AN ACT relating to cities and villages; to amend sections 18-2001 and 18-2002, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska; to change provisions relating to street improvements; to harmonize provisions; and to repeal the original sections.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. Section 18-2001, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read:

18-2001. Any city or village may, without petition or creating a street improvement district, grade, curb, gutter, and pave any portion of a street otherwise paved so as to make one continuous paved street, but the portion to be so improved shall not exceed two blocks, including intersections, or thirteen hundred and twenty-five feet, whichever is the lesser. Such ~~and such~~ city or village may also grade, curb, gutter, and pave any unpaved street or alley which intersects a paved street for a distance of not to exceed one block on either side of such paved street. The improvements authorized by this section may be performed upon any portion of a street or any unpaved street or alley not previously improved to meet or exceed the minimum standards for pavement set by the city or village for its paved streets.

Sec. 2. Section 18-2002, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is amended to read:

18-2002. Any city or village may, without petition or creating a street improvement district, order the grading, curbing, guttering, and paving of any side street or alley within its corporate limits connecting with a major traffic street for a distance not to exceed one block from such major traffic street. The improvements authorized by this section may be performed upon any side street or alley not previously improved to meet or exceed the minimum standards for pavement set by the city or village for its paved streets.

Sec. 3. Original sections 18-2001 and 18-2002, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, are repealed.
