

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 22, 1999 LB 822

was the situation there and they could take care of the problem themselves. Again, I think this is a compromise and, in some cases, yes, maybe we need a little...need a little more time to get this in place, but I'm afraid if we...if we just keep leaving it open there are some counties that are never going to do it until they're pressured into it or till something happens to that county when they come down the Legislature and please help us with this. I think we're trying to help them with this legislation and I will support Senator Kremer's amendment and the bill. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Senator Wehrbein, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you, Mr. President and members. I want to call your attention to your weekend reading on your desk.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Did you want to request a point of personal privilege?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Please. Please, first,...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Go ahead.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...may I have a point of personal privilege? I handed out...on your desks is the proposed budget and I wanted to call your attention to that so you'll have this weekend to read it and should be plenty of time for preparing for debate, which I understand is tentatively scheduled for Thurs...Tuesday afternoon, next Tuesday afternoon. And it also represents the deficit appropriations. The details are in that. If you need more copies they're available in the Fiscal Office. There will be one distributed to every senator, in your office. If you have questions about it, please see the Fiscal Office. If you have amendments you wish to draft to it, please see the Fiscal Office. They will help you. If you...as you may not need to be reminded, it is confidential. Any contact you have with fiscal analysts will be confidential. If you want to change some things, see something wrong, or whatever, that you are not understanding, please see them and we will have the order then next week for discussion. This is also being posted on the Internet, and so I hope you have happy reading. This should
