SENATOR SCHIMEK: Certainly.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...county officials, the treasurers, has anyone objected? Because I think this is fairly simple, it would go with our tax...our regular tax notice, right? And they have that pulled out, they have a separate list. They don't have to sit at the computer and try to pull them out?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No, that part is easy, I think, Senator Crosby.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: The only expense...

SENATOR CROSBY: ...to the treasurer's office.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: The only expense, additional expense they will have is in putting this little colored notice together, which should not cost anything, really, just on brightly colored paper.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well,...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Or, or let me go on...

SENATOR CROSBY: (Laugh.) Someone might come along and say, yes, that costs, because we have to copy it, you have to run the copies.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, but we're talking pennies.

SENATOR CROSBY: So how many are we talking about, normally, do you have any idea?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Ah...

SENATOR CROSBY: There was quite a few in the paper.
