this would also change the way ag societies operate, or they could operate under the same scenario or not?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Wouldn't change anything that they do. It'd change the legal framework in which they did it,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: They could be...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...if...if they chose to do it. If...

SENATOR CUDABACK: They could be elected members on the ag society board, as well as the county fair board, right?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay. And a certain percent of the people would have...who would be the determining factor as if they would elect this body?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: You...well, you have to...there are two different processes. One, you can submit a resolution to the county board if they want to create that. The other one is it can originate with the agricultural society itself;...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...says we want to reform into an elected county fair board, and then you can initiate it in that way. You can also initiate it with a petition.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Okay. But the people can do it as well as the fair...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct.

SENATOR CUDABACK: ...board. And not just the decision of the fair board or ag society board itself.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yeah. Yeah. Thank you. I support 437 in every way. As Senator Chambers says, it affects different
