Transcriber's Office

January 26, 1999 LB 113

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...when that bill came, it would say, Ernie Chambers bought the ice cream cone.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we would know who had done it.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we don't have to put the restrictions in, if we want to catch wrongdoers.

SENATOR CUDABACK: No, no, we don't have to. You're right, hundred percent right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And the other part of the bill I'll talk to you about later,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Um-hmm.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...because, as I stated, my...or, maybe I didn't, my intent right this minute is not necessarily to stop the bill,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...but some of the aspects of it that I think are totally unnecessary and unwarranted.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And that's all that I wanted to ask you. Thank you, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're a good person then.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughing) See, the difference between Senator Cudaback...honey bees are said to bring sweetness and light. In the form of honey, they bring the sweetness. When they make the wax, they can build candles and make the light, and they're wasteful with those things. They just spread them on whomever. But here's what everybody needs to know about a
