kind of be taken care of once and for all. But before I close, I have to ask Senator Kristensen just one more question on the fee schedule in the bill, if Senator Kristensen would answer.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR COORDSEN PRESIDING

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Kristensen, would you respond.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Kristensen, I heard Senator Vrtiska ask and you answered that there is going to be no attempt to recover money lost in the past, at least that's the intent of the bill, and it's going back to my tendency to be skeptical of those who can draw money in based on what they say they need, this bill the way it's drafted would make it possible for an effort to be made to recover money by raising the fees just a bit more than is necessary.

SENATOR COORDSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That could be attempted, couldn't it?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: It could but, you see, the way that...the way it's drawn is it can't go to the trust fund because all DMV can do is send over the actual reimbursement. Who can make money is DMV.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Gotcha. That's what I thought you had said...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...before but I wanted to be crystal-clear. Okay, that's all that I have. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator, could I...could I respond, though,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, sure.
