March 31, 1999 LB 585

not be adopted by the committee as a committee amendment, it couldn't get out here. Why? Because the liquor industry doesn't want it. The restaurateurs don't want it. That's what determines the agenda, in many instances, and we all know that and understand that that's the way the game is played also. But you all know me, and I will offer amendments and make it clear that I'm offering the amendment to burn up time, to get those 8 hours off the clock, then see if whose ever bill it is can get the 33 votes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And that's what we'll do. But I don't believe that the amendment that I'm offering now is any better policy than the amendment that I'm attempting to eradicate with mine. But it's fighting fire with fire, to try to make the point clear.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Chambers, yours is the next light on. Did you wish to use that time now?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Since it will be the 8 hours, I mean it doesn't matter whether I'm speaking on my time, somebody else's time, this amendment, some other amendment, the bill itself, I'll spend the time. Some people thought because I have a minor cold that I was going to come in here "cripping" and dipping and "tippin'" and falling down and unable to deliver on what I promise. I cannot do that. Maybe when I walk away from here tonight I'll get down to my office and collapse in a heap, unable to move, but you'll never see it and you'll never know it. While I'm up here on the floor in the arena, I will battle toe-to-toe, tooth and nail, mano a mano, ask for no quarter and give none. But this morning I did give quarter, I did, on the drunk part of the bill. There is no way that I believe what Senator Coordsen is offering is going to make any difference in the rate of speed driven on the highway. He had said that putting those signs up saying "double the fine" in construction zones has had the kind of effect he said. There are people who
