measure of need? The measure of need set out in 806? Yes, some of them received less than...or more than what they were calculated to need,...

SENATOR ENGEL: Right.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...because of the extra distribution. None of them received less under the calculation of 806.

SENATOR ENGEL: Okay. Well, I guess, what I'm...what I'm really concerned about are those that received more.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: More. Yes.

SENATOR ENGEL: Those are the ones I'm interested in at this point in time.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. Yes. And if they had not budgeted, or if they had not spent those dollars, yes, they could be in cash reserve. But, if you made assumptions that that was the level of state aid that you could expect to see in the future, and you budgeted that, and you put those dollars into programs, rather than saying, this thing is so uncertain, I don't know what the next year is going to bring, and I'm going to put everything I can get into cash reserves. Those would have been choices at the local level. And I...I...knowing which one they made and why they made it is, I think, beyond what...beyond the information we would have now.

SENATOR ENGEL: Okay. Well, another comment I want to make then as far as the...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Oh, and I...

SENATOR ENGEL: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...and I should make one other remark. Cash reserves are limited by statute.

SENATOR ENGEL: Okay. Okay, well, another question I have then, I know the Board of Education, they don't have their General Fund operation funds for '97-98. I don't believe they're out
