will go to replace a facility at Geneva, called the Dunbar Unit; $2.2 million goes to the multipurpose 16-bed intake facility at Geneva; and up to $500,000 for a master plan study for the juvenile facilities. That's one we talked about, total of $4.7 million for the next two years of the biennium. We discussed that quite thoroughly a few minutes ago. I don't know if there's any questions about that at this point or not, but it does allocate money then to Geneva to take care of the conditions that were described by several on that task force and the committee. If there's any money left we would understand it could go to Kearney, but this does take care of the most serious issues at Geneva.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Seeing no lights, the question before the body is the Wehrbein amendment to the committee amendments. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 1 nay on adoption of Senator Wehrbein's amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The Wehrbein amendment to the committee amendments is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend. (FA129, Legislative Journal page 1738.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, to open on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, this amendment I had drafted by Fiscal staff. It was just completed so I don't have a copy to share with you, but I'm going to read it for you. The first...I will tell you what the intent is. The intent is to have a review of where that facility, that work camp, is to...is located, and I'm going to read the language so you will know what it is that's being said. And, since I'm reading it, in order that the record will show where it's to be placed into the bill, it would amend the committee amendments by...well, AM1216, to be precise, on page 15, line 17 (sic--27), after the period, this is the language that would be inserted: "It is the intent of the Legislature that no further expenditures for construction of an
