still in session, but there is a receiving line that is in the Governor's private office. That is where the receiving line begins. You can find that by going on the south...or south of the Governor's private office on the east side of the Capitol on this floor. You're all very welcome. The Legislature will stand at ease for just a moment to allow friends and family to exit from the Chamber. Thank you for being with us today.

EASE

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: (Gavel.) Mr. Clerk, any messages, announcements or corrections?

CLERK: No corrections, Mr. President, but Senator Crosby will have a meeting of Committee on Committees upon adjournment in Room 2102; Committee on Committees, immediately upon adjournment in Room 2102. That's all that I had, Mr. President.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Smith, you're recognized for a motion to adjourn us until tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President, members. I move to adjourn until tomorrow at 10:00 a.m.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Senator Smith. You've heard the motion. All those in favor of adjourning say aye. Those opposed say nay. We are adjourned.
