SENATOR BEUTLER: ...accurate?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...that's right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: That's right, under...with this amendment, yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. If this...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Currently, they can do that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: If this person walks in and the first question is, are you under 21, I guess the sting is over if you say, yeah, I'm under 21.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: If they...if they ask the individual, are you 21, and he says yes, then it couldn't be used. But if they say no...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Do I have it backwards?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: That's why I think we need to get the State Patrol involved in these here stings, because...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...currently what they're doing...

SENATOR BEUTLER: If he says...if he's asked whether he's under 21 and he says, no, I'm not...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: If he says what?

SENATOR BEUTLER: He says, no, I'm not under 21, I'm over 21, I'm not under 21, that's not a truthful response, right?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: It doesn't seem like it would be if he's not telling the truth.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. So, therefore, anything that happens
