

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 15, 1999 LB 719

Legislature, I agree with Senator Landis that the liquor industry is not going to just get what it wants. It won't, and certainly not on Select File. Another point I would make, with all due respect to our departed colleague, legislation doesn't belong to a particular individual. And in the same way that the lottery bill, which he was the chief sponsor of, continued to be before us and consumed considerable time during our debate, I think that other bill can be brought up also. Maybe it won't be done, but I think that it needs to be discussed by us. The issues in it need to be dealt with, but it's a certainty that Senator Bourne is such a stickler for the Speaker's rule, that this bill is not going anywhere because the amount of time will elapse prior to the opportunity to get a vote. I'd like to ask Senator Bourne another question. Senator Bourne, you're in need when your bill is before us, please.

SENATOR BOURNE: Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bourne, have you been paying attention?

SENATOR BOURNE: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: While not on the floor in front of your mike?

SENATOR BOURNE: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bourne, you are a stickler for sticking to the Speaker's rules with reference to handling bills on consent calendar?

SENATOR BOURNE: In this particular bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Very good answer. Are you trained in the law, Senator Bourne?

SENATOR BOURNE: It could...yes, I think so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you read and familiarized yourself with the Speaker's rules sufficiently to know what will happen to a bill if more than a certain number of minutes elapse before the introducer is closing?
