with reference to both of them.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But the law allows you to carry one of them.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So how's it going to make you guilty of both of them when carrying only one of them would be a crime?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Same way you can't drive two cars at one time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, that's obvious. Physically, that cannot be done, but this is entirely different.

SENATOR JANSSEN: No, I don't believe it is, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Can a person carry, physically, two guns at the same time?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Can you drive, physically, two cars at the same time?

SENATOR JANSSEN: I think I could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Janssen. (Laughter) I don't know who brought that popcorn, but something's in it and Senator...Senator Chris Peterson, we might have to apply your meth bill to whoever supplied...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that popcorn.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Beutler, you are recognized to speak.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I just wanted to continue a little bit along the line of thought
