mean their interest...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: On the...on the...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...could have been running for almost 12 months.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: On the first half.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: On the first half...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...by that point.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: On the first half, that's correct.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So we're talking about quite a big of money.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay. Thank you. Mr. President, members of the body, I...I'm still concerned about this and, Senator Hilgert, if publication is important, then perhaps in Douglas County we should ask that publication be done in the paper of general circulation, which would of course be the Omaha World-Herald. I suspect that people in Douglas County aren't really getting adequate notice now. I suspect that if we did a mailing to them they would have even better notice than they are getting right now because I don't believe that, as Senator Wickersham stated earlier, that that many people are subscribers to the papers that this is in. There's also a great deal of difference between property in urban areas and property in rural areas. I haven't a clue as to what...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...the description, the legal description of our home is. I don't have a clue. People in rural areas do know and do pay attention to those legal notices because they deal with that legal description more than we do here in the city. So I think it's good in some ways to give treasurers the
