SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...when you mentioned drug, I am talking about alcohol, but you think that's the same thing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I do.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The retailer gets how many bites from the apple?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, they get fined severely on the first two.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, no, losing the license is what I'm talking about.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Um-hmm.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because the young person gets fined and loses a license. So how many bites from the apple does the retailer get before the license is taken?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: With this bill, it would be the third time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Three. Which...do you have to be an adult before you can sell liquor? Do you have to be over 21 to be able to sell liquor as a retailer?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Not...I think you can...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: To sell it.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...I'm trying...to sell it you do. I'm trying to think, but you can haul it out...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, to sell it.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...and from cars. Yeah, sell it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Well, now we have an adult who gets three shots, not meaning a pun. We have the youngster who gets
