programming for that special ed child. Right now, there's a difficulty in the existing law in accomplishing that objective. It is not something that would be discretionary with the Class I district. It wouldn't be discretionary with any district. If you have a special ed child, you've got to be able to provide the services. This simply clarifies or changes existing statutes so that, in the special circumstances of a Class I district, those necessary changes in their budget can be made after February 1st.

SENATOR COORDSEN: There are no other lights on. Senator Wickersham, did you wish to say anything? Closing is waived. The question before the body is the adoption of the Wickersham amendment.
