Transcriber's Office

March 24, 1999 LB 476

reports that we read and things that we hear, is being wracked with what is called road rage. And there is a new element in this, because people become infuriated when they see somebody talking on a cell phone while driving and happening to drive a little erratically, or might drive...run them off the road. The fact that the one doing it had a cell phone adds to the aggravation. This would not be the time to pour gasoline on a red hot toaster, if you get my drift. I'm going to ask for a call of the house so that I can get a vote on this very important and meritorious amendment. I had to check my notes to see where I am. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: I understand, Senator. Question before us is to put the house under call. All those in favor vote aye, those opposed nay. Please record.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The house is under call. Would all unexcused senators please return and record your presence. Would all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. If those members present would please record your presence. The house is under call. Those members not excused, please report to the house and record your presence. The house is under call. Senators Dwight Pedersen. Welcome. Senator Cudaback, Senator Schrock. The house is under call. Senator Cudaback, could you please report. Senator Schrock, could you please check in. Thank you, Senator. Senator Cudaback, the house is under call. The question before us is the Chambers amendment to the committee amendments to LB 476. Senator Cudaback, would you check in, please.
