the side because they don't have time. Are we mandating? No. Senator Wickersham is absolutely right, the committee amendments do not put any new mandates in place. We're mandating now and I still am absolutely convinced that this publication does work. And, Senator Schellpeper, if people didn't read this in their publications, there wouldn't be the lines at the courthouse after the publication is made to pay their taxes. They're embarrassed. And after 14 months, with the exception of some situations that occur that are going to occur regardless of what system we use, after 14 months they should be embarrassed and they should be at that courthouse paying those taxes, and I, again, stand in support of my amendment.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: Question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Question's been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question before the body is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to cease debate.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Debate has ceased. Senator Byars, you're recognized to close on your amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR BYARS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, colleagues. Obviously, as I said in my last...in my last statement, this I think has received interest from all the members of the body as it should, because it does affect our taxpayers, and there is some difference in opinion on whether this would affect them positively or negatively. But, as Senator Wickersham has so ably pointed out, their committee amendments would make this permissive; would not be less punitive to the taxpayers who didn't pay their taxes than what we have in place right now if the county treasurer would choose to do so. I have not seen a huge outcry uproar of constituents that, including the county treasurers or members of county boards, that have felt this is a change that's necessary, and I have not seen the hue and cry of those same county treasurers
