the problem. If the media wants to be in on these staff educational sessions, fine. I would draft that amendment. I don't think that goes far enough for them, and so we're still looking for solutions. I will say this, if we can't find a solution, that the first three parts of this bill that I talked to you about are far too important, far too important to be...to be stymied or stalled by indecision on this element of the bill. I ask for your...I guess I ask for your input for the solution to this problem because the rest of the bill is just absolutely essential. With that, with that, Mr. President, I hope that I've given the...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR BROMM: ...I hope that I have given the body at least an overview and an exposure of the major components of this bill. The Transportation Committee was very helpful and instrumental in formulating this bill. I want to also give a special credit to Senator David Landis and our Speaker Doug Kristensen. Without their help and their input in trying to bring these parties together, which is a major accomplishment, it would not have happened. So we have many people to thank, and I am sure we have a lot of discussion to go. But regardless of the outcome, I thank those people for their help and their input. So I encourage the body to take an interest in this. I do think it is the most important bill that we will have out of our committee this year, and one of the more important bills...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: time.

SENATOR BROMM: ...on the floor. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, very quickly, Agriculture Committee will meet in Exec Session at eleven o'clock in Room 2022; Ag Committee, 2022, eleven o'clock.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Speakers list for or on the committee amendments to LB 514, Senators Kristensen, Hilgert, Bohlke, Bromm, Chambers, and Brown. The Chair recognizes Senator Kristensen on the committee amendments.
