means is the cure-all. It doesn't matter what you do as long as what you're doing it for is good. So, if you're going to tap the till of the schools and pick the pockets of school children, that's all right because law enforcement people are the ones doing it, even though they're the ones sworn to uphold the law. Now if law enforcement is going to be moved by greed to disregard the constitution and laws, I know these hustlers who might put on these conventions and the politicians and the city would not be above doing...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...a little corner cutting.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The question is, shall we reconsider the vote taken on FA142? Those in favor of the reconsideration vote aye, those opposed nay. Have you voted? Please record.

CLERK: 1 aye, 15 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The motion fails. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment to this component of the committee amendment, Senator Chambers, Senator, this is the first of the amendments that you provided to me this morning, FA155. It starts on page 1, line 6. (Legislative Journal page 1800.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I have that.

CLERK: Are you with me?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

CLERK: So we're moving into that series now, I think, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. I was thinking that I was heading into general obligation, but that comes later.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open
