SENATOR BROMM: Yeah.

SENATOR BAKER: And we...I'd like to have it just read "loss from a business to arrive", and strike the "or farm" out of there. But, yes, I think that they would be allowed to leave that depreciation off for a car used in a business.

SENATOR BROMM: Or maybe, you know, maybe you could just talk about accelerated depreciation. You can't get accelerated depreciation unless it's associated with a business purpose, at least. It just seems like nailing down "business or farm" is a little...there might be better language. If the bill goes on, I'd recommend maybe you analyze that a little bit.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Time.

SENATOR BAKER: I would agree with that.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Wehrbein, you are the next speaker.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, Madam Speaker, members of the body, I know very little about this issue except to say that I've had many calls and concerns the last 12 years on this very issue. I guess I'd like to ask Senator Kristensen a question, perhaps, just for clarification.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I just had a call the other day about child support and his problem with...it was changed, and you made the statement a few minutes ago that it's figured on the time of the divorce, the child support. Now, that led me to believe it is not changed, but I had a caller that said it is changed.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: No, it can be modified later, and the standard that you have to reach is you just can't come in and say, I want to change it. You have to show what's called in the law "material change in circumstances", and I believe the courts say that if there's a 10 percent variation in your income that that's...that reaches the level of a material change in
