that denial.

SENATOR RAIKES: But even if I am successful in getting a permit and that no...no unsavory characteristics of me or my past has been revealed, that information that I have a license is not public information. Is that right?

SENATOR JANSSEN: That...well, it would be right, but you would have a card. You would have a card that shows that you have a permit and if...

SENATOR RAIKES: But...

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...someone would ask for that card, yes, then you could show it to them if you wanted to.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR RAIKES: Would it be possible for me to find out who has a barber's license in the state of Nebraska without actually going into every barbershop?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR RAIKES: But it wouldn't be possible for me to find out who has a license to carry a concealed weapon without going and checking each person's individual card.

SENATOR JANSSEN: That is what Section 21 says, Senator.

SENATOR RAIKES: Well, again, I'm puzzled as to why that requirement is in place and maybe we can pursue that...

SENATOR JANSSEN: All right.

SENATOR RAIKES: ...again. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN PRESIDING

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Raikes, had you completed? Senator Chambers.
