we are legislators, not grammarians. But I think when we put things into the statute we should at least let them be examples of appropriate expression.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. The question that I want to ask of Senator Coordsen relates to the bonds. Senator Coordsen, do you have a copy of the committee amendment?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: I do not have a copy of the committee amendment in front of me, but I do now.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, on page...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Page...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...four, and I'm not going by the page number at the bottom of the sheet.

SENATOR COORDSEN: If you're not going by the page number on the bottom of the sheet, what exactly are you going by?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The number of pages based on the number of lines. For example, page 1 would be lines 1 through 24,...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...then page 2 would be lines 1 through 27...

SENATOR COORDSEN: That's right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...on that first sheet, and continue to the next page. So let me see if I can help you locate where this would be on the...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Well, I think I have a copy then that you are referencing.
