SENATOR WICKERSHAM: The tall one.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And then I will ask...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, the tall one, the real one.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: (Laugh)

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wickersham, would you support an amendment to bring honesty to this bill by at last striking all reference to revenue bonds, because they have the authority to do that anyway, but strike it so that it's clear that what this bill is dealing with is general obligation bonds?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Senator, I think that would be an honest thing to do. However, I would suggest to you that, as Chair of a committee, it is my current obligation to support the committee amendments.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And duty must be served. Thank you, Senator Wickersham. Honorably spoken by an honorable man.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close on your motion to reconsider.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If I choose to close, that is? Which I do. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: It is your choice.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You...you read me like a book. This is a dishonest bill and I'm going to say that every time I think to say it. There won't be people running around their districts in Omaha telling what this bill really does. What they're going to do is say Omaha's going to get a convention, Omaha's going to get a convention. But it's going to take general obligation bonds. That means tax money has to be behind it and taxes are
