

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

March 19, 1999 LB 72

I'd ask Senator Chambers if he would respond, please.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, would you yield?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR BROMM: Senator Chambers, I listened intently to Senator Hilgert's questions to you about jurisdiction and what that meant. And I listened to your answer, and I'm unclear as to what your definition of jurisdiction is with respect to what the accepted...well, the legal definition, as we know it, as it applies to law enforcement is. Now you gave the example, if a death occurred in the hands of the Omaha Police Department, that someone from the Douglas County Sheriff's Office could be on the team. Is that...was that your answer?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR BROMM: And...and...and, so how does your...that...that seems to fly in the face of the statutes. Do you know what the definition of jurisdiction is as it relates to law enforcement?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator, yes, it means the area in which they are authorized to conduct law enforcement duties. But here is what else I said, Senator Bromm, when the representatives of the police agencies were speaking, and subsequent to the hearing they used the term multijurisdictional, team or force, meaning not in the sense that we do, the confines within which an officer can conduct law enforcement duties. As you know, officers from Omaha have jurisdiction throughout the state in the strict sense that you're using it. That's why I'm making it clear...

SENATOR BROMM: No, I don't think so, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I do.

SENATOR BROMM: Well, 29-215 speaks about a definition of jurisdiction in our statutes. And it says, jurisdiction shall mean a geographic area within territorial limits of the state or political subdivision which employs a law enforcement officer. Now, if you're going to say, despite the fact that Douglas
