Transcriber's Office

April 28, 1999 LB 382

SENATOR SMITH: Just on my computer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I won't hold you to this then. I don't want you to have to search for it. I'll ask Senator Landis.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Landis.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Landis, would you turn to page 10 of the amendment.

SENATOR LANDIS: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Beginning in line 3, would you read that sentence for me that starts in line 3?

SENATOR LANDIS: Sure.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR LANDIS: Well, now, Senator, I got to tell you, this is right in front of you as well. I tell you what, why don't you read it and I'll see if it says the same thing I say.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, Senator Wickersham, could I ask you a question?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Wickersham, would you yield?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you turn to page 10 of the committee amendments?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would it offend you to read the sentence that begins in line 3 with the word "nothing"? If you wouldn't take offense, I would ask you to read it. Then I have a question.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well, I'm...okay. "Nothing in the act precludes the Legislature from amending or repealing the act at
