

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

January 6, 1999

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Suttle. Are there any further nominations for the Chair of the Health and Human Services Committee? Seeing none, the Chair declares that nominations are closed. Will you please vote for the individual you would like to select as Chairperson of the Health and Human Services Committee. The Clerk and the Assistant Clerk will come to pick up your ballot. I ask that Senators Crosby, Stuhr, and Bourne please come forward as tellers to tally the ballots for this election.

EASE

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The results of the balloting are as follows: Senator Jensen, 30 votes; Senator Suttle, 19 votes. Congratulations, Senator Jensen. Judiciary Committee, Chair recognizes Senator Brashear.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I rise, first of all, to ask your forgiveness for my egregious failure in not...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator, your microphone does not appear to be working.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I knew that, but I thought I'd go ahead anyway. (Laughter.) Volume's not usually a problem. I'll just go ahead. I rise, first of all, to ask your forgiveness for my egregious failure to put out the mandatory letter declaring my intention and, secondly, to place my name in nomination. You very much honored me two years ago by selecting me to serve as Judiciary Chair. I thank the committee and the staff for training me. I will endeavor to use that experience to our collective benefit this time, if you so see fit. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature and Senator Brashear, my esteemed colleague, you'll have to wait a few minutes before you know exactly why it is that I'm standing here, but, following the lead, somewhat, of Senator Bohlke, I want to mention that in the Lincoln Sunday Journal (and) Star of October 28, 1934, some of the headlines: National
