literally all it does is combine those separate lists into one list and call that an assessment roll.

SENATOR CROSBY: And so do you think you...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It has no implications as far as whether the tax...

SENATOR CROSBY: ...of changing their tax status, whether or not they're exempt.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No, it does not change their tax status. For the most part, the individuals that were testifying, their tax status is dependent upon the application for and the granting of an exemption.

SENATOR CROSBY: Right.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: And that's...

SENATOR CROSBY: I...so...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...that...

SENATOR CROSBY: ...that hasn't changed.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...that has not changed. They would still have to apply.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: And if the exemption is granted, they are not taxed. If the exemption isn't granted, then, of course, they are.

SENATOR CROSBY: But this doesn't change any...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: This does not change that.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...any provisions or anything that they...that might change their exemption?
