and, for that reason, I would nominate Curt Bromm for the Transportation Committee Chair.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Further nominations? Senator Coordsen. You're recognized for a motion, Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. I move that nominations cease and that Senator Curtis Bromm be declared, by acclamation, Chair of Transportation Committee. I, quite frankly, in a lame apology, we're trying to dump everyone out of their offices back here in the side columns, so we will pay a little more attention, Mr. Speaker, to our responsibilities on the next time around. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: You've heard the motion in its entirety. All those in favor of electing Curt Bromm as Chair of the Transportation Committee say aye. Those opposed say nay. Congratulations, Senator Bromm, you are the Chair of the Transportation Committee. We'll proceed to the election of the Chair of the Urban Affairs Committee. The nominations are open. Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I'd like to place my name in nomination of Chairman of Urban Affairs Committee. As the title would suggest, it deals with issues of the city and we've heard about water and transportation and so forth, but the issues that affect our cities of this state are very, very important and I'd like...I've had the honor of serving as Chairman of this committee in the past and I would like to continue as Chairman of this committee. I guess what I see my role as a...as Chairman as being a facilitator, of bringing all the people, the committee, into the decision-making process and working for the betterment of the state. With that, I would ask for your support for my continued Chairman of the Urban Affairs Committee.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Senator Hartnett. Further nominations? Senator Coordsen, you're recognized for a motion.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. I move that nominations cease and that the good senator from Bellevue, Senator Paul Hartnett, be declared, by acclamation,
