a chain guard on the bicycle so that your trouser leg wouldn't get caught in the chain.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Those who could not afford a chain guard would roll their pants leg up. Right?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, so you remember that.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, you probably did that after you were a grown man, since you don't remember when you were a child, huh?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Um-hum, um-hum, um-hum, perhaps.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Is that why these people.... Do we require these...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...people out there to ride bicycles in pursuit of these trucks, and won't even give them a chain guard on their bicycle, that's why they have to tuck their pants in their boots, so they won't get them caught in the chain?

SENATOR CUDABACK: I guess I wouldn't know their reason for doing such.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. I'd hate to be in a position to have to answer that. They are ridiculous. They look like clowns to me. And every time I get a chance to ridicule them, I'm going to do it. This Legislature put pistols on those people's side, and they should not be there. And I'm going to do all I can to see that they're disarmed. Oh, and by the way, I support this amendment.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bromm, you're recognized to close on this component of the divided committee amendments.
