one shot and the license is lifted. Which of the two should we expect to have more experience and understanding of life, the older person or the younger person?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, I don't know which one has the most experience. I think some of the things that happen, that the youngster may have...

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...might have more experience than a...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Ordinarily, do we consider that...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...it should be the adult ordinarily.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you want to give the adult three shots and the youngster one. Correct?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Under the bill, the license would be taken, we're talking about two different license here though.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I only have a few seconds. I have to turn my light on again. Thank you, Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Before we continue the discussion, Senator Matzke has as his guest, they are under the south balcony, and they are all from Sidney, Don and Nancy Cruise, Tyler and Nathan Cruise, and they are the parents and brothers of our Page, Todd Cruise. Would you all stand and be welcomed by your Legislature. Thank you. Discussion on the Chambers amendment, Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Madam President, members of the Legislature, although I'm interested in the discussion that Senator Chambers and Senator Schellpeper are having about the section on the Highway Patrol and the compliance check operation, from my perspective, it would be better not to adopt the committee amendment at all, which would strike the whole section. Everything would come out about compliance checks, and then we would build back in anything that could get 25 votes that we were persuaded of, as opposed to where we are now, which is we
