Transcriber's Office

April 22, 1999 LB 835

I'm looking at the backs of heads and hoping somebody will raise their hand or nod that they have, and I'm not getting any kind of an indication.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Me either. You know what I might do?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: What might you do, Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I may offer a motion to strike that amendment we just adopted, because we don't need it. Nobody knows why we adopted it.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: No, no, no, now you're going too far.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, then let's...back me up and let's try to...we're brackets. Now I'm way to the left, you're way to the right, let's kind of work toward the middle so we both are talking about the same thing.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: All right, let's do that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. What do you know...?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: We need...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All you know, really, is that there would be a different...

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I know...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...type of reporting to the state than that which is being done to the federal government.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: That's right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is that true?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: We would be constructing a dual reporting system. And I, for one, as just an ordinary citizen, see no reason for a dual reporting system.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But, if the same thing is going to be given
