SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, what's a behemoth got to do with all this?

SENATOR BRUNING: (Laugh) Isn't that a rhetorical question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, I don't even know what you're talking about. I'm wondering if you're talking about something else now other than what...are we talking about triple piping now?

SENATOR BRUNING: (Laugh) No, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, this isn't the name of a company though, the "Behemoth"? (Laugh)

SENATOR BRUNING: (Laugh) No, it is not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Maybe I can come back to that. Now you had said that there was a meeting of the minds between you and Senator Preister on this amendment that we're considering.

SENATOR BRUNING: Correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is Senator Preister as tall as you are?

SENATOR BRUNING: I don't think so, but perhaps.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So that would mean you're taller than Senator Preister.

SENATOR BRUNING: I'm taller than you as well.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I'm not the subject of the discussion. Practically everybody in shoe leather is taller than I am. Senator Bruning, you are taller than than Senator Preister, is that correct?

SENATOR BRUNING. Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Since the mind is believed by people to reside in the brain, how did you all meet minds? Did Senator Preister stand on a chair or did you bend at the waist slightly?
