each partner 7 agrees to provide for the other partner's basic living expenses if 8 the partner is unable to provide for himself or herself. Anyone to 9 whom these expenses are owed may enforce this responsibility; and 10 (4) Live together means that two people share the same 11 place to live. The legal right to possess the place need not be in 12 both of their names, and either or both may have additional places 13 to live. Domestic partners do not cease to live together if one 14 leaves the shared place but intends to return.

15 Sec. 5. Two persons may establish a domestic partnership 16 by filing a declaration of domestic partnership with the Secretary 17 of State. A person may not become a member of a domestic 18 partnership until at least six months after any other domestic 19 partnership of which he or she was a member ended unless the 20 earlier domestic partnership ended because one of the partners 21 died.

22 Sec. 6. Domestic partners shall have the same civil 23 legal status, obligations, and entitlements which spouses have.
 24 This section does not apply to bona fide religious associations or 25 religious corporations. This section does not require any church 26 or religious group to celebrate or recognize a domestic partnership 27 for religious purposes.

1 Sec. 7. A domestic partnership ends when (1) one partner 2 ends the other a written notice that he or she has ended the 3 partnership, (2) one of the partners dies, (3) one of the partners 4 marries, or (4) the partners no longer live together.

5 When a domestic partnership ends for a reason other than 6 the death of one of the partners, at least one of the partners must 7 sign a notice saying that the partnership has ended and file the 8 notice with the Secretary of State. A domestic partner who has 9 given a copy of a declaration of domestic partnership to any third 10 party in order to qualify for any financially valuable benefit or 11 if that partner has died, the surviving member of the domestic 12 partnership must give the third party notice that the partnership 13 has ended within sixty days of the end of the domestic partnership.
 14 A third party who suffers loss as a result of failure to give the 15 notice may sue the partner who was obliged to give it for the 16 actual losses. Failure to give either notice shall not prevent or 17 delay ending the domestic partnership."

18 2. On page 1, line 8, after the period insert "Marriage 19 does not include domestic partnerships."

20 3. Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Standing Committee amendment to LB 804:

- 1 1. Strike the original sections and insert the following
- 2 new sections:
- 3 "Section 1. (1) The Local Option Tax Study Committee is
- 4 created. The committee shall be composed of the Lieutenant
- 5 Governor, the Tax Commissioner, the Property Tax Administrator, the
- 6 Speaker of the Legislature, the Chairperson of the Education
- 7 Committee of the Legislature, the Chairperson of the Revenue
- 8 Committee of the Legislature, a representative of the State
- 9 Department of Education appointed by the Commissioner of Education,
- 10 a member of a county board, a county assessor, and three members of
- 11 the general public who have knowledge of education matters or
- 12 finance appointed by the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall
- 13 be the chairperson of the committee.
- 14 (2) The committee shall analyze the impact of permitting
- 15 school districts to locally implement and authorize a local income
- 16 tax to finance a portion of the operating expenses of the school
- 17 district. The committee shall study the impact of permitting
- 18 school districts to enact a countywide local option sales tax, the
- 19 proceeds of which will be distributed to schools on a per student
- 20 basis or in some other manner. Specifically the committee should
- 21 make recommendations on:
- 22 (a) Whether or not receipts from a local option income
- 23 tax or local option sales tax for school purposes should be treated

24 as accountable receipts for a school district;

1 (b) If there should be a maximum percentage of the school
2 district budget which may be funded by a local option income tax or 3 local option sales tax for school purposes, and if so, what the 4 limit should be; and

5 (c) If there should be a limit on the length of time a
6 local option income tax or local option sales tax for school
7 purposes can be imposed without another vote of the registered 8 voters of the school district extending the tax, and if so, how 9 long the limit should be.

10 (3) For purposes of its consideration of the issues and 11 to aid in the developing its recommendations, the committee shall 12 assume that a school district may authorize a local option income 13 tax or local option sales tax to fund a portion of the operation of 14 the school district, that the tax may only be imposed after 15 approval by a majority of those voting in a general or special
16 election, and that the tax may only be implemented to provide for a
17 reduction in property tax receipts utilized by the school district.

18 (4) The committee shall also analyze the impact of a
19 county income tax for purposes of property tax relief.
20 Specifically the committee should make recommendations on:

21 (a) Whether it is practical to credit county income taxes
22 paid against property taxes due;

23 (b) Whether any county income tax should be limited in 24 amount or duration and, if so, how; and

25 (c) Whether a county income tax with a credit against 26 property taxes will provide sufficient revenue to provide public 27 services in areas which currently have above-average property
1 taxes.

2 (5) The committee shall also study the possible impact of 3 restricting the availability of property tax exemptions both for 4 government property and property for religious, educational,
5 cemetery, and charitable use. Specifically, the committee should 6 make recommendations on:

7 (a) The possibility of levying ad valorem taxes on the 8 value of a leasehold interest in public property by a commercial
9 enterprise as if it were owned in fee;

10 (b) The possibility of requiring or allowing local 11 governments to require in lieu of tax payments on governments
12 owning tax-exempt property to recover the costs of other local 13 governments in providing property related services such as law
14 enforcement, fire protection, and street construction and 15 maintenance;

16 (c) The possibility of narrowing the eligibility for 17 property tax exemptions for religious, educational, cemetery, or 18 charitable use such as by requiring a certain level of charitable 19 donation of goods or services to individuals worthy of charity; and

20 (d) The possibility of requiring or allowing local 21 governments to require in lieu of tax payments by entities with

22 property tax exemptions to recover the costs of providing property 23 related services such as law enforcement, fire protection, and 24 street construction and maintenance.

25 (6) The Department of Revenue shall provide necessary
 26 staff and assistance to the committee.

27 (7) The committee shall make a report to the Governor and
 1 Legislature on its findings on or before December 1, 1997.

2 Sec. 2. Since an emergency exists, this act takes effect
 3 when passed and approved according to law."

RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 108. Introduced by Maurstad, 30.

WHEREAS, the annual federal budget has not been balanced since 1969, and the federal public debt is now more than five trillion dollars; and

WHEREAS, continued deficit spending demonstrates an unwillingness or inability of both the federal executive and legislative branches to spend no more than available revenue; and

WHEREAS, the growing national debt artificially inflates interest rates, which in turn increases the cost of purchasing a home, an automobile, a college education, and other staples of the American Dream; and

WHEREAS, the federal government's unlimited ability to borrow raises questions about fundamental principles and responsibilities of government, with potentially profound consequences for the nation and its people, making it an appropriate subject for limitation by the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution vests the ultimate responsibility to approve or disapprove constitutional amendments with the people, as represented by their elected state legislatures, and opposition by a small minority repeatedly has thwarted the will of the people that a Balanced Budget Amendment to the United States Constitution should be submitted to the states for ratification; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of Nebraska prefers that a constitutional convention not be called to address this issue and the implementation of this resolution by Congress will effectively eliminate the necessity for such a convention.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Legislature requests the Congress of the United States to expeditiously pass, and propose to the legislatures of the several states for ratification, an amendment to the United States Constitution requiring in the absence of a national emergency that the total of all federal appropriations made by the Congress for any fiscal year may not exceed the total of all estimated federal revenue for that fiscal year.

2. That the Clerk of the Legislature transmit copies of this resolution to the President pro tempore of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, each Member of the Nebraska Congressional Delegation, and the Secretaries of State and the presiding officers of both houses of the legislatures of each of the several states.

Laid over.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 2, 1997

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

I am returning LB 114A to you with a line item reduction and explanation.

LB 114, among other things increases current per diem rates for the Nebraska State Board of Public Accountancy from $50 to $100 a day. The current budget for per diems for the Nebraska State Board of Public Accountancy is $6,600.

Doubling the per diem rate, as is called for in LB 114, necessitates an increase in the per diem budget by $6,600 in FY1997-98 and $6,600 in FY1998-99. The line-item veto of $9,400 in both fiscal years of the 1997-99 biennium is an increase associated with the agency's budget request for additional meetings currently under consideration by the Appropriation Committee.

LB 114 does not require additional Board meetings. If the Legislature's intent is to authorize additional Board meetings, funding for that purpose should be included in LB 389 currently under consideration by the Appropriation Committee.

I urge members of the Legislature to sustain my veto.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

3 "Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as 4 the DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders Act.

5 Sec. 2. The Legislature finds that DNA data banks are an 6 important tool in criminal investigations, in the exclusion of 7 individuals who are the subject of criminal investigations or 8 prosecutions, and in deterring and detecting recidivist acts.
9 Several states have enacted laws requiring persons convicted of 10 certain crimes, especially sex offenses, to provide genetic samples 11 for DNA typing tests. Moreover, it is the policy of this state to 12 assist federal, state, and local criminal justice and law 13 enforcement agencies in the identification and detection of 14 individuals in criminal investigations. It is in the best interest 15 of this state to establish a State DNA Data Base for DNA records 16 and a State DNA Sample Bank as a repository for DNA samples from 17 individuals convicted of felony sex offenses and other specified 18 offenses.

19 Sec. 3. For purposes of the DNA Detection of Sexual and 20 Violent Offenders Act:

21 (1) Combined DNA Index System means the Federal Bureau of 22 Investigation's national DNA identification index system that 23 allows the storage and exchange of DNA records submitted by state 24 and local forensic DNA laboratories;

1 (2) DNA means deoxyribonucleic acid which is located in 2 the cells and provides an individual's personal genetic blueprint.
3 DNA encodes genetic information that is the basis of human heredity 4 and forensic identification;

5 (3) DNA record means the DNA identification information
6 stored in the State DNA Data Base or the Combined DNA Index System
7 which is derived from DNA typing test results;

8 (4) DNA sample means a blood or tissue sample provided by 9 any person with respect to offenses covered by the DNA Detection of 10 Sexual and Violent Offenders Act for analysis or storage, or both;

11 (5) DNA typing tests means the laboratory procedures 12 which evaluate the characteristics of a DNA sample which are of 13 value in establishing the identity of an individual;

14 (6) Felony sex offense means a felony offense, or an 15 attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation to commit a felony offense, 16 under any of the following:

17 (a) Kidnapping of a minor pursuant to section 28-313, 18 except when the person is the parent of the minor and was not 19 convicted of any other offense in subdivision (6) of this section;

20 (b) Incest of a minor pursuant to section 28-703;

21 (c) Sexual assault in the first or second degree pursuant 22 to section 28-319 or 28-320;

23 (d) Sexual assault of a child pursuant to section 24 28-320.01;

25 (e) Sexual assault of a vulnerable adult pursuant to 26 subdivision (1)(c) of section 28-386; and 27 (f) False imprisonment of a minor in the first degree 1 pursuant to section 28-314, except when the person is the parent of 2 the minor and was not convicted of any other offense in subdivision 3 (6) of this section;

4 (7) Law enforcement agency includes a police department,
5 town marshal, county sheriff, and the Nebraska State Patrol;

6 (8) Other specified offense means an offense, or an 7 attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation to commit an offense, under 8 any of the following:

9 (a) Murder in the first degree pursuant to section 10 28-303;

11 (b) Murder in the second degree pursuant to section 12 28-304;

13 (c) Manslaughter pursuant to section 28-305; or 14 (d) Stalking pursuant to sections 28-311.02 to 28-311.05; 15 and

16 (9) Released means any release, parole, furlough, work 17 release, prerelease, or release in any other manner from a prison, 18 jail, or any other detention facility or institution.

19 Sec. 4. The State DNA Data Base is established. The 20 Nebraska State Patrol shall administer the State DNA Data Base and 21 shall provide DNA records to the Federal Bureau of Investigation 22 for storage and maintenance in the Combined DNA Index System. The 23 patrol shall provide for liaison with the Federal Bureau of 24 Investigation and other law enforcement agencies in regard to the 25 state's participation in the Combined DNA Index System. The State 26 DNA Data Base shall store and maintain DNA records related to:

27 (1) Forensic casework;

1 (2) Convicted offenders required to provide a DNA sample 2 under the DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders Act; and

3 (3) Anonymous DNA records used for research or quality 4 control.

5 Sec. 5. (1) The Nebraska State Patrol shall prescribe 6 procedures to be used in the collection, submission, 7 identification, analysis, storage, and disposition of DNA samples
8 and DNA records under the DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent 9 Offenders Act. These procedures shall include quality assurance 10 guidelines for laboratories which submit DNA records to the State 11 DNA Data Base. The State DNA Data Base shall be compatible with 12 the procedures specified by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, 13 including the use of comparable test procedures, laboratory 14 equipment, supplies, and computer software. The DNA records shall 15 be securely stored in the State DNA Data Base and retained in a 16 manner consistent with the procedures established by the Federal 17 Bureau of Investigation.

18 (2) The Nebraska State Patrol may contract with the 19 University of Nebraska Medical Center to establish the State DNA 20 Sample Bank at the medical center and for DNA typing tests. The 21 State DNA Sample Bank shall serve as the repository of DNA samples

22 collected under the act. The University of Nebraska Medical Center 23 in contracting under the act is subject to the same restrictions
24 and requirements of the act, insofar as applicable, as the Nebraska 25 State Patrol, as well as any additional restrictions imposed by the 26 patrol.

27 (3) The DNA samples and DNA records shall only be used:

1 (a) For law enforcement identification purposes, to 2 assist in the recovery or identification of human remains from 3 disasters, or for other humanitarian identification purposes, 4 including identification of missing persons; and

5 (b) By the Nebraska State Patrol to create a separate 6 population data base comprised of DNA records obtained under the 7 act after all personal identification is removed. The patrol may 8 share or disseminate the population data base with other law 9 enforcement agencies or forensic DNA laboratories which assist the 10 patrol with statistical data bases. The population data base may 11 be made available to and searched by other agencies participating 12 in the Combined DNA Index System.

13 Sec. 6. (1) A person who is convicted of a felony sex
14 offense or other specified offense on or after the effective date 15 of this act shall have a DNA sample drawn:

16 (a) Upon intake to a prison, jail, or other detention 17 facility or institution to which such person is sentenced. If the 18 person is already confined at the time of sentencing, the person 19 shall have a DNA sample drawn immediately after the sentencing.
20 Such DNA samples shall be drawn at the place of incarceration or 21 confinement. Such person shall not be released unless and until a 22 DNA sample has been drawn; or

23 (b) As a condition for any sentence which will not 24 involve an intake into a prison, jail, or other detention facility 25 or institution. Such DNA samples shall be drawn at a detention 26 facility or institution as specified by the court. Such person 27 shall not be released unless and until a DNA sample has been drawn.

1 (2) A person who has been convicted of a felony sex 2 offense or other specified offense before the effective date of 3 this act and who is still serving a term of confinement for such 4 offense on the effective date of this act shall not be released
5 prior to the expiration of his or her maximum term of confinement 6 unless and until a DNA sample has been drawn.

7 Sec. 7. (1) Only individuals who are physicians, 8 registered nurses, or meet the requirements of subdivision (18) or 9 (19) of section 71-1,103 shall draw a DNA sample under the DNA 10 Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders Act. In addition to the 11 DNA sample, a full set of fingerprints shall be taken from the 12 person from whom the DNA sample is being drawn for the exclusive 13 purpose of verifying the identity of such person. The DNA sample 14 and the set of fingerprints shall be delivered to the Nebraska
15 State Patrol within forty-eight hours after drawing the sample.

16 (2) A person authorized to draw DNA samples under this 17 section is not criminally liable for drawing a DNA sample and 18 transmitting DNA records pursuant to the act if he or she performs 19 these activities in good faith and is not civilly liable for such 20 activities if he or she acted in a reasonable manner according to 21 generally accepted medical and other professional practices.

22 Sec. 8. (1) All DNA samples and DNA records submitted
23 pursuant to the DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders Act 24 are confidential except as otherwise provided in the act. The 25 Nebraska State Patrol shall make DNA records in the State DNA Data 26 Base available:

27 (a) To law enforcement agencies and forensic DNA 1 laboratories which serve such agencies; and

2 (b) Upon written or electronic request and in furtherance 3 of an official investigation of a criminal offense or offender or 4 suspected offender.

5 (2) The Nebraska State Patrol shall adopt and promulgate 6 rules and regulations governing the methods of obtaining 7 information from the State DNA Data Base and the Combined DNA Index 8 System and procedures for verification of the identity and 9 authority of the requester.

10 (3) The Nebraska State Patrol may, for good cause shown, 11 revoke or suspend the right of a forensic DNA laboratory in this 12 state to have access to or submit records to the State DNA Data 13 Base.

14 Sec. 9. A person whose DNA record has been included in 15 the State DNA Data Base pursuant to the DNA Detection of Sexual and 16 Violent Offenders Act may request expungement on the grounds that 17 the conviction on which the authority for including such person's 18 DNA record was based has been reversed and the case dismissed. The 19 Nebraska State Patrol shall purge all DNA records and identifiable 20 information in the data base pertaining to the person and destroy 21 all DNA samples from the person upon receipt of a written request 22 for expungement pursuant to this section and a certified copy of 23 the final court order reversing and dismissing the conviction.

24 Sec. 10. (1) Any person who has possession of or access 25 to individually identifiable DNA samples or DNA records in the 26 State DNA Data Base or in the State DNA Sample Bank shall not 27 disclose such samples or records in any manner to any person or 1 agency not authorized to receive them knowing that such person or 2 agency is not authorized to receive them.

3 (2) No person shall obtain individually identifiable DNA
4 samples or DNA records from the State DNA Data Base or the State 5 DNA Sample Bank without authorization to do so. Any person who 6 knowingly violates this subsection is guilty of a Class I
7 misdemeanor.

8 Sec. 11. (1) Any person who has possession of or access
9 to individually identifiable DNA samples or DNA records contained 10 in the State DNA Data Base or in the State DNA Sample Bank and who

11 for pecuniary gain for such person or for any other person 12 discloses such samples and records in any manner to any person or 13 agency not authorized to receive them is guilty of a Class I
 14 misdemeanor.

15 (2) Any person aggrieved by a knowing violation of this 16 section has the substantive right to bring an action for damages
 17 for such violation in a court of competent jurisdiction. A person 18 found by the court to have been aggrieved by a knowing violation of 19 this section may receive damages of not less than one hundred 20 dollars for each violation and may recover the reasonable costs 21 of the litigation and attorney's fees.

22 Sec. 12. The Nebraska State Patrol or any other 23 aggrieved individual or agency may institute an action in a court 24 of proper jurisdiction against any person, including law 25 enforcement agencies, to enjoin such person or agency from 26 violating the DNA Detection of Sexual and Violent Offenders Act.

27 Sec. 13. The Nebraska State Patrol may recommend to the 1 Legislature that the Legislature enact legislation for the 2 inclusion of additional offenses for which DNA samples shall be 3 taken and otherwise subjected to the DNA Detection of Sexual and 4 Violent Offenders Act. In determining whether to recommend 5 additional offenses, the Nebraska State Patrol shall consider those 6 offenses for which DNA testing will have a substantial impact on 7 the detection and identification of sexual offenders and violent 8 offenders.

9 Sec. 14. The Nebraska State Patrol shall adopt and 10 promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the DNA Detection of 11 Sexual and Violent Offenders Act.

Mr. Wickersham filed the following amendment to LB 624:
 AM1346

- 1 1. Insert the following new section:
- 2 "Sec. 46. Section 4, Legislative Bill 250, Ninety-fifth

3 Legislature, First Session, 1997, is amended to read:

4 Sec. 4. (1) For purposes of this section:

5 (a) Political subdivision includes villages, cities of 6 all classes, counties, school districts, ~~public power districts~~; 7 and all other units of local government, including entities created 8 by local public agencies pursuant to the Interlocal Cooperation
9 Act. Political subdivision does not include any contractor with a 10 political subdivision;

11 (b) Receiving entity means a political subdivision which 12 receives transferred employees from a separate political 13 subdivision; and

14 (c) Transferring entity means a political subdivision 15 which is transferring employees to a separate political 16 subdivision.

17 (2) For transfers involving a retirement system which 18 maintains a defined benefit plan, the transfer value of the 19 transferring employee's accrued benefit shall be calculated by one 20 or both of the retirement systems involved as follows:

21 (a) If the retirement system of the transferring entity 22 maintains a defined benefit plan, an initial benefit transfer value 23 of the employee's accrued benefit shall be determined by 24 calculating the present value of the employee's retirement benefit 1 based on the employee's years of service as of the date of transfer 2 and the other actuarial assumptions of the retirement system of the 3 transferring entity so that the effect on the retirement system of 4 the transferring entity will be actuarially neutral; and

5 (b) If the retirement system of the receiving entity
6 maintains a defined benefit plan, the final benefit transfer value 7 of the employee's accrued benefit shall be determined by 8 calculating the present value of the employee's retirement benefit 9 as if the employee were employed on the date of transfer and had 10 completed the same amount of service with the same compensation as 11 the employee actually completed at the transferring entity prior to 12 transfer. The calculation shall then be based on the employee's 13 assumed years of service as of the date of transfer and the other 14 actuarial assumptions of the retirement system of the receiving 15 entity so that the effect on the retirement system of the receiving 16 entity will be actuarially neutral.

17 (3) A full-time or part-time employee of a transferring 18 entity who becomes an employee of a receiving entity pursuant to a 19 merger of services shall receive credit for his or her years of 20 participation in the retirement system of the transferring entity 21 for purposes of membership in the retirement system of the 22 receiving entity.

23 (4) An employee referred to in subsection (3) of this 24 section shall elect one of the following options:

25 (a) The employee may elect to take a termination benefit 26 in the retirement system of the transferring entity as if the 27 employee were terminating employment with the transferring entity

1 and shall thereafter be treated as a new employee for purposes of 2 the retirement system of the receiving entity; or

3 (b)(i) If the retirement system of the receiving entity 4 maintains a defined contribution plan, the employee may transfer 5 all of his or her funds by paying to the retirement system of the 6 receiving entity from funds held by the retirement system of the 7 transferring entity an amount equal to one of the following: (A) 8 If the retirement system of the transferring entity maintains a 9 defined benefit plan, an amount not to exceed the initial benefit 10 transfer value, leaving no funds attributable to the transferred 11 employee within the retirement system of the transferring entity, 12 or (B) if the retirement system of the transferring entity 13 maintains a defined contribution plan, an amount not to exceed the 14 employee and employer accounts of the transferring employee plus 15 earnings during the period of employment with the transferring 16 entity. The employee shall receive eligibility and vesting credit 17 for his or her years of service in a governmental plan, as defined 18 in section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, maintained by the 19 transferring entity. Payment shall be made within five years after 20 employment begins with the receiving entity or prior to retirement, 21 whichever comes first, and may be made through direct payment, 22 installment payments, or an irrevocable payroll deduction 23 authorization; or

24 (ii) If the retirement system of the receiving entity 25 maintains a defined benefit plan, the employee may transfer all of 26 his or her funds out of the retirement system of the transferring 27 entity to purchase service credits that will generate a final 1 benefit transfer value not to exceed the employee's initial benefit 2 transfer value in the retirement system of the transferring entity.
3 After such purchase, the employee shall receive eligibility and 4 vesting credit in the retirement system of the receiving entity for 5 his or her years of service in a governmental plan, as defined in 6 section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, maintained by the 7 transferring entity. The election to purchase service credit shall 8 be made within three years after the employment begins with the 9 receiving entity. The amount to be paid by the member for such 10 service credit shall equal the actuarial cost to the retirement 11 system of the receiving entity for allowing such additional service 12 credit to the employee. If any funds remain in the retirement 13 system of the transferring entity after the employee has purchased 14 service credits in the retirement system of the receiving entity, 15 such remaining funds shall be rolled over into another qualified 16 trust under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, an 17 individual retirement account, or an individual retirement annuity.
18 Payment shall be made within five years after the employee elects 19 to purchase the service credit or prior to retirement, whichever 20 comes first, and may be made through direct payment, installment 21 payments, or an irrevocable payroll deduction authorization.

22 (5) The transferring entity, the receiving entity, and 23 the employees who are being transferred may by binding agreement 24 determine which parties will provide funds to pay any amount needed 25 to purchase creditable service in the retirement system of the 26 receiving entity sufficient to provide a final benefit transfer 27 value not to exceed the employee's initial benefit transfer value, 1 if the amount of a direct rollover from the retirement system of 2 the transferring entity is not sufficient to provide a final 3 benefit transfer value in the retirement system of the receiving 4 entity.

5 (6) The retirement system of the receiving entity may 6 accept cash rollover contributions from a member who is making 7 payment pursuant to this section if the contributions do not exceed 8 the amount of payment required for the service credits purchased by 9 the member and the contributions represent (a) all or any portion 10 of the balance of the member's interest in a qualified trust under 11 section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or (b) the interest of 12 the member from an individual retirement account or an individual 13 retirement annuity, the entire of which is attributable to a 14 qualified total distribution, as defined in the Internal Revenue 15 Code, from a qualified trust under section 401(a) of the code and 16 qualified as a tax-free rollover amount. The member's interest 17 under subdivision (a) or (b) of this subsection must be transferred 18 to the retirement system within sixty days after the date of the 19 distribution from the qualified trust, individual retirement 20 account, or individual retirement annuity.

21 (7) Cash transferred to the retirement system of the 22 receiving entity as a rollover contribution shall be deposited as 23 other contributions.

24 (8) The retirement system of the receiving entity may 25 accept direct rollover distributions made from a qualified trust 26 pursuant to section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code. The 27 direct rollover distribution shall be deposited as all other 1 payments under this section.

2 (9) The receiving entity or its retirement system shall 3 adopt provisions defining procedures for acceptance of rollovers 4 which are consistent with sections 401(a)(31) and 402 of the 5 Internal Revenue Code.

6 (10) Any retirement system authorized pursuant to section 7 14-1805, 15-1017, 16-1004, 16-1023, 19-3501, or 23-1118 or any 8 retirement system for a city of the metropolitan class authorized 9 pursuant to home rule charter shall be modified to conform with 10 this section prior to any merger of service involving such 11 system."

13 "1996" insert ", and section 4, Legislative Bill 250, Ninety-fifth 14 Legislature, First Session, 1997".

 3 "Section 1. Section 29-2262, Reissue Revised Statutes of 4 Nebraska, is amended to read:
 5 29-2262. (1) When a court sentences an offender to 6 probation, it shall attach such reasonable conditions as it deems
 7 necessary or likely to insure that the offender will lead a
 8 law-abiding life. No offender shall be sentenced to probation if 9 he or she is deemed to be an habitual criminal pursuant to section 10 29-2221.
 11 (2) The court may, as a condition of a sentence of 12 probation, require the offender:
 13 (a) To refrain from unlawful conduct;
 14 (b) To be confined periodically in the county jail or to 15 return to custody after specified hours but not to exceed (i) for 16 misdemeanors, the lesser of ninety days or the maximum jail term
 17 provided by law for the offense and (ii) for felonies, one hundred

5 places or consorting with disreputable persons;

6 (i) To have in his or her possession no firearm or other
7 dangerous weapon unless granted written permission;

8 (j) To remain within the jurisdiction of the court and to 9 notify the court or the probation officer of any change in his or 10 her address or his or her employment;

11 (k) To report as directed to the court or a probation

18 in the jurisdiction in which the work is performed;

19 (n) To pay for tests to determine the presence of drugs
20 or alcohol, psychological evaluations, and rehabilitative services
21 required in the identification, evaluation, and treatment of 22 offenders if such offender has the financial ability to pay for

24 (o) To perform community service as defined in section 25 29-2277;

26 (p) To be monitored by an electronic surveillance device
27 or system and to pay the cost of such device or system if the 1 offender has the financial ability;

2 (q) To participate in a community correctional facility
3 or program as provided in section 47-610; or

4 (r) To successfully complete an incarceration work camp
5 program as determined by the Department of Correctional Services; 6 or

7 (†) (s) To satisfy any other conditions reasonably
8 related to the rehabilitation of the offender.

9 (3) In all cases in which the offender is guilty of 10 assault or battery and the victim is the offender's spouse, a 11 condition of probation shall be mandatory counseling as provided by 12 the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act.

13 (4) In all cases in which the offender is guilty of 14 violating section 28-416, a condition of probation shall be 15 mandatory treatment and counseling as provided by such section.

16 Sec. 2. The Department of Correctional Services shall 17 develop and implement an incarceration work camp, to be completed 18 no later than January 1, 2005, for adult criminal offenders to be 19 placed in as a condition of a sentence of probation. It is the 20 intent of the Legislature that the incarceration work camp serve to 21 reduce prison overcrowding and to make prison bed space available 22 for violent offenders. It is the further intent of the Legislature

23 that the incarceration work camp serve the interests of society by 24 promoting the rehabilitation of offenders and by deterring 25 offenders from engaging in further criminal activity. To 26 accomplish these goals, the incarceration work camp shall provide 27 regimented, structured, disciplined programming, including all of 1 the following: Work programs; vocational training; behavior
2 management and modification; money management; substance abuse
3 awareness, counseling, and treatment; and education, programming
4 needs, and aftercare planning, which will increase the offender's 5 abilities to lead a law-abiding, productive, and fulfilling life as 6 a contributing member of a free society.

7 Sec. 3. (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the 8 court target the felony offender (a) who is experiencing his or her 9 first prison sentence, (b) for whom the court finds that other 10 conditions of a sentence of probation, in and of themselves, are 11 not suitable, and (c) who, without the existence of an 12 incarceration work camp, would, in all likelihood, be sentenced to 13 prison. It is the further intent of the Legislature that prior 14 offenders who were incarcerated for minor nonviolent offenses are 15 not automatically ineligible to be placed in an incarceration work 16 camp as a condition of a sentence of probation.

17 (2) When the court is of the opinion that imprisonment
18 may be appropriate, but that a brief and intensive period of 19 incarceration may better serve the interests of society, the court 20 may place an offender in an incarceration work camp for a period 21 not to exceed one hundred eighty days as a condition of a sentence 22 of probation. The court may consider such placement if the 23 offender (a) is a male or female offender who is convicted as an 24 adult, (b) is determined to be medically and mentally fit to 25 participate, with allowances given for reasonable accommodation, 26 (c) has not previously been incarcerated for a violent felony 27 crime, and (d) has not demonstrated chronic violent behavior.
1 Offenders convicted of a crime under sections 28-319 to 28-321 or 2 of any capital crime are not eligible to be placed in an 3 incarceration work camp.

4 Sec. 4. Upon successful completion of the incarceration
5 work camp program, as determined by the Department of Correctional 6 Services, the sentencing court may modify the offender's conditions 7 of his or her sentence of probation, place the offender in an 8 aftercare program, or discharge the offender.

9 Sec. 5. If the offender for any reason fails to 10 successfully complete the incarceration work camp program, the 11 sentencing court may impose any other sentence that the court may 12 have originally imposed. Credit shall be given for time actually 13 served in the incarceration work camp program.

14 Sec. 6. All costs incurred during the period the 15 offender is committed to an incarceration work camp shall be the 16 responsibility of the state, and the counties shall be liable only 17 for the cost of returning the offender to the appropriate court for

- 18 reimposition of sentence or such other disposition as the court may 19 then deem appropriate.
 20 Sec. 7. An annual progress report shall be provided to 21 the Legislature ensuring that all programmatic objectives are being 22 met. The report shall include an evaluation of the impact of the 23 multi-treatment programs, including program costs, educational 24 achievement, inmate disciplinary activity, probation release
 25 decision-making, and community reintegration on November 1 of the 26 year following implementation.
 27 Sec. 8. Original section 29-2262, Reissue Revised
 1 Statutes of Nebraska, is repealed."

Opinion No. 97025

DATE: April 11, 1997
SUBJECT: LB422 - Death Penalty Issues
REQUESTED BY: Senator Douglas Kristensen
WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General

You have written to me to obtain my "thoughts on some issues concerning LB422." In your letter you say that you are not requesting a formal written opinion from my office.

It has been the practice of the Attorney General's Office under at least the last three Attorneys General not to give a private Attorney General's opinion to an individual Senator. It is my understanding that the reason for this policy was insistence by members of the Legislature that all Senators have access to the same legal information regarding a legislative bill at approximately the same time. Indeed, to this day, the Clerk of the Legislature is insistent that Attorney General's opinions to members of the Legislature be promptly provided to his office so that they may be shared with the entire Legislature as expeditiously as possible.

By the same token, because of the importance of the issues involved and the possibility of mis-communication through verbal means, an oral response would not be appropriate for the important questions which you have raised.

Accordingly, I am responding to your questions in the context of this formal Attorney General's opinion which will be shared equally with your colleagues by the Clerk of the Legislature.

You first ask whether LB422 as amended is unconstitutionally vague. In my opinion, LB422 as amended is not unconstitutionally vague. I will provide you with a more extended analysis of this question if you so desire and if the schedule of the Legislature permits.

You next ask whether LB422 "weakens or confuses Nebraska's death penalty statutes." The answer is yes. Under LB422 as amended, the death penalty may never be applied to a person who is "mentally retarded." Under current law, "mental defect" which includes mental retardation, is a mitigating circumstance already required to be weighted by the court when determining a sentence. However, "mental retardation" is not presently an outright bar to imposition of the death penalty. Under current law, the important question is "the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law."

Under LB422 as amended, a mentally retarded person who understands that it is wrong to kill and who has the mental capacity to stop himself from killing, but who kills a dozen young children at a fast-food restaurant with a semi-automatic weapon, could not be subject to the death penalty.

In LB422 as amended, mentally retarded is defined as "significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior." It is probably fair to say that many killers, whether mentally retarded or not, have deficits in their adaptive behavior. The question then is what is "significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning?" LB422 tells us that an intelligence quotient of 70 or below is presumptive evidence of mental retardation. However, someone with an intelligence quotient of 90, who understood that murder is wrong, and who had the ability to stop himself from murdering, could still be found "mentally retarded" and would not be eligible for the death penalty.

If LB422 is passed in its current form, it is likely that we will see men like triple killers John Lotter and Clarence Victor arguing that even though they knew that murder was wrong and could have stopped themselves from all of their killings, they are now exempted from the death penalty. Whether they will be successful with their arguments, of course, remains to be seen, but there is every reason to believe the State of Nebraska will have to suffer through additional years of litigation to know the answer.

Aggravating circumstance (1)(a) in LB422 refers to "prior history." On the one hand, the court may view this insertion of the word "prior" as a simple redundancy since, by definition, history is events which have occurred in the past. On the other hand, this provision might be applied to the following situation. Assume a murder is committed and the defendant, subsequent to the murder, rapes several women, robs several convenience stores, shoots but does not kill several additional persons in separate incidents, and at the end of this crime spree, is captured. In that circumstance, the court might interpret "prior history" to mean that none of these subsequent activities could be considered for purposes of aggravating circumstance (1)(a).

Aggravator (1)(b) has been amended in LB422 to read as follows, "The murder was committed in an effort to conceal the commission of a crime or to conceal the identity of the perpetrator of such crime." It is not completely clear whether "such" refers to the murder or another crime. This could be an important difference. For example, assume the defendant first raped a woman. She reports that crime and the defendant is arrested and subsequently released on bail. While on bail, the defendant shoots the victim, whom he had previously sexually assaulted, and is never seen by the victim in the course of the murder. If the words "such crime" refer only to the murder, aggravator (1)(b) would not apply to that situation because the murder was not committed to conceal who committed the murder, it was committed to conceal who committed the sexual assault. If the words "such crime" refer to the earlier sexual assault, then aggravator (1)(b) would apply. The existing statute refers to "a" crime and under that statute, aggravator (1)(b) would clearly apply to the hypothetical just stated.

Aggravator (1)(h) is amended to provide that the "murder was committed knowingly to disrupt or hinder the lawful exercise of any governmental function or the enforcement of the laws." Previously the statute had referred to the crime being committed to disrupt or hinder, etc. Assume that a person disgusted with the Legislature plants a bomb in the legislative chamber set to explode at 2:00 a.m. when no one is expected to be in the Capitol building. Unfortunately, one diligent Senator is working very late in the chamber and is killed in the explosion. Here, the bomb was exploded in an effort to disrupt the exercise of a government function (the convening of the Legislature the next day), but the murder was not. Therefore, aggravator (1)(h) might not apply under the new language whereas under the existing language, it would. On the other hand, these facts would constitute a felony murder and if the word "murder" were interpreted to include felony murder, aggravator (1)(h) would still apply.

You next ask about LB422 resulting in "additional appeals." While LB422 might in some circumstances lead to additional legal arguments in the numerous appeals being filed, and might let killers like Clarence Victor off death row if they can convince a court that they are "mentally retarded," it does not change the number of appeals available. Indeed, the biggest problem we have with the death penalty in Nebraska today is that there is literally no limit to the number of "appeals" (actually post-conviction proceedings) that may be filed.

Considering all of the foregoing, I would make two recommendations to the Legislature concerning LB422. First, I would strike all of the amendments to existing law made by the bill except Senator Matzke's provision which adds aggravating circumstance (1)(i) relating to the victim being a law enforcement officer. Second, and very importantly, I would further amend LB422 to limit the number of state post-conviction proceedings to one round. Until that is done, it will remain effectively impossible to carry out any additional capital sentences in the State of Nebraska.

In your letter you state, "Additional appeals would further delay the imposition of the death penalty, and create a greater strain on the state's judicial and financial resources." It is for that reason that I strongly urge you and the other members of the Legislature to amend LB422 to limit to one the number of state post-conviction proceedings allowed by Nebraska law¹.

Yours truly,
(Signed) Don Stenberg

¹Neither the federal nor the state constitution require that the state provide any state post-conviction proceedings.

18 Sec. 2. Section 79-266, Reissue Revised Statutes of
19 Nebraska, is amended to read:

20 79-266. (1) Beginning July 1, 1997, each school district 21 shall have an alternative school, class, or educational program ~~or~~ 22 the procedures of subsection (2) of this section available or in 23 operation for all expelled students.

24 The requirements of this section do not apply to students 1 who are reasonably determined by a school administrator to be 2 dangerous to the safety of other students or school district
3 employees. If an alternative school, class, or educational program 4 will not be available from the school district and the procedures 5 in subsection (2) of this section will not be followed because a 6 student is reasonably determined by the school administrator to be 7 dangerous, law enforcement shall be notified. The determination of 8 the school administrator may be appealed by the student pursuant to 9 the procedures in sections 79-268 to 79-292.

10 Any two or more school boards or boards of education may 11 join together in providing alternative schools, classes, or 12 educational programs. Any district may by agreement with another 13 district send its suspended or expelled students to any alternative

14 school, class, or educational program already in operation by such 15 other district. An educational program may include, but shall not 16 be limited to, individually prescribed educational and counseling 17 programs or a community-centered classroom with experiences for the 18 student as an observer or aide in governmental functions, as an 19 on-the-job trainee, or as a participant in specialized tutorial 20 experiences. Such programs shall include an individualized 21 learning program to enable the student to continue academic work
22 for credit toward graduation. The State Department of Education 23 shall adopt and promulgate rules and regulations relating to 24 alternative schools, classes, and educational programs.

25 (2) If a district does not provide an alternative school, 26 class, or educational program for expelled students, the district 27 shall follow the procedures in this subsection prior to expelling a 1 student unless the expulsion was required by subsection (4) of 2 section 79-283:

3 (a) The student must have been placed in an in-school
4 suspension within the six months preceding the expulsion;

5 (b) The student must have been placed on a short-term 6 suspension within the six months preceding the expulsion; and

7 (c) A conference shall be called by a school 8 administrator and held to assist the district in the development of 9 a plan with the participation of a parent or legal guardian, the 10 student, a school representative, and a representative of either a 11 community organization with a mission of assisting young people or 12 a representative of an agency involved with juvenile justice. The 13 plan shall be in writing and adopted by a school administrator and 14 presented to the student and the parent or legal guardian. The 15 plan shall specify steps for the student to accomplish in order to 16 have the expulsion suspended and require the student to attend 17 monthly reviews to assess the student's progress toward suspending 18 the expulsion.

19 (3) A school district that has expelled a student may 20 suspend the enforcement of such expulsion unless the expulsion was 21 required by subsection (4) of section 79-283. The suspension may 22 be for a period not to exceed the length of the expulsion. As a 23 condition of such suspended action, the school district may assign 24 the student to a school, class, or educational program which the 25 school district deems appropriate.

26 At the conclusion of such suspension period, the school
27 district shall (a) reinstate any student who has satisfactorily 1 participated in the school, class, or educational program to which 2 such student has been assigned and permit the student to return to 3 the school of former attendance or to attend other programs offered 4 by the district or (b) if the student's conduct has been 5 unsatisfactory, enforce the remainder of the expulsion action.

6 If the student is reinstated, the district may also take 7 action to expunge the record of the expulsion action.

8 Sec. 3. Original sections 79-256 and 79-266, Reissue

9 Revised Statutes of Nebraska, are repealed."

22 evidences of indebtedness shall be secured by and payable from an 23 irrevocable pledge by the district of amounts received in respect

 4 1996, as amended by section 36, Legislative Bill 623, Ninety-fifth
 5 Legislature, First Session, 1997, is amended to read:
 6 81-2026. (1) Any officer qualified for an annuity as 7 provided in section 81-2025 for reasons other than disability shall 8 be entitled to receive a monthly annuity for the remainder of the 9 officer's life. The amount of the annuity shall be a percentage of 10 the officer's final average monthly compensation. For retirement 11 on or after the fifty-fifth birthday of the member or on or after 12 the fiftieth birthday of a member who has been in the employ of the 13 state for twenty-five years, as calculated in section 81-2033, the 14 percentage shall be three percent multiplied by the number of years 15 of creditable service, as calculated in section 81-2033, except 16 that the percentage shall never be greater than seventy-five 17 percent.
 18 For retirement pursuant to subsection (2) of section 19 81-2025 on or after the fiftieth birthday of the member but prior 20 to the fifty-fifth birthday of the member who has been in the 21 employ of the state for less than twenty-five years, as calculated 22 in section 81-2033, the annuity which would apply if the member 23 were age fifty-five at the date of retirement shall be reduced by 24 five-ninths of one percent for each month by which the early 1 retirement date precedes age fifty-five or for each month by which 2 the early retirement date precedes the date upon which the member 3 has served for twenty-five years, whichever is earlier. Any 4 officer who has completed thirty years of creditable service with 5 the Nebraska State Patrol shall have retirement benefits computed 6 as if the officer had reached age fifty-five.

7 For purposes of this computation, final average monthly 8 compensation shall mean the sum of the officer's total compensation 9 during the three twelve-month periods of service as an officer in 10 which compensation was the greatest divided by thirty-six, and for 11 any officer employed on or before January 4, 1979, the officer's 12 total compensation shall include payments received for unused 13 vacation and sick leave accumulated during the final three years of 14 service.

15 (2) Any officer qualified for an annuity as provided in 16 section 81-2025 for reasons of disability shall be entitled to 17 receive a monthly annuity for the remainder of the period of 18 disablement as provided in sections 81-2028 to 81-2030. The amount 19 of the annuity shall be fifty percent of the officer's monthly 20 compensation at the date of disablement if the officer has 21 completed seventeen or fewer years of creditable service. If the 22 officer has completed more than seventeen years of creditable 23 service, the amount of the annuity shall be three percent of the 24 final monthly compensation at the date of disablement multiplied by 25 the total years of creditable service but not to exceed 26 seventy-five percent of the final average monthly compensation as 27 defined in subsection (1) of this section. The date of disablement 1 shall be the date on which the benefits as provided in section 2 81-2028 have been exhausted.

3 (3) Upon the death of an officer after retirement for 4 reasons other than disability, the officer's surviving spouse shall 5 receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's 6 annuity for the remainder of the surviving spouse's life or until 7 the surviving spouse remarries. If the surviving spouse has a 8 dependent child or children of the officer under the age of 9 nineteen years in his or her care, the benefit shall be one hundred 10 percent of the amount of such officer's annuity until such time as 11 the youngest such dependent child attains the age of nineteen 12 years, after which time the benefit shall be reduced to 13 seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity. If 14 there is no surviving spouse living at the date of the officer's 15 death, the officer's child or children, if any, shall continue to 16 receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's 17 annuity until such time as the youngest such child attains the age 18 of nineteen years. If there is more than one such child under the 19 age of nineteen years at such time, the amount thereof shall be 20 divided equally among such children under such age and, as they 21 attain the age of nineteen years, only the other child or children

22 under such age shall participate therein. If there is no surviving 23 spouse or no child of the officer under the age of nineteen years 24 at the date of the officer's death, the amount of annuities such 25 officer has received under the Nebraska State Patrol Retirement Act 26 shall be computed. If such amount is less than the contributions 27 to the State Patrol Retirement Fund made by such officer, plus 1 regular interest, the difference shall be paid to the officer's 2 designated beneficiary or estate.

3 Upon the death of an officer after retirement for reasons 4 of disability, benefits shall be provided as if the officer had 5 retired for reasons other than disability.

6 Upon the death of an officer before retirement, benefits 7 shall be provided as if the officer had retired for reasons of 8 disability on the date of such officer's death as follows: (a) To 9 the surviving spouse, regardless of the length of time the spouse 10 and officer had been married, and dependent child or children of 11 the officer under the age of nineteen years in such spouse's care, 12 the benefit shall be one hundred percent of the amount of such 13 officer's annuity until such time as the youngest dependent child 14 attains the age of nineteen years after which time the benefit 15 shall be reduced to seventy-five percent of the officer's annuity 16 for the remainder of his or her life or until he or she remarries; 17 (b) if there is no spouse living at the date of the officer's 18 death, his or her child or children, if any, shall continue to 19 receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's 20 annuity until such time as the youngest child attains the age of 21 nineteen years; (c) if there is more than one child of the officer 22 under the age of nineteen years at the date of the officer's death, 23 the benefit shall be divided equally among such children and, as 24 they attain the age of nineteen years, only the child or children 25 under the age of nineteen years shall participate therein; and (d) 26 if there is no child or children of the officer under the age of 27 nineteen years living at the date of the officer's death, the 1 surviving spouse, regardless of the length of time the spouse and 2 officer had been married, shall receive seventy-five percent of the 3 amount of such officer's annuity for the remainder of his or her 4 life or until he or she remarries. If no benefits are paid to a 5 surviving spouse or dependent children of the officer, benefits 6 will be paid as described in subsection (1) of section 81-2031.

7 (4) Any benefits provided in subsections (1), (2), and 8 (3) of this section shall apply only to retirements, disabilities, 9 and deaths occurring on or after September 2, 1977. No benefits 10 being paid under the system on September 2, 1977, shall be

Section 1. At a special election on May 12, 1998, the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of Nebraska shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval or rejection:

To amend Article III, section 2:

III-2 "The first power reserved by the people is the initiative whereby laws may be enacted and constitutional amendments adopted by the people independently of the Legislature. This power may be invoked by petition wherein the proposed measure shall be set forth at length. If the petition be for the enactment of a law, it shall be signed by seven percent of the registered voters of the state, and if the petition be for the amendment of the Constitution, the petition therefor shall be signed by ten percent of such registered voters. In all cases the registered voters signing such petition shall be so distributed as to include five percent of the registered voters of each of two-fifths of the counties of the state, and when thus signed, the petition shall be filed with the Secretary of State who shall submit the measure thus proposed to the electors of the state at the first general election held not less than four months after such petition shall have been filed. The same measure, either in form or in essential substance, shall not be submitted to the people by initiative petition, either affirmatively or negatively, more often than once in three years. If conflicting measures submitted to the people at the same election be approved, the one receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall thereby become law as to all conflicting provisions. Petitions invoking the referendum shall be signed by not less than five percent of the registered voters of the state, distributed as required for initiative petitions, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State within ninety days after the Legislature at which the act sought to be referred was passed shall have adjourned sine die or for more than ninety days. ~~Such~~ Each such petition shall set out the title of the act against which the referendum is invoked and, in addition thereto, when only a portion of the act is sought to be referred, the number of the section or sections or portion of sections of the act designating such portion. No more than one act or portion of an act of the Legislature shall be the subject of each referendum petition. When the referendum is thus invoked, the Secretary of State shall refer the same to the electors for approval or rejection at the first general election to be held not less than thirty days after the filing of such petition.

When the referendum is invoked as to any act or part of act, other than emergency acts or those for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, by petition signed by not less than ten percent of the registered voters of the state distributed as aforesaid, it shall suspend the taking effect of such act or part of act until the same has been approved by the electors of the state."

Mrs. C. Peterson offered the following amendment:

(Amendments to E & R amendments, AM7125)

- 1 1. Strike sections 1 to 8 and insert the following
- 2 sections:
- 3 "Section 1. For purposes of sections 1 to 7 of this act,
- 4 juvenile means a person under nineteen years of age.
- 5 Sec. 2. The Office of Juvenile Services shall develop
- 6 and implement an incarceration work camp, to be completed no later
- 7 than January 1, 2005, for juvenile offenders to be placed in as a
- 8 condition of a sentence of probation. It is the intent of the
- 9 Legislature that the incarceration work camp serve the interests of
- 10 society by promoting the rehabilitation of juvenile offenders and
- 11 by deterring juvenile offenders from engaging in further criminal
- 12 activity. To accomplish these goals, the incarceration work camp
- 13 shall provide regimented, structured, disciplined programming,
- 14 including all of the following: Work programs; vocational training;
- 15 behavior management and modification; money management; substance
- 16 abuse awareness, counseling, and treatment; and education,
- 17 programming needs, and aftercare planning, which will increase the
- 18 offender's abilities to lead a law-abiding, productive, and 19 fulfilling life as a contributing member of a free society.

20 Sec. 3. (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the 21 court target the felony juvenile offender (a) who is experiencing 22 his or her first prison sentence, (b) for whom the court finds that 23 other conditions of a sentence of probation, in and of themselves, 1 2 are not suitable, and (c) who, without the existence of an 2 incarceration work camp, would, in all likelihood, be sentenced to 3 prison. It is the further intent of the Legislature that prior 4 juvenile offenders who were incarcerated for minor nonviolent 5 offenses are not automatically ineligible to be placed in an 6 incarceration work camp as a condition of a sentence of probation.

7 (2) When the court is of the opinion that imprisonment
8 may be appropriate, but that a brief and intensive period of 9 incarceration may better serve the interests of society, the court
10 may place a juvenile offender in an incarceration work camp for a 11 period not to exceed one hundred eighty days as a condition of a 12 sentence of probation. The court may consider such placement if 13 the juvenile offender (a) is a male or female juvenile offender, 14 (b) is determined to be medically and mentally fit to participate, 15 with allowances given for reasonable accommodation, (c) has not 16 previously been incarcerated for a violent felony crime, and (d)
17 has not demonstrated chronic violent behavior. Juvenile offenders 18 convicted of a crime under sections 28-319 to 28-321 or of any 19 capital crime are not eligible to be placed in an incarceration 20 work camp.

21 Sec. 4. Upon successful completion of the incarceration
22 work camp program, as determined by the Office of Juvenile 23 Services, the sentencing court may modify the juvenile offender's 24 conditions of his or her sentence of probation, place the juvenile 25 offender in an aftercare program, or discharge the juvenile 26 offender.

27 Sec. 5. If the juvenile offender for any reason fails to 1 successfully complete the incarceration work camp program, the
2 sentencing court may impose any other sentence that the court may 3 have originally imposed. Credit shall be given for time actually 4 served in the incarceration work camp program.

5 Sec. 6. All costs incurred during the period the 6 juvenile offender is committed to an incarceration work camp shall 7 be the responsibility of the state, and the counties shall be 8 liable only for the cost of returning the offender to the 9 appropriate court for reimposition of sentence or such other 10 disposition as the court may then deem appropriate.

11 Sec. 7. An annual progress report shall be provided to 12 the Legislature ensuring that all programmatic objectives are being 13 met. The report shall include an evaluation of the impact of the 14 multi-treatment programs, including program costs, educational 15 achievement, inmate disciplinary activity, probation release
16 decision-making, and community reintegration on November 1 of the 17 year following implementation.

18 Sec. 8. Section 29-2262, Reissue Revised Statutes of 19 Nebraska, is amended to read:

20 29-2262. (1) When a court sentences an offender to 21 probation, it shall attach such reasonable conditions as it deems
22 necessary or likely to insure that the offender will lead a
23 law-abiding life. No offender shall be sentenced to probation if 24 he or she is deemed to be an habitual criminal pursuant to section 25 29-2221.

26 (2) The court may, as a condition of a sentence of 27 probation, require the offender:

1 (a) To refrain from unlawful conduct;

2 (b) To be confined periodically in the county jail or to 3 return to custody after specified hours but not to exceed (i) for 4 misdemeanors, the lesser of ninety days or the maximum jail term
5 provided by law for the offense and (ii) for felonies, one hundred 6 eighty days;

7 (c) To meet his or her family responsibilities;

8 (d) To devote himself or herself to a specific employment 9 or occupation;

10 (e) To undergo medical or psychiatric treatment and to 11 enter and remain in a specified institution for such purpose;

12 (f) To pursue a prescribed secular course of study or 13 vocational training;

14 (g) To attend or reside in a facility established for the 15 instruction, recreation, or residence of persons on probation;

16 (h) To refrain from frequenting unlawful or disreputable
17 places or consorting with disreputable persons;

18 (i) To have in his or her possession no firearm or other
19 dangerous weapon unless granted written permission;

20 (j) To remain within the jurisdiction of the court and to 21 notify the court or the probation officer of any change in his or 22 her address or his or her employment;

23 (k) To report as directed to the court or a probation
24 officer and to permit the officer to visit his or her home;

25 (l) To pay a fine in one or more payments as ordered;

26 (m) To work, in lieu of or in addition to any fine, on 27 public streets, parks, or other public property for a period not 1 exceeding twenty working days. Such work shall be under the 2 supervision of the probation officer or a law enforcement officer
3 in the jurisdiction in which the work is performed;

4 (n) To pay for tests to determine the presence of drugs
5 or alcohol, psychological evaluations, and rehabilitative services
6 required in the identification, evaluation, and treatment of 7 offenders if such offender has the financial ability to pay for 8 such services;

9 (o) To perform community service as defined in section 10 29-2277;

11 (p) To be monitored by an electronic surveillance device
12 or system and to pay the cost of such device or system if the

13 offender has the financial ability;

14 (q) To participate in a community correctional facility
15 or program as provided in section 47-610; ~~or~~

16 (r) To successfully complete an incarceration work camp
17 program as provided by sections 1 to 7 of this act, if the offender 18 is under nineteen years of age; or

19 ~~(s)~~ (s) To satisfy any other conditions reasonably 20 related to the rehabilitation of the offender.

21 (3) In all cases in which the offender is guilty of 22 assault or battery and the victim is the offender's spouse, a
23 condition of probation shall be mandatory counseling as provided by 24 the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act.

25 (4) In all cases in which the offender is guilty of 26 violating section 28-416, a condition of probation shall be 27 mandatory treatment and counseling as provided by such section.

1 Sec. 9. Section 29-2270, Reissue Revised Statutes of
2 Nebraska, is amended to read:

3 29-2270. Any individual who is less than nineteen years 4 of age and who is subject to the supervision of a juvenile 5 probation officer or an adult probation officer pursuant to an 6 order of the district court, county court, or juvenile court;

7 (1) Shall, ~~shall~~, as a condition of probation, be 8 required to:

9 ~~(1)~~ (a) Attend school to obtain vocational training or to 10 achieve an appropriate educational level as prescribed by the 11 probation officer after consultation with the school the individual 12 attends or pursuant to section 29-2272. If the individual fails to 13 attend school regularly, maintain appropriate school behavior, or 14 make satisfactory progress as determined by the probation officer 15 after consultation with the school and the individual does not meet 16 the requirements of subdivision (2) of this section, the district 17 court, county court, or juvenile court shall take appropriate 18 action to enforce, modify, or revoke its order granting probation; 19 or

20 ~~(2)~~ (b) Attend an on-the-job training program or secure 21 and maintain employment. If the individual fails to attend the 22 program or maintain employment and does not meet the requirements 23 of subdivision (1) of this section, the district court, county 24 court, or juvenile court shall take appropriate action to enforce, 25 modify, or revoke its order granting probation; and 26 (2) May, as a condition of probation, be required to 27 successfully complete an incarceration work camp program as 1 provided in sections 1 to 7 of this act.

2 Sec. 10. Section 43-286, Revised Statutes Supplement,
3 1996, is amended to read:

4 43-286. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 5 43-251 and 43-253 to 43-257, no juvenile shall be confined in any 6 jail as a disposition of the court. When any juvenile is 7 adjudicated to be a juvenile described in subdivision (1), (2),

8 (3)(b), or (4) of section 43-247:

9 (1) The court may continue the dispositional portion of 10 the hearing, from time to time upon such terms and conditions as 11 the court may prescribe, including an order of restitution of any 12 property stolen or damaged when the same is in the interest of the 13 juvenile's reformation or rehabilitation, and, subject to the 14 further order of the court, may:

15 (a) Place the juvenile on probation subject to the 16 supervision of a probation officer or may, as a condition of 17 probation, require the juvenile to successfully complete an 18 incarceration work camp program as provided in sections 1 to 7 of 19 this act;

20 (b) Permit the juvenile to remain in his or her own home, 21 subject to the supervision of the probation officer; or

22 (c) Cause the juvenile to be placed in a suitable family 23 home or institution, subject to the supervision of the probation 24 officer. If the court has committed the juvenile to the care and 25 custody of the Department of Health and Human Services, the 26 department shall pay the costs of the suitable family home or 27 institution which are not otherwise paid by the juvenile's parents.

1 Under subdivision (1)(a), (1)(b), or (1)(c) of this 2 section, upon a determination by the court that there are no
3 parental, private, or other public funds available for the care, 4 custody, and maintenance of a juvenile, the court may order a 5 reasonable sum for the care, custody, and maintenance of the 6 juvenile to be paid out of a fund which shall be appropriated 7 annually by the county where the petition is filed until a suitable 8 provision may be made for the juvenile without such payment;

9 (2) Except as provided in section 43-287, the court may 10 commit such juvenile to the Office of Juvenile Services, but a 11 juvenile under the age of twelve years shall not be committed to 12 the Youth Rehabilitation and Treatment Center-Geneva or to the 13 Youth Rehabilitation and Treatment Center-Kearney unless he or she 14 has violated the terms of probation or has committed an additional 15 offense and the court finds that the interests of the juvenile and 16 the welfare of the community demand his or her commitment. This 17 minimum age provision shall not apply if the act in question is 18 murder or manslaughter;

19 (3) When a juvenile is placed on probation or under the 20 supervision of the court and it is alleged that the juvenile is 21 again a juvenile as defined by subdivision (1), (2), (3)(b), or (4) 22 of section 43-247, a petition may be filed and the same procedure 23 followed and rights given at a hearing on the original petition.
24 If an adjudication is made that the allegations of the petition are 25 true, the court may make any disposition authorized by this section 26 for such adjudications; or

27 (4) When a juvenile is placed on probation or under the 1 supervision of the court for conduct under subdivision (1), (2), 2 (3)(b), or (4) of section 43-247 and it is alleged that the

3 juvenile has violated a term of probation or supervision or that 4 the juvenile has violated an order of the court, a motion to revoke 5 probation or supervision or to change the disposition may be filed 6 and proceedings held as follows:

7 (a) The motion shall set forth specific factual
8 allegations of the alleged violations and a copy of such motion 9 shall be served on all persons required to be served by sections 10 43-262 to 43-267;

11 (b) The juvenile shall be entitled to a hearing before 12 the court to determine the validity of the allegations set forth 13 pursuant to subdivision (4)(a) of this section. At such hearing 14 the juvenile shall be entitled to those rights relating to counsel 15 provided by section 43-272 and those rights relating to detention 16 provided by sections 43-254 to 43-256. The juvenile shall also be 17 entitled to speak and present documents, witnesses, or other 18 evidence on his or her own behalf. He or she may confront persons 19 who have given adverse information concerning the alleged 20 violations, may cross-examine such persons, and may show that he or 21 she did not violate the conditions of his or her probation or, if 22 he or she did, that mitigating circumstances suggest that the 23 violation does not warrant revocation. The revocation hearing 24 shall be held within a reasonable time after the juvenile is taken 25 into custody;

26 (c) The hearing shall be conducted in an informal manner 27 and shall be flexible enough to consider evidence, including 1 letters, affidavits, and other material, that would not be 2 admissible in an adversary criminal trial;

3 (d) The juvenile shall be given a preliminary hearing in 4 all cases when the juvenile is confined, detained, or otherwise 5 significantly deprived of his or her liberty as a result of his or 6 her alleged violation of probation. Such preliminary hearing shall 7 be held before an impartial person other than his or her probation
8 officer or any person directly involved with the case. If as a 9 result of such preliminary hearing probable cause is found to 10 exist, the juvenile shall be entitled to a hearing before the court 11 in accordance with subdivisions (4)(b) and (4)(c) of this section;

12 (e) If the juvenile is found by the court to have 13 violated the terms of his or her probation, the court may modify 14 the terms and conditions of the probation order, extend the period 15 of probation, or enter any order of disposition that could have 16 been made at the time the original order of probation was entered 17 or, in the case of the juvenile adjudicated to be within the 18 definitions of subdivision (3)(b) of section 43-247, the court, 19 after considering the dispositions available, may in addition 20 commit such juvenile to the Office of Juvenile Services under 21 section 43-287; and

22 (f) In cases when the court revokes probation, it shall 23 enter a written statement as to the evidence relied on and the 24 reasons for revocation.

25 Sec. 11. Original sections 29-2262 and 29-2270, Reissue
 26 Revised Statutes of Nebraska, and section 43-286, Revised Statutes 27 Supplement, are repealed.

1 Sec. 12. Since an emergency exists, this act takes 2 effect when passed and approved according to law."

7 Sec. 3. This act is operative for all taxable years

9 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended."

10 2. Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Mr. Abboud filed the following amendment to LB 138:
AM1681

1 1. Insert the following new sections:

2 "Sec. 31. Sections 31 to 36 of this act shall be known
3 and may be cited as the Volunteer Firefighters and Rescue Squad
4 Personnel Recruitment and Retention Incentive Act.

5 Sec. 32. The Legislature recognizes that volunteer 6 firefighters and rescue squad personnel have provided fire 7 suppression and emergency response services to their local 8 communities for over a century at only a fraction of the cost to 9 taxpayers when compared to the cost that would have resulted from 10 the implementation of a paid fire department or paid rescue squad.
11 Many cities, villages, and rural areas could not afford the cost of 12 their current level of service without the presence of a local pool 13 of committed and dedicated volunteer firefighters and volunteer 14 rescue squad personnel. Such volunteer public safety programs 15 should be encouraged in communities which choose to have such 16 programs.

17 The Legislature finds that the duties and 18 responsibilities of volunteer fire departments and rescue squads in 19 the State of Nebraska have become increasingly complex and that the 20 needs of the various departments and squads across the state are 21 dramatically different.

22 The Legislature recognizes that volunteer fire

23 departments and rescue squads must encourage a high level of 24 training and professionalism among their volunteer personnel in 1 order to respond to their increasingly complex and hazardous 2 responsibilities.

3 The Legislature further finds that cities of the first 4 and second classes, villages, and rural and suburban fire 5 protection districts should be permitted to analyze the needs of 6 their local communities, specifically the recruiting, training, and 7 retention of fire safety and rescue squad volunteers to serve such 8 local communities, and should be granted the authority to design 9 local option incentive programs specifically tailored to the needs 10 of that community.

11 Sec. 33. The governing body of any city of the first or 12 second class or village or of any fire protection district may 13 establish incentive programs by ordinance or resolution for active 14 volunteer members of a volunteer fire department or rescue squad.
15 The incentive programs may include, but shall not be limited to: 16 Payment of deferred annuities which reward length of service and 17 active participation; health, disability, and life insurance; 18 reimbursement of costs incurred by volunteers while in the line of 19 duty; and other similar financial incentives for volunteer 20 members.

21 Sec. 34. Any incentive program which may be established 22 pursuant to sections 31 to 36 of this act shall be wholly funded by 23 the city, village, or fire protection district adopting such 24 program.

25 Sec 35. No city with a paid fire department shall 26 implement any incentive programs for volunteer fire department or 27 rescue squad personnel if the city maintains a retirement plan for 1 paid firefighters and such city's ratio of assets to the valuation 2 of the unfunded accrued liabilities in its pension program, as 3 determined by an evaluation by a member of the American Academy of 4 Actuaries, is equal to or more than eighty percent. Such city may 5 implement an incentive plan for its volunteer firefighters or 6 volunteer rescue squad personnel when the ratio of assets to the 7 unfunded accrued liabilities in its paid firefighters pension plan 8 is less than eighty percent.

9 Sec. 36. Any incentive program created by sections 31 to 10 36 of this act shall apply only to persons who are active members 11 of a volunteer fire department or rescue squad on or after the 12 adoption of the program by the governing body.

13 Sec. 43. Section 35-508, Revised Statutes Supplement,
14 1996, is amended to read:

15 35-508. The board of directors shall have the following 16 general powers:

17 (1) To determine a general fire protection and rescue 18 program for the district;

19 (2) To make an annual estimate of the probable expense 20 for carrying out such program;

- 21 (3) To annually certify such estimate to the county clerk 22 in the manner provided by section 35-509;
- 23 (4) To manage and conduct the business affairs of the 24 district;
- 25 (5) To make and execute contracts in the name of and on 26 behalf of the district;
- 27 (6) To buy real estate when needed for the district and 1 to sell real estate of the district when the district has no 2 further use for it;
- 3 (7) To purchase or lease such firefighting and rescue 4 equipment, supplies, and other real or personal property as 5 necessary and proper to carry out the general fire protection and 6 rescue program of the district;
- 7 (8) To incur indebtedness on behalf of the district;
- 8 (9) To authorize the issuance of evidences of the 9 indebtedness permitted under subdivision (8) of this section and to 10 pledge any real or personal property owned or acquired by the 11 district as security for the same;
- 12 (10) To organize, establish, equip, maintain, and 13 supervise a paid, volunteer, or combination paid and volunteer fire 14 department or company to serve the district and to establish an 15 incentive program for volunteers pursuant to the Volunteer 16 Firefighters and Rescue Squad Personnel Recruitment and Retention 17 Incentive Act;
- 18 (11) To employ and compensate such personnel as necessary 19 to carry out the general fire protection and rescue program of the 20 district;
- 21 (12) To authorize the execution of a contract with the 22 Game and Parks Commission or a public power district for fire 23 protection of property of the commission or public power district 24 located in or adjacent to the rural or suburban fire protection 25 district;
- 26 (13) To levy a tax not to exceed ten and one-half cents
27 on each one hundred dollars in any one year upon the taxable value
1 of all taxable property within such district subject to section 2 77-3443, in addition to the amount of tax which may be annually 3 levied to defray the general and incidental expenses of such 4 district, for the purpose of establishing a sinking fund for the 5 construction, purchase, improvement, extension, original equipment, 6 or repair, not including maintenance, of district buildings to 7 house equipment or personal belongings of a fire department, for 8 the purchase of firefighting and rescue equipment or apparatus, for 9 the acquisition of any land incidental to such purposes, or for 10 payment of principal and interest on any evidence of indebtedness 11 issued pursuant to subdivisions (8) and (9) of this section. For 12 purposes of section 77-3443, the county board of each county in 13 which the district is situated shall approve the levy;
- 14 (14) To adopt and enforce fire codes and establish 15 penalties at annual meetings, except that the code must be

16 available prior to annual meetings and notice shall so provide; and 17 (15) Generally to perform all acts necessary to fully 18 carry out the purposes of sections 35-501 to 35-517.

 20 Nebraska, is amended to read:

21 35-513. (1) Any rural or suburban fire protection 22 district may elect to enter into a contract with another rural or 23 suburban fire protection district to consolidate or cooperate for 24 mutual fire protection and prevention purposes, or may enter into a 25 contract with an incorporated city or village for fire protection 26 service or fire protection cooperation, upon terms suitable to all 27 concerned, and power to make such contracts is hereby conferred 1 upon such city or village in addition to such other powers as have 2 been heretofore provided by law.

3 (2) A rural or suburban fire protection district may 4 establish an incentive program for its volunteers pursuant to the 5 Volunteer Firefighters and Rescue Squad Personnel Recruitment and 6 Retention Incentive Act and may make payments for the costs of any 7 such incentive program for volunteer members of a fire department 8 or rescue squad of a city of the first or second class or village 9 with which the district has a contract for fire protection services 10 or fire protection cooperation.

11 Sec. 66. Since an emergency exists, this act takes

 14 sections added by this amendment become operative on their

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORTS Enrollment and Review

LEGISLATIVE BILL 686. Placed on Select File as amended.

E & R amendment to LB 686:

AM7141

- 1 1. Strike the original sections and all amendments
2 thereto and insert the following new sections:
3 "Section 1. Sections 1 to 9 of this act shall be known
4 and may be cited as the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal 5 Service Fund Act.
6 Sec. 2. The purpose of the Nebraska Telecommunications 7 Universal Service Fund Act is to authorize the commission to 8 establish a funding mechanism which supplements federal universal 9 service support mechanisms and ensures that all Nebraskans, without 10 regard to their location, have comparable accessibility to 11 telecommunications services at affordable prices.
12 Sec. 3. For purposes of the Nebraska Telecommunications
13 Universal Service Fund Act:
14 (1) Commission means the Public Service Commission;
15 (2) Fund means the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal 16 Service Fund;
17 (3) Telecommunications Act of 1996 means the federal 18 telecommunications legislation codified at 47 U.S.C. 609; and 19 (4) Telecommunications company means any person, firm, 20 partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or association 21 offering telecommunications services to the public for hire in 22 Nebraska intrastate commerce.
23 Sec. 4. The Legislature declares that it is the policy 24 of the state to preserve and advance universal service based on the 1 following principles:
2 (1) Quality telecommunications and information services
3 should be available at just, reasonable, and affordable rates;
4 (2) Access to advanced telecommunications and information
5 services should be provided in all regions of the state; 6 (3) Consumers in all regions of the state, including 7 low-income consumers and those in rural and high-cost areas, should 8 have access to telecommunications and information services, 9 including interexchange services and advanced telecommunications 10 and information services, that are reasonably comparable to those 11 services provided in urban areas and that are available at rates 12 that are reasonably comparable to rates charged for similar 13 services in urban areas;
14 (4) All providers of telecommunications services should 15 make an equitable and nondiscriminatory contribution to the 16 preservation and advancement of universal service;

17 (5) There should be specific, predictable, sufficient, 18 and competitively neutral mechanisms to preserve and advance
19 universal service. Funds for the support of high-cost service 20 areas will be available only to the designated eligible 21 telecommunications companies providing service to such areas.
22 Funds for the support of low-income customers, schools, libraries, 23 and providers of health care to rural areas will be available to 24 any entity providing telecommunications services, maintenance, and 25 upgrading of facilities. The distribution of universal service 26 funds should encourage the continued development and maintenance of 27 telecommunications infrastructure;

1 (6) Elementary and secondary schools, libraries, and 2 providers of health care to rural areas should have access to 3 advanced telecommunications services as described in the 4 Telecommunications Act of 1996. To promote the efficient use of 5 facilities in rural areas, universal service rules should not 6 preclude the sharing of facilities supported by universal service 7 funds with other local users, if such ineligible users pay 8 appropriate retail usage rates to the telecommunications company;

9 (7) The implicit support mechanisms in intrastate access 10 rates throughout the state may be replaced while ensuring that 11 local service rates in all areas of the state remain affordable; 12 and

13 (8) The costs of administration of the Nebraska
14 Telecommunications Universal Service Fund should be kept to a 15 minimum.

16 Sec. 5. The Nebraska Telecommunications Universal 17 Service Fund is hereby created. The fund shall provide the 18 assistance necessary to make universal access to telecommunications 19 services available to all persons in the state consistent with the 20 policies set forth in the Nebraska Telecommunication Universal 21 Service Fund Act. Only eligible telecommunications companies 22 designated by the commission pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 214(e) shall be 23 eligible to receive support to serve high-cost areas from the fund.
24 A telecommunications company that receives such support shall use 25 that support only for the provision, maintenance, and upgrading of 26 facilities and services for which the support is intended. Any 27 such support should be explicit and sufficient to achieve the 1 purpose of the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal Service Fund
2 Act. Any money in the fund available for investment shall be 3 invested by the state investment officer pursuant to the Nebraska 4 Capital Expansion Act and the Nebraska State Funds Investment Act.

5 Sec. 6. The commission shall determine the standards and 6 procedures reasonably necessary, adopt and promulgate rules and 7 regulations as reasonably required, and enter into such contracts 8 with other agencies or private organizations or entities as may be 9 reasonably necessary to efficiently develop, implement, and operate

10 the fund.

11 Sec. 7. The fund may be administered by a neutral 12 third-party administrator. The commission shall oversee the 13 preparation and selection process of the administrator through a 14 request for proposal process established by the commission. The 15 administrator shall: Gather the necessary data to estimate fund 16 obligations; notify telecommunications companies of their 17 obligations to the fund; collect and distribute money from the fund 18 in accordance with the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal 19 Service Fund Act and the rules and regulations established by the 20 commission; and notify the commission of any violations of the act 21 and rules and regulations by telecommunications companies with 22 respect to the fund. The commission shall audit the administrator 23 to ensure the duties are being performed in accordance with the act 24 and its rules and regulations. Any telecommunications company not 25 meeting its obligation to the fund shall not be eligible to receive 26 payments from the fund, shall be subject to administrative 27 penalties to be determined by the commission, and shall be subject 1 to the revocation of any certificate issued pursuant to section 2 75-604 or any predecessor statute.

3 Sec. 8. The commission shall oversee and the 4 administrator shall administer the fund with the advice of an 5 advisory board appointed by the commission. The number of members 6 on such advisory board shall be not less than nine nor more than 7 fifteen members. The composition of the membership of the advisory 15 the public. The advisory board shall provide recommendations to 16 the commission at the public hearing held pursuant to section 17 84-1408. The advisory board shall also, on an annual basis, 18 recommend the services to be supported by the fund.

19 Sec. 9. (1) Annually the commission shall hold a public 20 hearing to determine the level of the fund necessary to carry out 21 the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal Service Fund Act. The 22 commission shall publish notice of the hearing in at least one 23 newspaper of general circulation in the state at least once each 24 week for two consecutive weeks before the hearing. After the 25 hearing, the commission shall determine the amount of the fund for 26 the following year, including a reasonable reserve. In the initial 27 year of the fund's operation, the commission shall determine the 1 amount of the fund to be equivalent to the amount which, in the 2 commission's judgment, after careful analysis is necessary to keep 3 approximately ninety-six percent of Nebraska households subscribed 4 to local telecommunications service.

5 (2) In an emergency as determined by the commission, the 6 commission may adjust the level of the fund, but only after a 7 public hearing for such purpose.

8 Sec. 10. Section 86-804, Reissue Revised Statutes of 9 Nebraska, is amended to read:

10 86-804. The commission shall provide the Legislature 11 with an annual report on or before September 30 of each year on the 12 status of the Nebraska telecommunications industry. The report
 13 shall describe: (1) The quality of telecommunications services 14 being provided to the citizens of Nebraska; (2) the availability of 15 diverse and affordable telecommunications services to all of the 16 people of Nebraska; ~~and~~ (3) the level of rates of local exchange 17 companies and interexchange telecommunications companies; and (4)
 18 the level of the Nebraska Telecommunications Universal Service Fund 19 as determined by section 9 of this act. The report also shall 20 address the question of the need for further legislation to achieve 21 the purposes of sections 86-801 to 86-811.

22 Sec. 11. Original section 86-804, Reissue Revised
 23 Statutes of Nebraska, is repealed."

3 to section 23-1118, the amount transferred shall be calculated as 4 follows:

5 (i) If the retirement system of the county is a defined

7 leave and vacation plans. When accrued sick leave and vacation 8 leave for a transferred employee are at a greater rate value than 9 allowed by the state's sick leave and vacation leave plans, the 10 county shall pay the state the difference between the value of the 11 benefits allowed by the county and the state based on, at the time 12 of transfer, twenty-five percent of the employee's straight-time 13 rate of pay for the sick leave and one hundred percent of the 14 employee's straight-time rate of pay for vacation leave. A county 15 shall reimburse the state not later than one year after the 16 transfer is complete.

17 (4) The transferred employee shall not receive any

- 1 1. Insert the following new section:
 2 "Sec. 63. (1) The Local Option Tax Study Committee is
 3 created. The committee shall be composed of the Lieutenant
 4 Governor, the Tax Commissioner, the Property Tax Administrator, the 5 Speaker of the Legislature, the Chairperson of the Education
 6 Committee of the Legislature, the Chairperson of the Revenue
 7 Committee of the Legislature, a representative of the State
 8 Department of Education appointed by the Commissioner of Education, 9 a member of a county board, a county assessor, and three members of 10 the general public who have knowledge of education matters or 11 finance appointed by the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall 12 be the chairperson of the committee.
 13 (2) The committee shall analyze the impact of permitting
 14 school districts to locally implement and authorize a local income
 15 tax to finance a portion of the operating expenses of the school
 16 district. The committee shall study the impact of permitting
 17 school districts to enact a countywide local option sales tax, the 18 proceeds of which will be distributed to schools on a per student 19 basis or in some other manner. Specifically the committee should 20 make recommendations on:
 21 (a) Whether or not receipts from a local option income
 22 tax or local option sales tax for school purposes should be treated
 23 as accountable receipts for a school district;
 1 (b) If there should be a maximum percentage of the school
 2 district budget which may be funded by a local option income tax or 3 local option sales tax for school purposes, and if so, what the 4 limit should be; and
 5 (c) If there should be a limit on the length of time a
 6 local option income tax or local option sales tax for school
 7 purposes can be imposed without another vote of the registered
 8 voters of the school district extending the tax, and if so, how 9 long the limit should be.
 10 (3) For purposes of its consideration of the issues and 11 to aid in the developing its recommendations, the committee shall 12 assume that a school district may authorize a local option income

13 tax or local option sales tax to fund a portion of the operation of 14 the school district, that the tax may only be imposed after 15 approval by a majority of those voting in a general or special
 16 election, and that the tax may only be implemented to provide for a
 17 reduction in property tax receipts utilized by the school district.

18 (4) The committee shall also analyze the impact of a
 19 county income tax for purposes of property tax relief.
 20 Specifically the committee should make recommendations on:

21 (a) Whether it is practical to credit county income taxes
 22 paid against property taxes due;

23 (b) Whether any county income tax should be limited in 24 amount or duration and, if so, how; and

25 (c) Whether a county income tax with a credit against 26 property taxes will provide sufficient revenue to provide public 27 services in areas which currently have above-average property
 1 taxes.

2 (5) The committee shall also study the possible impact of 3 restricting the availability of property tax exemptions both for 4 government property and property for religious, educational,
 5 cemetery, and charitable use. Specifically, the committee should 6 make recommendations on:

7 (a) The possibility of levying ad valorem taxes on the 8 value of a leasehold interest in public property by a commercial
 9 enterprise as if it were owned in fee;

10 (b) The possibility of requiring or allowing local 11 governments to require in lieu of tax payments on governments
 12 owning tax-exempt property to recover the costs of other local 13 governments in providing property related services such as law
 14 enforcement, fire protection, and street construction and 15 maintenance;

16 (c) The possibility of narrowing the eligibility for 17 property tax exemptions for religious, educational, cemetery, or 18 charitable use such as by requiring a certain level of charitable 19 donation of goods or services to individuals worthy of charity; and

20 (d) The possibility of requiring or allowing local 21 governments to require in lieu of tax payments by entities with 22 property tax exemptions to recover the costs of providing property
 23 related services such as law enforcement, fire protection, and 24 street construction and maintenance.

25 (6) The Department of Revenue shall provide necessary
 26 staff and assistance to the committee.

27 (7) The committee shall make a report to the Governor and
 1 Legislature on its findings on or before December 1, 1997."

2 2. Correct the operative date section so that the 3 section added by this amendment becomes operative on its effective 4 date.

5 3. Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Mr. Withem filed the following amendment to LB 798:

AM1814

(Amendments to Am1353)

Opinion No. 97026

SUBJECT: Constitutionality of Legislative Bill 532
 Providing for Adjusted Supplemental Retirement Benefits

REQUESTED BY: Senators LaVon Crosby and Elaine Stuhr

 Fredrick F. Neid, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested that the Attorney General address two issues relating to the constitutionality of Legislative Bill 532. The provisions of LB 532, for the most part, establish a supplemental retirement benefit for certain retired members of the School Retirement System and the Retirement System for Class V School Districts based on years of creditable service.

It is FIRST inquired:

[D]oes LB 532 as written violate Article III, Section 18 of the Nebraska

Constitution, i.e. whether it violates the prohibition against special legislation.

In summary, the provisions of LB 532 establish minimum levels of retirement benefits for retired members of the school retirement systems having twenty or more years of creditable service at the effective date of the legislative act. Section 2 of the Bill establishes a two hundred fifty dollar minimum for retirees with twenty years of service. The minimum benefit level is increased in fifty dollar increments for each year of additional service beyond twenty years to twenty-five years or more of creditable service. A retiree having twenty-five or more years of service would receive a minimal retirement benefit of five hundred dollars.

Neb. Const. art. III, § 18 provides in pertinent part:

The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following cases, that is to say: Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privileges, immunity, or franchise whatever. . . . In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted.

A legislative act constitutes special legislation under art. III, § 18 if it (1) creates an arbitrary and unreasonable method of classification or (2) creates a permanently closed class. See, City of Ralston v. Balka, 247 Neb. 773, 530 N.W.2d 594 (1995); Henry v. Rocky, 246 Neb. 398, 518 N.W.2d 658 (1994). Thus, the first inquiry focuses on whether the provisions of the legislative act in question create an arbitrary and unreasonable method of classification. In viewing classification issues, the Nebraska Supreme Court has stated:

A legislative classification, in order to be valid, must be based upon some reason of public policy, some substantial difference of situation or circumstance, that would naturally suggest the justice or expediency of diverse legislation with respect to objects to be classified. Classifications for the purpose of legislation must be real and not elusive. They cannot be based on distinctions without a substantial difference. . . .

Classification is proper if the special class has some reasonable distinction from other subjects of like general character, which distinction bears some reasonable relationship to the legitimate objectives and purposes of the legislation The question is always whether the things or persons classified by the act form by themselves a proper and legitimate class with reference to the purpose of the act.

Haman v. March, 237 Neb. 699, 711, 467 N.W.2d 836, 846 (1991) (quoting State ex rel. Douglas v. Marsh, 207 Neb. 598, 300 N.W.2d 181 (1980). (emphasis added).

Review of LB 532 reflects that the purpose of the act is to provide a supplemental pension benefit for the class of retirees with twenty or more years of creditable service if current benefit amounts are below certain dollar amounts. We believe the classification(s) is reasonable in view of the fact that the Legislature is accorded broad discretion as to conditions of public employment and as to the requirements, classifications, contributions to and benefits conferred by a retirement act. See Gossman v. State Employees Retirement System, 177 Neb. 326, 129 N.W.2d 97 (1964).

The second inquiry is whether the legislative act creates a permanently closed class. We believe the classes of retirees established under section 2 of the Bill constitute permanent closed classes and therefore unconstitutional special legislation. The classes are closed in the sense that only retirees having twenty or more years of creditable service "as of the effective date of this act" comprise membership of the classification as of its effective date and leave no room for any increase in its membership. It has been long held by the Nebraska Supreme Court that:

The rule appears to be settled by an almost unbroken line of decisions that a classification which limits the application of the law to a present condition, and leaves no room or opportunity for an increase in the numbers of the class by future growth or development, is special, and a violation of the constitution above quoted

Haman at 716, 467 N.W.2d at 848, [citing City of Scottsbluff v. Tiemann, 185 Neb. 256, 262, 175 N.W.2d 74, 79 (1970) (quoting State v. Kelso, 92 Neb. 628, 139 N.W.2d 226 (1912))].

Accordingly, it is our opinion that LB 532 is constitutionally suspect as special legislation in violation of Neb. Const. art. III, § 18.

The SECOND issue you present is:

[D]oes LB 532 as written violate Article III, Section 19 of the Nebraska Constitution, i.e. whether it constitutes the granting of extra compensation to a public servant after the service has been rendered and is not in the form of a cost of living adjustment to a retirement benefit.

Generally, the granting of a retirement or pension benefit in instances where no part of the service was rendered subsequent to the enactment of the law is a gratuity in violation of Neb. Const. art. III, § 19. Retired City Civilian Employees Club v. City of Omaha Employees Ret. Sys., 199 Neb. 507, 260 N.W.2d 472 (1977); Gossman v. State Employees Retirement System. However, adjustments to retirement benefits of public employees to reflect cost of living changes are permissible. Neb. Const. art. III, § 19 in relevant part states:

The Legislature shall never grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent or servant after the services have been rendered. . . except that retirement benefits of retired public officers and employees may be adjusted to reflect changes in the cost of living and wage levels that have occurred subsequent to the date of retirement,

Due to this express exception, adjustments to retirement benefits are not violative of the constitutional provision to the extent the adjustments are based on changes in the cost of living and wage levels that have subsequently occurred. The difficulty with the adjustments provisions of the Bill is that it cannot be determined from its provisions whether the adjustments are based on widely accepted cost of living index or other indices. Section 1 of the Bill characterizes the adjustments "to reflect changes that have occurred subsequent to the date of retirement for each person who is retired." However, the provisions of the Bill do not define the term cost of living or expressly base adjustment amounts to a specific cost of living index. We have previously concluded that "the percentage of increase implemented would necessarily be based on a cost of living index." See Op. Att'y Gen. 93020 (1993).

A fundamental canon of statutory construction is that, unless otherwise defined, words will be interpreted as taking their plain, or ordinary and popular meaning. Southern Nebraska Rural Public Power Dist. v. Nebraska Elec. Generation and Transmission Co-op, Inc., 249 Neb. 913, 546 N.W.2d 315 (1996); Baker's Supermarkets, Inc. v. State Dept of Agriculture, 248 Neb. 894, 540 N.W.2d 574 (1995).

In the absence of statutory definition or established common law meaning, the plain and ordinary meaning of "cost of living" is "the cost of purchasing those goods and services which are included in an accepted level of consumption." Webster's Third New International Dictionary 515. Based on this popular definition, federal courts have interpreted the phrase, cost of living, as having this ordinary meaning and that it is properly measured by the Consumer Price Index. Harris v. Sullivan, 968 F.2d 263 (2nd Cir. 1992) (further citing other federal case authorities).

Section 2 of the Bill establishes minimum levels of retirement benefit amounts on a graduated scale from two hundred fifty dollars a month for retirees with twenty years of service to five hundred dollars each month for retirees with twenty-five or more years of service. It does not appear or at least cannot be readily determined whether the incremental increases are based on increases that have occurred in the cost of living and wage levels as measured by a consumer price index. The adjustment would be gratuitous in the absence of any showing that the adjustment amounts are tied to a cost of living index. For this reason, it is our opinion that the adjustment provisions of LB 532 are constitutionally suspect as violative of Neb. Const. art. III, § 19.

Since we have concluded that the cost of living adjustment provisions of

LB 532 are violative of art. III, § 19, it is not necessary to engage in a lengthy discussion of the related issue whether the specific authorization for cost of living adjustments of art. III § 19 supersedes the special laws prohibition of art. III, § 18. This issue arises because the cost of living adjustment provisions of art. III, § 19 were added by 1972 Neb. Laws, LB 1414, § 1 after adoption of the provisions of art. III, § 18. However, we point out that we do not perceive any conflict between these constitutional provisions. The provisions of §§ 18 and 19 are not conflictive since cost of living adjustments for retired public employees may be accomplished without the creation of permanent closed classes.

The Nebraska Supreme Court has opined:

A state constitution is the supreme written will of the people of a state regarding the framework for their government and is subject only to the limitations found in the federal Constitution. (citation omitted). The state Constitution, as amended, must be read as a whole. (citation omitted). A constitutional amendment becomes an integral part of the instrument and must be construed and harmonized, if possible, with all other provisions so as to give effect to every section and clause as well as to the whole instrument. (citations omitted). If inconsistent, a constitutional amendment prevails over a provision in the original instrument; but a court will find distinct constitutional provisions repugnant to each other only when they relate to the same subject, are adopted for the same purpose, and are incapable of enforcement without substantial conflict.

Jaksha v. State, 241 Neb. 106, 110-11, 486 N.W.2d 858, 863 (1992) (quoting other authorities) (emphasis added).

The amendment of art. III, § 19 authorizing cost of living adjustments for retired public employees may be harmonized with the provisions of art. III, § 18 prohibiting special legislation. That is to say, provisions for cost of living adjustments for public employees may be legislatively enacted without the creation of permanent closed classes proscribed by art. III, § 18. Thus, the constitutional provisions may be applied without conflict.

SUBJECT: Amendment FA125 to LB 280, Legitimization of Marriages Involving Underage Children Based Upon "Custom"

REQUESTED BY: Senator Don Wesely

Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

LB 280 is a bill dealing with recognition of certain marriages in Nebraska. The bill states that "[i]t is declared to be the strong public policy of this state to recognize as valid only those marriages from other states that are between one man and one woman." In light of this policy, the bill would amend Neb. Rev. Stat. § 42-103 (1993) to add marriages "when the parties are of the same sex" to a listing of types of marriages which are void under Nebraska law. The existing portions of § 42-103 currently void certain marriages where there is a previous spouse living at the time of the marriage, where one of the parties is mentally incompetent, or where the parties are related in certain respects. The bill would also amend Neb. Rev. Stat. § 42-117 (1993) to read:

All marriages contracted in any other country, state, or territory, which would be valid by the laws of the country, state or territory in which the same were contracted shall be valid in all courts and places in this state unless the marriage would be void under section 42-103.

An amendment to LB 280 has now been proposed which would further alter the bill's effect upon § 42-117. Amendment No. FA125 would amend LB 280 to insert the words "or customs" into the bill, so that the proposed amendment to § 42-117 would read:

All marriages contracted in any other country, state, or territory, which would be valid by the laws or customs of the country, state or territory in which the same were contracted shall be valid in all courts and places in this state unless the marriage would be void under section 42-103.

(language of Amendment No. FA125 emphasized). Your question goes to the additional language for LB 280 proposed in Amendment No. FA125.

In your opinion request letter, you note that there is a case currently pending in Lancaster County in which "Iraqi parents . . . forced their thirteen and fourteen year old daughters to marry Iraqi men, aged 28 and 34." You go on to state that, "[t]he Iraqi parents argued that such marriages were a custom in their country." You then ask, "[w]ould [Amendment No. FA125] . . . provide them [the Iraqi parents] protection to go forward with such a forced marriage based on the fact that they claim it to be a custom of their country?"

The word "customs" is not defined in either LB 280 or Amendment No. FA125; nor is it defined in the statute which contains general definitions for use with the Nebraska statutes. See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 49-801 (1993). Therefore, when the word "customs" is used in a statute, it must be given its plain and ordinary meaning. Application of City of Grand Island 247 Neb. 446, 527 N.W.2d 864 (1995). In that regard, a "custom" is generally defined as "a social convention carried on by tradition and enforced by social disapproval of any violation" or "such practices, collectively." WEBSTER'S NEW WORLD DICTIONARY 349 (2nd college ed. 1982). Under that definition, it seems to us that it would be possible to argue that a tradition or practice of arranged or contracted marriages of young girls for religious or other reasons in a particular country or culture would involve a "custom" of that country or culture for purposes of the proposed amendment to § 42-117 contained in FA125.

Neb. Rev. Stat. § 42-102 (1993) provides that individuals wishing to marry in Nebraska must be at least seventeen years of age. Since LB 280 and its proposed changes for § 42-117 apply only to marriages "contracted in any other country, state, or territory," we do not believe that the additional language proposed for § 42-117 by Amendment No. FA125 would abrogate that age requirement for a marriage arranged or contracted in Nebraska simply on the basis of "custom." On the other hand, if the parents of a young child contracted for his or her marriage in another "country, state or territory" where the tradition and practice was to arrange and contract for such marriages, the marriage under those circumstances might well be valid in spite of § 42-102.

We would note that the Nebraska criminal statute dealing with first degree sexual assault provides that:

Any person who subjects another person to sexual penetration . . . (c) when the actor is nineteen years of age or older and the victim is less than sixteen years of age is guilty of sexual assault in the first degree.

There is nothing in that statute which creates an exception for sexual relations with a person under sixteen years of age when the relations occur within a "marriage." As a result, we believe that an older spouse in a marriage contracted out of this state which might be valid based upon "custom" would still be liable for potential prosecution for first degree sexual assault should he or she perpetrate sexual relations with his or her "spouse" under sixteen years of age.

We would also point out that, even if Amendment No. FA125 to LB 280 is passed, it would still be possible to argue that the forced marriage of underage children to older spouses is so against the strong policy of this state that such marriages are void. This argument would be based, in part, upon the criminal statute cited above, and also upon authority from other jurisdictions which holds that no state is bound by comity to give effect in its courts to the marriage laws of another state repugnant to its own laws and policy. Hager v. Hager, 3 Va. App. 415, 349 S.E.2d 908 (1986); State v. Austin, 234 S.E.2d 657 (1977).

GENERAL FILE

LEGISLATIVE BILL 306. The second Schellpeper et al. amendment to the Standing Committee amendment is as follows:
 FA206

(Amendments to Standing Committee amendments, AM1256)

1 1. Strike amendment 1 and insert the following new 2 amendment:

3 "1. Strike the original sections and insert the 4 following new sections:

5 'Section 1. It is the policy of the Legislature to 6 reduce property taxes through the use of levy limits. This policy
 7 requires political subdivisions to seek efficiencies which include 8 cooperation with other agencies and political subdivisions in the 9 use and construction of public buildings. In order to facilitate 10 the policy of property tax reduction and consolidation or 11 cooperation in the provision of public services, it is necessary 12 for the state to exercise oversight over capital construction 13 projects by political subdivisions through the Capital Construction 14 Review Commission.

15 Sec. 2. For purposes of sections 1 to 9 of this act:

16 (1) Political subdivision means all school districts, 17 cities, villages, counties, rural and suburban fire districts, 18 public building commissions, and educational service units in this 19 state; and

20 (2) Reviewable building project means any project for (a) 21 the construction of a building or (b) any addition or renovation of 22 any existing building which is proposed to have a cost equal to or 23 greater than fifty percent of the original cost of the building for 1 which the renovation or addition is proposed. A reviewable
 2 building project is a building project which has an estimated total 3 cost of at least five hundred thousand dollars or ten percent of 4 the total general fund expenditures of the political subdivision in 5 the most current year available, whichever is greater, but does not 6 include any capital construction project in support of a

7 proprietary function if the project is to be financed primarily 8 through grants, matching funds, or user fees paid for the services
9 of the proprietary function. Any such project shall be reviewable
10 by the Capital Construction Review Commission regardless of whether 11 it is financed through a bond issue, a sinking fund appropriation, 12 the use of the special building fund authorized in subdivision
13 (2)(a) of section 77-3442, or a long-term lease negotiated through 14 a third party.

15 For purposes of this section, total general fund
16 expenditures means all expenditures budgeted from all funds except 17 (i) money transferred between funds shall only be considered as 18 budgeted expenditures from the fund from which the money is 19 actually expended and not transferred and (ii) expenditures of a 20 proprietary function. In the case of a public building commission 21 created pursuant to sections 13-1301 to 13-1312, total general fund 22 expenditures means the total general fund expenditures of all 23 cities and counties which are involved with the commission divided 24 by the number of cities and counties involved.

25 For purposes of this section, proprietary function means
26 a water supply or distribution utility, a wastewater collection or 27 treatment utility, an electric generation, transmission, or
1 distribution utility, a gas supply, transmission, or distribution
2 utility, an integrated solid waste management collection, disposal,
3 or handling utility, a hospital, or a nursing home.

4 Sec. 3. No political subdivision shall commence a
5 reviewable building project unless the project has been reviewed
6 and approved by the Capital Construction Review Commission. This 7 section shall not apply to any reviewable building project which 8 has received approval under the Nebraska Health Care Certificate of 9 Need Act.

10 Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created the Capital
11 Construction Review Commission consisting of the Commissioner of 12 Education and six members appointed by the Governor, with expertise 13 and experience in public or private sector finance, analysis, or 14 management. One of the members to be appointed by the Governor 15 shall be a mayor of a Nebraska municipality, one shall be a member 16 of a public school board of education, and one shall be a member of 17 a county board in Nebraska. Members other than the Commissioner of 18 Education shall serve for terms of four years. As the terms of 19 appointees expire, succeeding appointments shall be made in the 20 same manner as the original appointments are made, and succeeding 21 appointees shall have the same qualifications as their 22 predecessors. An individual appointed to fill a vacancy, occurring 23 other than by the expiration of a term of office, shall be 24 appointed for the unexpired term of the member such individual 25 succeeds. No individual may serve more than two consecutive terms.

26 (2) The commission shall be within the Department of 27 Administrative Services. The commission shall elect a chairperson
1 from its members. The commission shall meet from time to time as

2 directed by the chairperson, and members shall be reimbursed for 3 their actual and necessary expenses as provided in sections 81-1174
4 to 81-1177.

5 (3) The commission shall set standards for determining 6 whether to approve or disapprove reviewable building projects
7 proposed by a political subdivision. Such standards shall be as 8 follows:

9 (a) Whether the political subdivision making the 10 application and the political subdivisions in the geographical area
11 contiguous to the applicant or having public buildings of the same 12 type being proposed within fifteen miles of the proposed buildings
13 have established strategic plans concerning the need for public 14 buildings in that area, the feasible uses for such buildings, and 15 the population to be served by such buildings;

16 (b) Whether the political subdivision has communicated
17 with other political subdivisions contiguous to the applicant or 18 having public buildings of the same type being proposed within 19 fifteen miles of the proposed buildings concerning joint use of the 20 project, if feasible;

21 (c) Whether the project will efficiently serve the 22 residents of the geographical area;

23 (d) Whether the project allows multiple use by different
24 governmental entities, not-for-profit entities, or the general
25 public, if feasible;

26 (e) Whether there is a demonstrated need for the project,
1 including the condition of current buildings and the population to 2 be served by the project;

3 (f) Whether the project has a long-term benefit for the 4 geographical area, based upon projections of population, economic 5 conditions of the area, and the strategic plans for public
6 buildings for the area; and

7 (g) Whether the political subdivision is able to 8 demonstrate that the identified needs cannot be met by the use of 9 alternative service delivery systems or technology which is 10 currently in use or may be adapted to serve such needs.

11 (4) A member of the commission shall not participate in 12 an application which would involve a conflict of interest.

13 (5) The commission shall adopt and promulgate rules and 14 regulations to carry out sections 1 to 9 of this act.

15 Sec. 5. A political subdivision seeking approval of a 16 reviewable building project shall submit an application for 17 approval to the Capital Construction Review Commission. The 18 application shall be on a form developed by the commission which 19 requires the following documents and information to be attached:

20 (1) Copies of public notices of intent to construct the 21 facility described in the application, including copies of any 22 notices sent to other political subdivisions which have contiguous
23 or overlapping boundaries to the boundaries of the applicant;

24 (2) Any formal written responses provided to the 24 applicant in response to the notices received prior to the filing

25 of the application;

26 (3) Copies of any agreements for use or joint use of the 27 facility which have been drafted and are pending at the time of the 1 application, including agreements with other political subdivisions
2 or private parties; and

3 (4) A report examining the need for the physical facility
4 and the demand for public services which the facility will provide.
5 The report shall:

6 (a) Provide information on the physical condition and 7 current use of any existing facility which the proposed facility
8 would replace. Reports from regulatory agencies regarding the 9 physical condition of the building may be submitted;

10 (b) Describe any existing public facilities with similar 11 uses which are located in political subdivisions with overlapping
12 or contiguous boundaries. Supportive endorsements or proposals
13 from such overlapping or contiguous political subdivisions may be 14 submitted;

15 (c) Contain a description of any published or available
16 alternative proposals from private or public sector groups
17 proposing to serve the same public service needs proposed to be 18 served using the facility; and

19 (d) Examine the potential for alternative service
20 delivery systems or technology which is currently in use for 21 servng public service needs or may be adapted to serve the same
22 need for public services.

23 The applicant shall provide documentation of the amount 24 and role of private, federal, state, and local funding in such 25 project and any potential impact of the project on the type or 26 amount of federal or state aid which the government may receive.
27 The applicant shall also provide a copy of public documents
1 describing any proposed or available debt or bond financing for the 2 facility and any public reports provided by bond counsel or agent
3 which are relevant to credit rating the applicant for debt
4 financing purposes.

5 Sec. 6. In an application for approval of a reviewable
6 building project, the political subdivision shall bear the burden
7 of proving that the project meets the applicable criteria specified 8 in section 4 of this act and rules and regulations of the Capital 9 Construction Review Commission. Hearings shall be conducted in the 10 manner prescribed in the Administrative Procedure Act and shall 11 include time during which any interested person wishing to present 12 oral or written evidence to the commission may do so. The 13 political subdivision shall provide notice of the date and time of 14 any hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the political 15 subdivision prior to the hearing. The applicant may file an 16 amended application or a substitute application at the hearing or 17 at any time before the decision.

18 Sec. 7. The decision of the Capital Construction Review

19 Commission shall be based upon the applicable standards for review
 20 of an application established pursuant to section 4 of this act.
 21 If the commission finds that standards in subsection (3) of section 22 4 of this act have been met by the political subdivision, it shall 23 approve the project. If the commission finds that one or more 24 standards have not been met, it may disapprove the project or make 25 recommendations for further action by the political subdivision.
 26 The commission shall not make its decision subject to any condition 27 not directly related to such standards, and any condition or 1 modification shall bear a direct and rational relationship to the 2 project under review.

3 The commission shall issue a written decision forty-five 4 days after the date the hearing was requested unless the applicant 5 consents to an extension of time. The findings, conclusions, and 6 decisions resulting from the hearing shall constitute the 7 determinations of the commission and shall be included in the 8 written decision.

9 The applicant or any affected political subdivision who 10 has intervened in the matter before the commission may seek 11 judicial review in the manner provided in sections 84-917 to 84-919
 12 by filing an appeal within thirty days after the final decision of 13 the commission. The activities of the commission shall not 14 otherwise be subject to the provisions of the Administrative 15 Procedure Act.

16 Sec. 8. The Capital Construction Review Commission may, 17 in accordance with the laws of the state governing injunctions and 18 other process, maintain an action in the name of the state against 19 any political subdivision undertaking a reviewable building project
 20 without first having approval of the commission.

21 Sec. 9. When a vote of the electorate is required before
 22 a bond may be issued for purposes of financing a capital 23 construction project subject to sections 1 to 9 of this act, the 24 issue may not be placed on the ballot prior to project approval by 25 the Capital Construction Review Commission.

Messrs. Robinson, Dierks, Cudaback, Abboud, and Mrs. Witek asked unanimous consent to be excused until they return. No objections. So ordered.

Pending.

AMENDMENT - Print in Journal

Mr. Beutler filed the following amendment to LB 306:
AM1827

(Amendments to Standing Committee amendments, AM1256)

1 1. Strike the original sections 1 to 8 and insert the 2 following new sections:

3 "Section 1. It is the policy of the Legislature to 4 reduce property taxes through the use of levy limits. This policy
5 requires political subdivisions to seek efficiencies which include 6 cooperation with other agencies and political subdivisions in the 7 use and construction of public buildings. In order to facilitate 8 the policy of property tax reduction and consolidation or 9 cooperation in the provision of public services, it is necessary
10 for the state to exercise oversight over certain capital 11 construction projects by political subdivisions through the Capital 12 Construction Review Commission.

13 Sec. 2. For purposes of sections 1 to 9 of this act:

14 (1) Political subdivision means all school districts and 15 educational service units in this state; and 16 (2) Reviewable building project means any project for the 17 construction of a building or any addition or renovation of any 18 existing building which is proposed to have a cost equal to or 19 greater than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars or ten percent of 20 the total general fund expenditures of the political subdivision in 21 the most current year available, whichever is greater, but does not 22 include any capital construction project in support of a

23 proprietary function if the project is to be financed primarily 1 through grants, matching funds, or user fees paid for the services
2 of the proprietary function. Any such project shall be reviewable
3 by the Capital Construction Review Commission regardless of whether 4 it is financed through a bond issue, a sinking fund appropriation,
5 the use of the special building fund authorized in subdivision
6 (2)(a) of section 77-3442, or a long-term lease negotiated through 7 a third party.

8 For purposes of this section, total general fund
9 expenditures means all expenditures budgeted from all funds except 10 (i) money transferred between funds shall only be considered as 11 budgeted expenditures from the fund from which the money is 12 actually expended and not transferred and (ii) expenditures of a 13 proprietary function.

14 For purposes of this section, proprietary function means
15 a water supply or distribution utility, a wastewater collection or 16 treatment utility, an electric generation, transmission, or 17 distribution utility, a gas supply, transmission, or distribution
18 utility, an integrated solid waste management collection, disposal, 19 or handling utility, a hospital, or a nursing home.

20 Sec. 3. No political subdivision shall commence a
21 reviewable building project unless the project has been reviewed

22 and approved by the Capital Construction Review Commission. This 23 section shall not apply to any reviewable building project which 24 has received approval under the Nebraska Health Care Certificate of 25 Need Act.

26 Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created the Capital
27 Construction Review Commission consisting of the Commissioner of 1 Education and six members appointed by the Governor, with expertise
2 and experience in public or private sector finance, analysis, or 3 management. Three of the members to be appointed by the Governor 4 shall be members of public school boards of education in Nebraska.
5 Members other than the Commissioner of Education shall serve for 6 terms of four years. As the terms of appointees expire, succeeding 7 appointments shall be made in the same manner as the original 8 appointments are made, and succeeding appointees shall have the 9 same qualifications as their predecessors. An individual appointed 10 to fill a vacancy, occurring other than by the expiration of a term 11 of office, shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member 12 such individual succeeds. No individual may serve more than two 13 consecutive terms.

14 (2) The commission shall be within the Department of 15 Administrative Services. The commission shall elect a chairperson 16 from its members. The commission shall meet from time to time as 17 directed by the chairperson, and members shall be reimbursed for 18 their actual and necessary expenses as provided in sections 81-1174
19 to 81-1177.

20 (3) The commission shall set standards for determining 21 whether to approve or disapprove reviewable building projects
22 proposed by a political subdivision. Such standards shall be as 23 follows:

24 (a) Whether the political subdivision making the 25 application and the political subdivisions in the geographical area
26 contiguous to the applicant or having public buildings of the same
27 type being proposed within fifteen miles of the proposed buildings
1 have established strategic plans concerning the need for public
2 buildings in that area, the feasible uses for such buildings, and 3 the population to be served by such buildings;

4 (b) Whether the political subdivision has communicated
5 with other political subdivisions contiguous to the applicant or 6 having public buildings of the same type being proposed within 7 fifteen miles of the proposed buildings concerning joint use of the 8 project, if feasible;

9 (c) Whether the project will efficiently serve the 10 residents of the geographical area;

11 (d) Whether the project allows multiple use by different
12 governmental entities, not-for-profit entities, or the general
13 public, if feasible;

14 (e) Whether there is a demonstrated need for the project,
15 including the condition of current buildings and the population to 16 be served by the project;

17 (f) Whether the project has a long-term benefit for the 18 geographical area, based upon projections of population, economic 19 conditions of the area, and the strategic plans for public
20 buildings for the area; and

21 (g) Whether the political subdivision is able to 22 demonstrate that the identified needs cannot be met by the use of 23 alternative service delivery systems or technology which is 24 currently in use or may be adapted to serve such needs.

25 (4) A member of the commission shall not participate in 26 an application which would involve a conflict of interest.

27 (5) The commission shall adopt and promulgate rules and
1 regulations to carry out sections 1 to 9 of this act.

2 Sec. 5. A political subdivision seeking approval of a
3 reviewable building project shall submit an application for 4 approval to the Capital Construction Review Commission. The 5 application shall be on a form developed by the commission which 6 requires the following documents and information to be attached:

7 (1) Copies of public notices of intent to construct the 8 facility described in the application, including copies of any 9 notices sent to other political subdivisions which have contiguous
10 or overlapping boundaries to the boundaries of the applicant;

11 (2) Any formal written responses provided to the 12 applicant in response to the notices received prior to the filing
13 of the application;

14 (3) Copies of any agreements for use or joint use of the 15 facility which have been drafted and are pending at the time of the 16 application, including agreements with other political subdivisions
17 or private parties; and

18 (4) A report examining the need for the physical facility
19 and the demand for public services which the facility will provide.
20 The report may:

21 (a) Provide information on the physical condition and 22 current use of any existing facility which the proposed facility
23 would replace. Reports from regulatory agencies regarding the 24 physical condition of the building may be submitted;

25 (b) Describe any existing public facilities with similar 26 uses which are located in political subdivisions with overlapping
27 or contiguous boundaries. Supportive endorsements or proposals
1 from such overlapping or contiguous political subdivisions may be 2 submitted;

3 (c) Contain a description of any published or available
4 alternative proposals from private or public sector groups
5 proposing to serve the same public service needs proposed to be 6 served using the facility; and

7 (d) Examine the potential for alternative service
8 delivery systems or technology which is currently in use for 9 servicing public service needs or may be adapted to serve the same 10 need for public services.

11 The applicant shall provide documentation of the amount

12 and role of private, federal, state, and local funding in such 13 project and any potential impact of the project on the type or 14 amount of federal or state aid which the government may receive.
15 The applicant shall also provide a copy of public documents
16 describing any proposed or available debt or bond financing for the 17 facility and any public reports provided by bond counsel or agent
18 which are relevant to credit rating the applicant for debt
19 financing purposes.

20 Sec. 6. In an application for approval of a reviewable
21 building project, the political subdivision shall bear the burden
22 of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the project 23 meets the applicable criteria specified in section 4 of this act
24 and rules and regulations of the Capital Construction Review 25 Commission. A hearing shall be conducted within thirty days of 26 receipt of the application in the manner prescribed in the 27 Administrative Procedure Act and shall include time during which 1 any interested person wishing to present oral or written evidence 2 to the commission may do so. The political subdivision shall 3 provide notice of the date and time of any hearing in a newspaper 4 of general circulation in the political subdivision at least ten 5 days prior to the hearing. The applicant may file an amended 6 application or a substitute application at the hearing or at any 7 time before the decision.

8 Sec. 7. The decision of the Capital Construction Review
9 Commission shall be based upon the applicable standards for review
10 of an application established pursuant to section 4 of this act.
11 If the commission finds that standards in subsection (3) of section 12 4 of this act have been substantially met by the political 13 subdivision, it shall approve the project. Otherwise, it may 14 disapprove the project or make recommendations for further action 15 by the political subdivision. The commission shall not make its 16 decision subject to any condition not directly related to such 17 standards, and any condition or modification shall bear a direct 18 and rational relationship to the project under review.

19 The commission shall issue a written decision thirty days 20 after the date of the hearing unless the applicant consents to an 21 extension of time. The findings, conclusions, and decisions 22 resulting from the hearing shall constitute the determinations of 23 the commission and shall be included in the written decision.

24 The applicant or any affected political subdivision who 25 has intervened in the matter before the commission may seek 26 judicial review in the manner provided in sections 84-917 to 84-919
27 by filing an appeal within thirty days after the final decision of 1 the commission. The activities of the commission shall not
2 otherwise be subject to the provisions of the Administrative 3 Procedure Act.

4 Sec. 8. The Capital Construction Review Commission may,
5 in accordance with the laws of the state governing injunctions and 6 other process, maintain an action in the name of the state against

- 7 any political subdivision undertaking a reviewable building project
8 without first having approval of the commission.
9 Sec. 9. When a vote of the electorate is required before
10 a bond may be issued for purposes of financing a capital
11 construction project subject to sections 1 to 9 of this act, the 12 issue may not be placed on the ballot prior to project approval by 13 the Capital Construction Review Commission.
14 Sec. 10. Sections 1 to 9 of this act terminate on July 15 1, 2003."

 3 "Section 1. The Legislature finds that the cultural 4 climate of Nebraska is important to the state in many ways, 5 including economically, politically, educationally, and socially.
 6 Further, the Legislature finds that federal funding for the arts 7 and humanities has decreased dramatically and that there is no 8 assurance of continuation of federal funding. In order to ensure 9 there is a stable cultural climate in our state for future
 10 generations, the Nebraska Arts Council and the Nebraska Humanities 11 Council have joined efforts to establish a financial partnership 12 between the public and private sectors.
 13 Sec. 2. (1) The Nebraska Cultural Preservation Endowment

7 (3) The Legislature shall not appropriate or transfer 8 money from the Nebraska Cultural Preservation Endowment Fund for 9 any purpose other than the purposes stated in sections 1 to 4 of 10 this act, except that the Legislature may appropriate or transfer

14 Endowment Fund available for investment shall be invested by the 15 state investment officer pursuant to the Nebraska Capital Expansion 16 Act and the Nebraska State Funds Investment Act.

17 Sec. 3. (1) The Nebraska Arts and Humanities Cash Fund

19 State Treasurer from the Nebraska Cultural Preservation Endowment 20 Fund pursuant to section 2 of this act. The Nebraska Arts Council 21 shall administer and distribute the Nebraska Arts and Humanities

1 recipients. The Department of Administrative Services shall not 2 approve any disbursement from the Nebraska Arts and Humanities Cash 3 Fund unless the Nebraska Arts Council provides documentation that 4 the amount to be disbursed is matched dollar-for-dollar as required
5 by this section. The State Treasurer shall transfer to the General
6 Fund any earnings in the Nebraska Arts and Humanities Cash Fund 7 which have not been expended or obligated as matching funds within 8 one year after transfer to the fund. The transfer shall be made by 9 the end of the then-current fiscal year.

10 (2) Rules and regulations of the Nebraska Arts Council 11 shall provide that the ultimate use of disbursements from the 12 Nebraska Arts and Humanities Cash Fund shall be in a ratio of 13 seventy percent to projects, endowments, or programs designated by 14 the Nebraska Arts Council and thirty percent to projects, 15 endowments, or programs designated by the Nebraska Humanities 16 Council.

17 (3) Any money in the fund available for investment shall 18 be invested by the state investment officer pursuant to the

19 Nebraska Capital Expansion Act and the Nebraska State Funds
20 Investment Act.

21 Sec. 4. The Nebraska Arts Council shall report to the
