question. I am going to oppose Senator Brashear's amendment. Now I'd like to ask Senator Schrock a question, if he will yield.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Schrock, would you yield?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schrock, we both know that life is not fair, don't we?

SENATOR SCHROCK: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This bill is designed, though, to try to bring some fairness into a situation where there is unfairness. Isn't that true?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Senator Chambers, I think any time you can make life more fair, you should strive to do that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Not just on your bill, but on my bills too?

SENATOR SCHROCK: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So when my bill comes up again are you going to at least have an open mind on it?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I try to have an open mind on every...everything, but...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, you failed yesterday, and acknowledged it.

SENATOR SCHROCK: I understand. I understand your concerns in that direction.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Schrock. That's as much as I can ask for. Understanding's the greatest thing in the world, next to a few other things that I won't go into now because it would take the time. I had said on General File when this bill came up, and I bet nobody believed me, that despite the fact that it had a large vote to send it to Select File that
