to pay, you're going to be punished. Unfortunately, the people of Nebraska may suffer because you all have been derelict and so intimidated by an incompetent man who unjustifiably wears the term lawyer. And the time has come for him to get his comeuppance. He was talking on a bill, that Senator Crosby had, that wanted to make it a homicide if a fetus were killed as a result of an unlawful act. He said it has nothing to do with abortion. So I asked your Attorney General, Attorney General, suppose an illegal abortion is performed, isn't that murder under this bill? You know what he said? (Laugh.) I don't know. My colleagues are here from the Judiciary Committee, and I'm having the transcript printed so I can show you your incompetent Attorney General. And these white newspaper people will not print it. They sit there and listen to it, and they will not print it. But I'm going to expose it every chance I get. And I said, well Mr. Attorney General, you've always pushed these abortion bills; you're speaking on this bill, you ought to know. He said, well I'll have to research it. The Attorney General, speaking on a bill at a public hearing, and he does not know the impact of the bill. You know why he was there? Because it was a hot button political issue. Anything that has abortion attached to it brings him scurrying. But he doesn't know anything. He is not an intelligent person. And I'm going to deal with him...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...every chance I get. When he dares come before that committee, and when something comes up on the floor with reference to him, he violates the concept of separation of powers. Mr. President, how much time do I have?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Forty seconds.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'll put my light on one, last time.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Legislature, and my colleagues on the Judiciary Committee know this to be a fact. He has tried on numerous occasions to
