eligible facility can be broader in meaning than the definition, isn't that true, based on this additional language? The eligible facility definition doesn't inc...does not include equipping.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well, you need to equip it in order to operate it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But that's not in the definition, is it?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: The word is not there.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So why do we put equipping down here, if it's included in the concept above? Could that be because there were a number of cooks preparing the broth? I don't have an amendment there yet,...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: If...if...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...but I'm just calling your attention to...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...things you can think about.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: And I will.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Wickersham, I would just like to explore a little more and understand better the timing of some of these things, so that I understand how the bondholders are able to rely upon this revenue. I assume, in coming to conclusions about attributable revenue, all of that work is done once the application is approved, and all of this would be, at this point, before any bonds are issued, right?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No, what will...what will happen is...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah, just...
