Senator, but I believe they were, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. The Nebraska Retail Grocers Association...

SENATOR JANSSEN: All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and the Nebraska Retail Federation.

SENATOR JANSSEN: That's true.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you sell these lottery tickets in your grocery store?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes, I do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would this bill benefit you directly, if it's enacted into law?

SENATOR JANSSEN: It would help me break even on them.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you declared a conflict of interest?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes, I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'd like to ask Senator Baker a question.

SENATOR BAKER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Baker, do you sell lottery tickets?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, we do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you will benefit directly, if this bill is passed into law?

SENATOR BAKER: It will cut our losses.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you will benefit directly, financially speaking, if this bill is passed, is that true?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, yes.
