

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 28, 1999 LB 882

as that happens, we can present that to the committee, to whomever. In the claims about the sexual assaults, it will take several days before they can get the documentation completed so that it can be presented to the Legislature. The workers' comp case, as soon as we get the documentation signed and approved by the Workers' Comp Court, that would be ready for presentation. So, there...it would...certainly the testimony was lacking, but it was lacking and probably for a good reason, because they just weren't ready yet, for whatever reason. I have a question, though. And again, maybe I should know this, but the Miller case in Beatrice was a claim to our State Claims Board and it was disallowed at the Claims Board level. And so it's kind of interesting that we were told earlier today we should be consistent and not just overturn things willy-nilly. But what these individuals did, they went to the Claims Board and it was denied. So they went to a suit after the Claims Board, at least that's according to Mr. John Thompson. So it's just kind of...I'm curious on how that works? If you go to the Claims Board and you lose, then you can file suit? Senator Chambers, do you have any knowledge of this type of procedure, where you go to the Claims Board, you failed, and you just sue the state? Because again, you have...you've been here longer than I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I...Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'm not expert in that area, and I...

SENATOR HILGERT: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...know that Senator Kristensen could answer.

SENATOR HILGERT: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But at the city level, before you can go to court, you have to present...

SENATOR HILGERT: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...a claim to the city counsel, and then a certain amount of time elapses, and either they say yea or nay, and then you can go to court.

SENATOR HILGERT: Okay. Senator Kristensen, do you have a...can
