

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 28, 1999 LB 882

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: ...concepts of how do you get to yes, you know, and those sorts of things.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Hilgert, Senator Kristensen. Further discussion? Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. It seems to me that...well, first of all, I'd like to ask a question of Senator Byars, if he would respond.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Byars?

SENATOR BYARS: Yes.

SENATOR TYSON: Senator Byars, a few moments ago you were commenting on the young man, the subject of this claim. He was an employee of a repairman or remodeler, et cetera, at the elevator in question?

SENATOR BYARS: That's to the best of my knowledge, Senator Tyson. I'm certainly not totally familiar with the facts, and I wouldn't want to have them misconstrued.

SENATOR TYSON: Okay, thank you very much, Senator Byars. It seems to me that we have a very clear question, do we vote on this claim up or down? Now we find out that Senator Chambers is a flint-hearted, skin-flint, miserly individual, offering only $300,000 more of the same taxpayer's money that he refused to refund to a taxpayer this morning. If he were truly warm-hearted and generous, he would have made it several million. Afterall, it's not his money, it's the taxpayer's money. Why not give it away? Why not be brave and bold about it? Why not try this whole thing here in the Legislature? We could start a precedent. We could have all sorts of claims come in here, and we could try the whole thing on fact instead of conjecture. Why are we spending this time? We are spending this time so that Senator Chambers, not riding a hobby horse, whipping a horse, and that is our Attorney General. Now I think we should start a campaign. Senator Chambers could start running for Attorney General and, having run for Attorney
